

DİYALOG TAMAMLAMA SORULARI

- 1- Tourist : Could you tell me how to get to the train station, please?
Local :
Tourist : I knew it was nearby. Thanks so much for your help.

- A) Well, actually this area is not on the rail line.
B) Oh, it's very close to where I live.
C) Sorry, I'm not from around here and don't know either.
D) Sure, go to the corner and turn left. It's right there.
E) The station? You can't walk there. You have to take the bus.

- 2- Janet : I can't come to the party tonight. My mother's been really ill and I have to look after her.
Sally :
Janet : Thanks. I hope not as well.

- A) Well, I hope she won't be so inconsiderate next week.
B) I'm sorry to hear that. I hope it's nothing serious.
C) Oh that's bad news. I hope you two have a good time together.
D) Why don't you bring her along. It might cheer her up.
E) I can't stand sick people. I hope my parents never get so demanding.

- 3- Detective : Now then Mr Powell, where were you on the night of the 15th of March?
Mr Powell : The 15th of March?
Detective : Well, perhaps this button from your jacket may help you remember.

- A) I'm afraid I have no idea. I've got a terrible memory.
B) Of course, I will, but I may not remember every detail.
C) Wait a minute! Haven't you questioned me about that case before?
D) Yes, please do. I tend to forget things that happened a long time ago.
E) Do you want me to tell the whole case, or just the time of the murder?

- 4- Ken : Hi George, hello Anna. Let me take your coats.
George : Thanks. What a lovely house.
Ken :
George : Great, I'm starving.

- A) You look as if you haven't had a decent meal in days.
B) It's coming along, but we don't have a kitchen yet.
C) I'm glad you like it. Dinner will be ready soon.
D) Do you want to have a swim in the pool before dinner?
E) Would you like to eat here on the porch, or by the swimming-pool?

- 5- Dan : It's raining so hard I can barely see the road.
Sam :
Dan : Well, I wish you'd said this earlier.

- A) We should have just stayed at home tonight.
B) The weather forecast wasn't bad, though.
C) It hasn't rained so hard for ages, has it?
D) Do you think we should pull over and wait for a while?
E) Aren't you exaggerating? We'll only drive two miles.

- 6- Jane : Are you still working? It's lunchtime and you've been working non-stop since 8:30.
Mary : I know, but I still have so many faxes to type and send.
Jane :
Mary : I can't. If they aren't done by 1:30, I'll be in trouble.

- A) Why should you do everything? Tell the boss to type them himself.
B) OK, then. Let's take all day tomorrow off and relax.
C) Have I told you I'm going to Spain for my holiday? Why don't you come along?
D) I think you need a break. Finish them after lunch.
E) Well, I always make sure I get my work done with time to spare.

7- Kathy :
Robert : Sure, he's in here, sitting on the table.
Kathy : Good. I thought I heard him on the roof.

- A) Isn't your brother in town this week?
- B) Have you fed the kitten already?
- C) Is dinner ready yet? I'm starving!
- D) I think we should get the roof fixed, don't you think?
- E) Have you seen the cat recently?

8- Terry :
Walter : Oh, he's in trouble with the boss.
Terry : Really? What for?
Walter : It seems he was late again and has been given a written warning.

- A) When did Lany get in today?
- B) What's the matter with Larry?
- C) Have you seen the boss yet?
- D) Was Lany late again today?
- E) Why is the boss so angry?

9- Kirn : Who's that package from?
Nancy :
Kirn : Well then, let me have it so I can find out.

- A) It's from your brother in France.
- B) It's the stuff you ordered last week.
- C) I'm sending my dad a present.
- D) I don't know. It's addressed to you.
- E) I bought it at Migros. It was on sale.

10- Grandpa : Have I ever told you about the first time I visited Newcastle?
Grandson : I guess you have.
Grandpa : No, it was long after that. I was a married man then.
Grandson : Oh, I'd like to hear that story then!

- A) Did you go there before or after you got married?
- B) How could you have forgotten that you were telling me about it just yesterday?
- C) And I must admit that I couldn't have endured so many problems at such a young age.
- D) But Johnny may not have heard that story, and I'm sure he'll be glad to listen to it.
- E) Was it just after you left home at the age of twenty?

11- Patient : I just don't seem to be able to sleep at night.
Doctor :
Patient : No more than five or six.
Doctor : You must cut down, especially in the evening.

- A) How often do you take naps in the afternoon?
- B) What time do you usually go to bed at night?
- C) How many cups of coffee do you drink a day?
- D) Have you had any extra stress at work lately?
- E) What time do you generally wake up in the morning?

12- Ian :
Mary : Ugh! What is it?
Ian : Some kind of spider, I think.
Mary : Please, get it off me now!

- A) Don't walk barefoot around here because there may be dangerous insects.
- B) You've got something crawling up your back.
- C) I hope you don't have a phobia about insects!
- D) I think something has just bitten me on the neck.
- E) Oh, what a lovely creature! Can I keep it for my insect collection?

13- Leonard :
Walter : Yes, I phoned him from work last week.
Leonard : Really? I didn't know that he'd had a telephone installed. Can I have his number?
Walter : Sure. It's 867-5309.

- A) Have you spoken to Arthur recently?
- B) Did anyone call while I was out?
- C) I heard Tony's nephew died in a car accident.
- D) Are you still not talking to Albert?
- E) I called Bob at home yesterday evening.

14- Olivia : Could you give me a lift to the station?
Sam :
Olivia : Oh, no problem then. Thanks a lot, anyway.

- A) When do you have to be there?
- B) Why don't you take the train?
- C) Sorry, but my wife's got the car.
- D) Where are you going? On holiday?
- E) Sure, but can you wait a few minutes?

- 15- Theresa : I can't wait to find out what happens at the end of this book.
David :
Theresa : Don't you dare try to spoil it for me!
- A) I bet the movie would be exciting, too.
B) I've read it. I'll tell you now, shall I?
C) You've been reading that book for weeks.
D) I'm surprised you enjoy reading that rubbish.
E) Don't forget to return it when you've finished it.
- 16- Karen :
Pamela : Is that so? I might be interested. What exactly are they looking for?
Karen : It doesn't say. It just says, 'Staff wanted.'
- A) My boss tells me that he wants to employ some more staff.
B) My interview went very well, and the salary is really fantastic.
C) Turkish Airlines is advertising in the appointment section today.
D) I'm going to McDonald's to see if they happen to need anybody.
E) I've heard that one can sometimes get a summer job at Topkapi Palace.
- 17- Daniel : Neville is really getting on my nerves at the moment.
Ben :
Daniel : Neither can I, especially if it is always about themselves, as is the case with Neville.
- A) Yes, he's so selfish. He just can't think of anyone else.
B) Mine, too. I can't stand people who never stop talking.
C) I agree he's a bit irritating, but I don't find him that bad.
D) I really don't know how you can say that. I really like him.
E) Really? I hadn't noticed that he was any worse than usual.
- 18- Paula :
Kathy : Well, I know it was horrible, but you must try to forget about it.
Paula : I know, but it's hard when something like that happens right in front of you.
- A) I had such an awful time at the dentist's today.
B) That was the worst exam I've ever had to write.
C) I can't stop thinking about the accident I saw today.
D) I had a really exhausting day at work today.
E) The dinner party I gave last night was a total failure.

- 19- Janine : Good grief! You were blonde this morning.
Lisa : Yes, I've just been to the hairdresser. What do you think?
Janine :
Lisa : Me, too. It's quite a change, isn't it?
- A) Sorry, but I really don't like red hair.
B) I honestly didn't notice any difference.
C) Well, I'll need to get used to it.
D) I hope you didn't pay too much for it.
E) In my opinion, it's a great improvement.
- 20- Tina : I'm sorry I'm late. Have you been waiting long?
Kay :
Tina : Oh no! You've been here for ages then.
- A) In fact, it took me a long time to find the place.
B) It doesn't matter. I've just arrived myself.
C) Yes, I'm getting very bored and impatient.
D) I suppose you got stuck in the traffic, like me.
E) Well, I was half an hour early actually.
- 21- Ken :
Bob : I've hurt my back, so I'm not playing at the moment.
Ken : That's a pity. Perhaps I'll ask Charles then.
- A) Do you fancy a round of golf tomorrow?
B) Would you like to go jogging this evening?
C) Could I come and watch the football with you?
D) How are your tennis lessons going these days?
E) What have you been up to lately, Bob?
- 22- Andrea : My hair is looking dreadful at the moment and I've got an interview tomorrow.
Sheryl :
Andrea : That's a great idea. Do you know a good place?
Sheryl : Well, there's a salon on King Street that I like.
- A) Why don't you let me cut your hair for you this afternoon?
B) Let's go shopping and you can buy a really nice new suit.
C) I think you should put your hair up in a bun. I can help you if you like.
D) Well, if I were you, I'd have my hair done before I went.
E) Yes, it doesn't look very nice. You had better wear a hat, perhaps.

23- Peter : I've been trying to get hold of Mary, but she's not in the office.
Mark :
Peter : So she has! I'd completely forgotten.
Mark : I think she said she'd be at home this evening.

- A) That's because she's taken the afternoon off to go to the dentist.
- B) Mary lost her job last week, and she's looking for another one.
- C) It's Saturday today. She doesn't work on Saturday afternoons.
- D) She went home early because she wasn't feeling very well.
- E) She's only working part-time now. She doesn't have to work late.

24- Clara :
Janet : Oh, I share your opinion completely. They definitely should.
Anna : I disagree. I have to work — we need the money.
Clara : I'm sorry. I didn't mean to offend you.

- A) People shouldn't talk about how much they earn, should they?
- B) Anna, I think you should give up work now that you have a child.
- C) Do you think women should earn the same salaries as men?
- D) I'd like to know if you think my firm should pay me more.
- E) I think all mothers should stay home with their children.

25- Daisy : Your car's running very smoothly. Have you recently had it serviced?
Bob : Not exactly, but I had a new engine put in last week.
Daisy :
Bob : Yes, I did.

- A) Did you do all the work yourself?
- B) That must have cost you a lot of money.
- C) Oh, you're very good at fixing your car then.
- D) I suppose you took it to your local garage.
- E) What did you do with the old engine?

26- Karen : Don't you work for the lawyers Matthews and Bourne?
Grace :
Karen : Oh dear, I'm really sorry to hear that.
Grace : Never mind. I've already found a new and better job.

- A) Yes, but they are suffering from a lack of clients these days.
- B) You seem as if you haven't heard that they went bankrupt.
- C) Oh, I've only been with them for a little more than three months.
- D) I used to, before I started my own business with a friend of mine.
- E) Is it true that you used to work before you got married?

27- Alfred : I suggest we try the new Chinese Restaurant on the corner of Bridge Street and Main Avenue.
Henry : Sorry, but I can't stand Chinese food.
Donald :
Alfred : Well, you choose then, as it really doesn't matter to me.

- A) I think you've been there before, haven't you? Was it nice?
- B) Nor do I. I always feel ill after I've eaten a Chinese meal.
- C) Actually, neither can I. Why don't we go somewhere else?
- D) So do I! Isn't it the most disgusting food you've ever had?
- E) Oh, having just received my salary, I can afford to go to such an expensive restaurant.

28- Basil :
Doug : Yes, he has, and I'm afraid he's still not back.
Basil : Well, will you send him to my office as soon as he returns? I need to see him urgently.
Doug : Yes, of course I will, Basil.

- A) Has Larry gone to the bank again?
- B) Has anyone seen Larry in the office?
- C) When's Larry seeing the accountant?
- D) Is Larry still on his lunch break?
- E) Larry hasn't arrived here yet, has he?

29- Sally : Did you see Teresa yesterday?
 Alice :
 Sally : Have they really? What wonderful news!
 Alice : Yes, she was really excited about it.

- A) Yes, I did. She's found a new job as a journalist with a new women's magazine.
- B) Yes. She and Bruce have finally got engaged and set a date for the wedding.
- C) Teresa told me some fantastic news. You really won't believe what's happened.
- D) Yes. They haven't found a flat yet even though they have been looking for one month.
- E) No. She's still on holiday in London and won't be back until next Wednesday.

30- John : I hear James is leaving his company.
 Bill :
 John : Didn't he? That's strange.
 Bill : Maybe he hasn't made a final decision yet.

- A) No, that's not true. After careful consideration, he's decided not to resign.
- B) He wasn't given the promotion that he wanted and was definitely qualified for.
- C) Really? I saw him yesterday and he didn't mention anything about it.
- D) Actually, I was told that he didn't want to leave but had no other alternative.
- E) He told me not to tell anyone about his decision until he'd told his staff personally.

31- Moira :
 Lindsay : No, but if I happen to see it, I'll let you know.
 Moira : Thanks. I had it only yesterday, but now I don't know what I've done with it.

- A) Have you seen my car keys anywhere, Lindsay?
- B) Did you like the new Brad Pitt film? I think you've seen it.
- C) What did you do with the newspaper I bought? I haven't read it yet.
- D) Did anything unusual happen at work yesterday?
- E) You haven't seen the latest issue of National Geographic, have you?

32- Joe : Officer, my car's been burgled.
 Policeman :
 Joe : My briefcase, and the stereo.
 Policeman : You'd better come down to the station and file a report.

- A) Do you know what was taken from your car, Sir?
- B) Is there anything else you'd like to report, Sir?
- C) Did the thieves take anything else as well, Sir?
- D) Can you give us an accurate description of your vehicle, Sir?
- E) Did you lock the car properly when you left it, Sir?

33- George : Are you going to the office party on Friday night?
 Rufus :
 George : I don't either, but I feel I ought to go, so I suppose I will.

- A) No. definitely not. I'll be too tired by the end of the week.
- B) I haven't decided yet, but I don't want to.
- C) Yes. I am. I think it will be a nice evening.
- D) Nobody has told me there's going to be a party.
- E) I'd like to, but I'm not sure what to wear.

34- Glenda : Oh, I'm so glad to be home.
 Patty : Where have you been? I was worried about you.
 Glenda :
 Patty : You poor thing. I know what they're like on a Friday evening.

- A) I must collect the children from school and take them shopping.
- B) I had to go to the supermarket and there were awful queues.
- C) I went out to see a film with one of my friends from work.
- D) I think I should finish work at about half past five today.
- E) You shouldn't have worried. I've been having a meal with friends.

35- Barbara :
 Angela : I'm absolutely certain. I've got lots of work to do.
 Barbara : Well, if you change your mind, you'll be very welcome.

- A) Would you like to come to the cinema tonight?
- B) Do you have to baby-sit Tommy this evening?
- C) I'm not certain whether Jim will join us for the theatre.
- D) Are you sure you don't want to go out with us?
- E) Aren't you going out for dinner tonight?

- 36- Max : Have you heard anything from Sonia since she left?
Tom :
Max : Yes, I suppose she must, with a new job and a strange town to get used to. Perhaps she'll write soon.
Tom : I certainly hope so.
- A) No, but her family must have got some news from her.
B) I had a letter from her yesterday.
C) No, not a word. She must be very busy.
D) No, I haven't. I must talk to her mum.
E) Her family told me she's very well.
- 37- Brian : I can't get the timer on the video to work. Have you got any idea how it works?
Owen :
Brian : It's useless because it's in Japanese.
- A) Where was your video recorder made?
B) I think you should watch this program instead.
C) What do you think the problem with it is?
D) Don't you think you should phone the manufacturers?
E) Why don't you read the instruction manual?
- 38- Gerry : Thank you very much. That was absolutely delicious.
Fiona : I'm glad you liked it — it was my grandmother's recipe.
Gerry :
Fiona : Well yes, I think she is.
- A) Does she really enjoy cooking?
B) She must be a wonderful cook,
C) You should certainly give it to me.
D) Does she write all her recipes down?
E) It's the best apple pie I've tasted.
- 39- Vicky : I want to have the sitting room painted next week.
Rita :
Vicky : Well, for one thing, I don't have a ladder or any other equipment.
- A) I know someone who'll do a good job.
B) Why? It looks absolutely fine to me.
C) Do you think it will cost a lot of money?
D) Why don't you just do it yourself?
E) Isn't that going to be difficult for you?

- 40- Paula: I'm putting in a load of washing. Is there anything you want done?
Diana: Is there room in the machine for my purple skirt?
Paula:
Diana: Yes, I guess it should. You're right.
- A) Yes. I think there should be.
B) Shouldn't that be hand-washed?
C) I would have them dry-cleaned if I were you.
D) Your trousers should be washed, too.
E) You ought to wash that in lukewarm water.
- 41- Lizzy: Have you invited the Rogers to the party?
Simon:
Lizzy: If you're not certain, I'd better give them a ring tonight, just in case you didn't.
- A) Well, I think I mentioned it to them on Friday.
B) No, I'm sorry. I completely forgot about them.
C) Yes, but they're not sure if they can come.
D) I don't think we want them at the party, do we?
E) I spoke to them last night and they'll be coming.
- 42- Bob: I hear your wife had a baby. Congratulations! Is it a boy or a girl?
Ray:
Bob: Amazing, but why do you look so worried?
Ray: I just don't know how we're going to cope with so many.
- A) In fact, it was triplets: two girls and a boy.
B) Fortunately a girl, because my wife really wanted a girl.
C) I was really hoping for a little girl, but I suppose a boy is all right.
D) Well, we already have two sons.
E) It didn't really matter to me. Either is fine.
- 43- Ellen: Do you and Jack want to come sailing with us over the weekend?
Fran:
Ellen: According to the forecast, the rain should stop and the wind should pick up.
- A) I'd like to, but Jack is scared to death of the water.
B) Sailing? Great. But where are we going to get a boat?
C) That sounds great, but what about the weather?
D) Sorry, I can't. I have to work all weekend.
E) I guess so, but I'll have to rent some skis. I broke mine last year.

44- Edwina: Basil Jones! I haven't seen you in years? How have you been?
Basil:
Edwina: I can't believe it. In school, you were always terrible at maths.
Basil: So was Einstein.

- A) Not very well. I've been living on public assistance for the last few years.
- B) Not bad. I've just finished my second novel. It's coming out next month.
- C) Fine. I inherited my father's fortune, so now I don't have to work at all, though I spend some time at the race track.
- D) Excellent. I gave up my job as a stock broker to paint. There's no money in it, but I love the life.
- E) Very well. I started my own computer company about ten years ago, and now I'm doing well.

45- Jenny:
Old Lady: Oh, thank you dear. What a nice surprise!
Jenny: Why is that?
Old Lady: Well, so many young people are very rude these days.

- A) You look really tired.
- B) Excuse me, is this seat free?
- C) That package looks very heavy for you, doesn't it?
- D) Would you like to sit down?
- E) What a nice little dog! He must be good company for you.

46- John: Hi, Sally. Are you going to Fred and Ginger's wedding on Saturday?
Sally: Haven't you heard? Ginger called it off. She says she's not ready for marriage yet.
John:
Sally: Apparently so. And both families are really angry at her.

- A) Poor Fred must be heartbroken.
- B) I still haven't decided what to get them for a present. Any suggestions?
- C) Wonderful. She must be really looking forward to it.
- D) I agree. I always thought she was too good for him.
- E) That's terrible. How is Fred taking it?

47- Stewardess: Excuse me, Sir, didn't you hear the pilot announce that we are approaching turbulence and you should fasten your seat-belt?
Passenger:
Stewardess: You needn't worry. Sir. We should be through it in about ten minutes.

- A) Who you're here, could you get me a drink please?
- B) Not turbulence! I knew I shouldn't have flown!
- C) Oh, I'm sorry, I must have been asleep. I'll take care of it right away.
- D) Oh good. I've never been in turbulence before, and I'm really excited.
- E) Thank you. When we arrive, how long does it take to get through Customs?

48- Passenger: Excuse me, is this the coach for Birmingham?
Conductor:.....
Passenger: Is there another one? I have to get there before this evening.
Conductor: Sure, there is one every half hour.

- A) Yes, this is the express. We should be there by mid-afternoon.
- B) We go to Birmingham but by a round-about route. Even so we'll be there by noon.
- C) Yes, but we're full. Don't worry though, there is another one in ten minutes.
- D) Of course, Sir. Do you want a single or return ticket?
- E) No. Sir. That one left five minutes ago.

49- Bruce: Hello...Tina? It is Tina, isn't it?
Tina:
Bruce: I'm Bruce, from high school. Remember me?
Tina: I'm terribly sorry, I didn't recognise you at all.

- A) This is Tina. I think you're Bruce, aren't you?
- B) Hello, have we met before? I'm sorry, you are?
- C) Were you at high school or university with me?
- D) Bruce! I haven't seen you for several years.
- E) Good grief! It's Bruce! You look unrecognisable.

50- Sonya:

Sarah: Well, I'm sure she'd love a book.

Sonya: Does she read a lot?

Sarah: Not that much. But it's the thought that counts.

Sonya: OK, I'll buy a book for her then.

Thanks for the suggestion.

A) What's a good present for my seventy-year old aunt?

B) What are you going to buy Holly for her birthday?

C) What did you give your mother for Christmas?

D) I hate buying birthday presents because I can never decide what to buy!

E) I don't know what to give Lisa for her birthday.

51- Fred: Wow, I've certainly put on a few kilos in the last few weeks.

Dick:

Fred: Well, thanks, but it is to me.

A) Never mind! You can lose them quickly if you take some exercise.

B) Don't worry about it. I know a really great diet.

C) Really? If that's true, it's not noticeable at all.

D) Yes, your waistline has expanded a lot recently.

E) I have to say that you don't look any fatter to me.

52- Charlie: What's the water like?

Estelle: It's absolutely freezing! I think I'll just sit in the sun.

Charlie:

Estelle: Okay, I'll give it a try if you join me.

A) Oh come on, you'll soon get used to it once you're in.

B) I'm afraid I've got a cold, so I'm just going to watch.

C) Why don't you put on a thick layer of sun-cream?

D) Don't be surprised as they're always cold at this time.

E) It's a pity that I didn't bring my bathing suit then.

53- Terry: I think the committee has done some really good things.

Fiona:

Terry: Well, take the reduction of membership fees.

Fiona: Okay, you've got a point there.

A) Which committee are you talking about?
The one at the gym?

B) Oh yes, I agree. Everything has been really well-organised.

C) In my opinion, they're doing a much better job than last year's.

D) I'm thinking of leaving the club because I can't afford it.

E) Do you really think so? I don't agree. Like what, for instance?

54- Lenny:

Jack: I don't much fancy either of them, to be honest.

Lenny: Well, what would you like to listen to then?

A) I have no idea what sort of music I should play at the party tonight.

B) Is there anything special you'd like to watch on TV?

C) What kind of music do you usually enjoy listening to?

D) I've got about 50 records on compact disc at the moment.

E) Would you rather I put on Frank Sinatra or Julio Iglesias?

55- Karen: Have you seen the headlines today?

Margo:

Karen: What a pity! I think it's important to stay informed.

A) Can you believe the news about yesterday's Wall Street crash?

B) No, not yet. I'm just about to sit down with the newspaper.

C) No, I haven't a clue where I've put them. Have you seen them?

D) Actually, I never buy the paper, because it's full of bad news.

E) No, but I listened to the news on the radio a few minutes ago.

56- Mother: I thought I told you to do the washing up before you could watch television.
Daughter: But I always have to do the washing up. Why can't Bobby do it?
Mother:
Daughter: That's not the real reason. I think it's because I'm a girl and he's a boy.

- A) Maybe you're right. In today's world, housework.
- B) But he's only a baby. He can't even see over the sink.
- C) If you don't do what I tell you right away, you won't be able to watch TV for a week.
- D) Because you are the, one who has to learn how to be a good wife and mother someday.
- E) You're older, so you have to take more responsibility.

57- Policeman: What happened here?
Yvonne:
Policeman: Oh dear! So your car was sandwiched between the two of them.
Yvonne: That's right. And it wasn't even my fault.

- A) I'm sorry officer, I must have been driving too fast and I didn't see the two children run into the street.
- B) The car in front of me stopped suddenly, I managed to stop in time, but the car behind me didn't.
- C) I guess I wasn't looking, and I hit the parked car. Then the car behind hit your car.
- D) I don't really know. When I went into the bank to get some money, two masked men with guns and big bang came running out.
- E) I stopped at the stop light, and that big van smashed right into the back of my little car.

58- Steve: That's a beautiful juniper you have on!
Janet:
Steve: Do you know where she got it?
Janet: No, it was a gift.

- A) Thanks. My mum gave it to me.
- B) Really? My sister doesn't like it.
- C) I bought it at Marks & Spencer's.
- D) Thank you. I like it a lot, too.
- E) My daughter said the same thing.

59- Caller: Hello, could I reserve a double room for two nights next week?
Reception:
Caller: What a shame. Can you recommend anywhere else?

- A) I'm afraid there are no seats available for that performance, Sir.
- B) The night trains are all booked up for next week. Sir.
- C) Of course. Sir. Can I take your credit card details?
- D) I'm afraid we're all booked up next week. Sir.
- E) There are tickets available, but only for the matinee.

60- Customer: Can you help me? I'm looking for a pet for my nephew?
Assistant:
Customer: He's eleven years old, very gentle and affectionate.

- A) Has he got any pets at the moment? A dog, for example?
- B) What sort of animal do you think he'd like?
- C) I'll need to know a little more about him before I can advise you.
- D) Do you think he'd like something unusual like a snake, or something more traditional?
- E) What sort of price range did you have in mind?

61- Andy: Oh no! I've burned the dinner and our guests will be here in half an hour.
Anne:.....
Andy: Of course. I'll do whatever I can.
Anne: Okay. Just don't go near the cooker again, and do only what I tell you.

- A) Well, you'd better do something, or it will be really embarrassing.
- B) I've got a book of quick recipes. I'll try to put something together if you help me.
- C) I knew this would happen if I trusted you to do the cooking.
- D) I'll run out to the shops while you try to rescue as much as you can.
- E) This calls for a rescue operation. Have you seen my cook book?

62- Dealer: Now, Sir, this is just the car for you. It has only had one owner, and she was an old lady who only used it to drive to church on Sundays.

Jerry:

Dealer: Perhaps because of these minor defects I can make you a special offer.

Jerry: No thanks. I think I can find one better-cared for.

- A) It certainly looks good. Can I take it for a test drive?
- B) Yes it looks like new. But it doesn't even start.
- C) I'm interested, but for a car of its age, it is a little expensive. Do you think you could reduce the price?
- D) It doesn't look in very good shape. There are dents in the doors, and it's all rusty.
- E) Okay, I'll take it. But only if you give me a good trade-in on my old car.

63- Kevin: Hi Mick. If you need work, we've got a roofing job coming up next week.

Mick: In the middle of winter? Are you crazy?

Kevin:

Mick: Okay then. I'll accept it. When shall I start?

- A) Yes, you may be right as it's been below freezing this week.
- B) In fact, it is a silly time. I think I'll refuse the job.
- C) Work is scarce right now. Take it or leave it.
- D) I'll take that as a refusal? Am I right?
- E) Well, then I'll call you when I've heard from the owner next week.

64- Jeremy: Hello Phil. How are your wife and children?

Phil:

Jeremy: Oh, it's like an epidemic these days. If there's anything we can do to help, just let us know.

- A) My wife went to visit her parents last week and took the kids with her.
- B) They've all been down with the flu, so it's been really difficult to cope.
- C) My wife's brother died last week, so she's gone home for the funeral.
- D) They're fine, but my wife's new job keeps her so busy that I have to do most of the housework.
- E) My son has just been expelled from school, but my daughter's at the top of her class.

65- Sheila: I've got next week off, and I don't know what to do.

Patricia: The weather is so nice this time of year. Why don't you go to the seaside?

Sheila:

Patricia: Don't be silly. Just go. I'm sure you can find somewhere to stay.

- A) We've thought of that, but it might be crowded, and we haven't made any reservations.
- B) But it is so far. We'd have to spend half the week driving back and forth.
- C) I don't know, I'm not that fond of camping isolated from people.
- D) Oh, I can't swim, and James just gets bored lying in the sun.
- E) The last time we went to the seaside, we camped out and had a lovely time.

66- Peter: We'll never get this work finished unless we hurry.

Paul: And if we don't finish, the boss will go mad.

Peter:

Paul: Yes, we shouldn't miss a minute.

- A) I think it's time we had a cup of tea, then.
- B) Well, is there a good mental hospital in town if he goes mad?
- C) Why don't we move on to something else that is more important?
- D) Let's go home and worry about it tomorrow.
- E) Then we'd better stop talking and start working.

67- Ryan: Don't forget to pack plenty of warm clothes for the evenings.

Kelly:

Ryan: Don't you remember what happened last time? We almost froze.

Kelly: Okay, just don't moan about how heavy the bags are.

- A) There is enough in here to keep a small army warm.
- B) Oh, shall I pack your green cardigan, then? I know it's your favourite.
- C) But I don't think it will be cold there at this time of year.
- D) How do you know it's going to be cold? We've never been there before.
- E) Why don't you stop ordering me around and help?

68- Susie: Why don't we go and visit Grandma this weekend?
Fred: Don't you remember? She was going to Paris this weekend.
Susie:
Fred: She's been that way ever since I can remember — always full of energy.

- A) She is certainly active for a woman of her age.
- B) We never seem to do anything like that.
- C) Oh, she must be on her way there then, if she took the 9.30 Hovercraft.
- D) It's a good thing she has the Social Services to take care of her.
- E) She has such a boring life, we should go and cheer her up.

69- Lilly: What a fantastic dress!
Sophie: Thanks. My brother is a fashion designer, and this is an exclusive.
Lilly:

- A) Do you know where I can get one just like it?
- B) I don't care what you say, I still think it's nice.
- C) Maybe so, but I still say it looks like some kind of peculiar fantasy.
- D) It's a shame there aren't any more like it. I'd love to have one.
- E) There may be plenty of others like it, but it still looks good on you.

70- Nancy: I don't understand what this painting is supposed to represent.
Thomas:
Nancy: What? I can't see that at all.
Thomas: Well, that's what it says in the catalogue.

- A) I also think it's an awful painting. The colours are too bright.
- B) Well, apparently, it's a painting of a mother and her child.
- C) Can you imagine it in our living room hanging over the fireplace?
- D) Well, it is one of those modern paintings without a specific figure.
- E) I painted it myself in my free time, and didn't actually intend to make it look like something.

71- Sam:
Jim: I'd rather you didn't. It was very expensive.
Sam: I promise I'll take good care of it.

- A) I have to attend a very elegant business meal tonight.
- B) Would you mind if I borrowed your Armani suit?
- C) I'd like to buy a new sports car just like yours. Do you recommend it?
- D) Can you lend me your camera this weekend?
- E) Can I use your sunglasses when I go to the beach?

72- Henry: Goodnight, Mum, and Dad. I'm off to bed.
Father:
Henry: But Dad, I did it last night.
Father: Maybe so, but they're full again tonight.

- A) Don't forget to brush your teeth and wash your face.
- B) What time do you want me to wake you up tomorrow?
- C) Not until you've taken the rubbish bins outside.
- D) Remember, we're having dinner with Granny tomorrow. Do your homework in the afternoon.
- E) Good luck in your exams tomorrow morning at school.

73- Bruce: Can you tell me how much these watches cost?
Salesman: That one's £50 and the other is £125.
Bruce:
Salesman: Well, it's a designer watch and has a lifetime guarantee.

- A) Why is this one so much more expensive?
- B) Can you tell me why they are so costly?
- C) Why is there such a big difference in price?
- D) Oh! Thanks, goodbye. I'll think about it.
- E) I see. So that would be a total of £175.

74- Sophie: Can I have a look at the book you're reading?
Tessa:
Sophie: Don't worry, I'll keep my finger in it.

- A) It's in German. Can you read that?
- B) No. I'm reading it at the moment.
- C) I'll give it to you when I've finished.
- D) Okay, but please don't damage it.
- E) Sure, but please don't lose my place.

75- Wayne:

Julia: Well, what's your opinion?

Wayne: I don't know. I don't understand international finance.

- A) People are saying the dollar is going to fall next week.
- B) We want to send our son to the USA for his university education.
- C) Both Turkey's and Italy's currencies are called the lira.
- D) I doubt that many people can afford these new cars.
- E) Switzerland's always been politically and economically stable.

76- Shirley: So what was the outcome of the meeting?

Julian:

Shirley: Oh, what a pity, but you'll just have to wait a little longer to hear the assessment of your project, I suppose.

- A) It was a complete disaster. We lost the contract.
- B) It was postponed. The chairman couldn't attend it.
- C) The board voted to cancel our project. I'm afraid.
- D) Shirley, my dear, I think we're going to be rich.
- E) Oh, it was boring and I couldn't wait to get home.

77- Mother: My son, as you can see, has red spots and a high fever.

Doctor:

Mother: Oh, thank you Doctor. I always feel so safe with you.

- A) All children get sick from time to time. You've just overreacted by bringing him here.
- B) I hope you haven't sent him to school like that. He should be in bed.
- C) I don't know what it might be, but it certainly looks serious.
- D) It looks like measles, but I'll examine him just to make sure.
- E) I don't think there is much wrong with him. You can send him back to school tomorrow.

78- Hilary: You never talk to me any more.

Jon:

Hilary: I said you never talk to me any more.

And you never listen to anything I say either!

Jon: Well, you may be right, but it is not entirely my fault. Every time I try to talk, you succeed in turning it into an argument!

- A) Well, I'm trying to finish this book as I have to return it to the library tomorrow.
- B) Oh, have you had a nice day? My day at the office was really tiring.
- C) I'm sorry. Did you say something?
- D) That's true, but I just don't have anything to say to you.
- E) Can't you see how busy I've been in the office lately?

79- Sally: That was a lovely dinner,

Sarah. You must give me the recipe.

Sarah:.....

Sally: You're joking! I had no idea he was so talented.

- A) I'm glad you liked it. It's one of Fred's favourites as well.
- B) I don't use recipes, I just make things up as I go along.
- C) I'm surprised you left so much. I'll have to feed the leftovers to the dog.
- D) You may not find the ingredients here. Fred brought them back from his trip to Japan.
- E) Oh. I didn't cook it. Fred did all the cooking tonight.

80- Frances: Hello Wallace, hi Margarette. How nice of you to come and meet us!

Wallace:

Frances: That's what we've heard. We really appreciate it. It must be wonderful to have so much free time after years of hard work!

- A) I didn't really want to come, but my wife insisted.
- B) Our son is getting married, and we've brought you an invitation to their wedding.
- C) We know you get lost wherever you go, so we thought we'd better look after you.
- D) Well, your house is a long way from the airport, and it can be confusing for newcomers.
- E) We often meet friends these days. We are enjoying our newly-acquired retirement.

81- Officer: May I see your passport, please?
Traveller: Yes, here you are.
Officer:
Traveller: Impossible! I'm sure there must be some mistake!

- A) Your passport will expire in about a month. Don't forget to get a new one, or you will get into trouble.
- B) Thank you, Sir. Have a nice stay. I hope you'll like our country.
- C) You haven't got a visa. You can get one from the desk just over there.
- D) I'm afraid this passport looks suspicious, Sir. Could you just come with me for a moment?
- E) How long are you planning to stay? Is it a business trip or a holiday?

82- Betty: Have you seen this ad?
Freida: Yes. I phoned them an hour ago, and I'm just waiting for them to phone back.
Betty:
Freida: I should, actually. There aren't many people with my qualifications.

- A) Well, I hope you get it. It's just the right one for you.
- B) It's really cheap. I hope you phoned in time.
- C) If you are lucky enough to get it, could I borrow it sometimes?
- D) I think it's a waste of time. There are so many dishonest people advertising.
- E) Just think! A free trip and a day out in London for the lucky person.

83- Policeman: Hello, Police Department.
Caller:
Policeman: We'll do everything we can, but you must calm down first and describe it to us.
Caller: Thank you, I'll try.

- A) Someone has just stolen my car. It's a beautiful, brand new car, and worth $25,000!
- B) Our dog is gone and we're afraid someone has stolen him. He's a very valuable dog, so someone might want to sell him.
- C) My wife has been missing since this morning. She left for the shops and hasn't come back. I don't know what to do.
- D) We've just come home and found our house burgled. They only took the valuable things, especially our paintings.
- E) Our daughter didn't come home last night. She's about five feet tall with short, blonde hair and blue eyes.

84- Francesca: I wish I earned more. I never have any money to put aside.
Lucy:
Francesca: I suppose you're right. I can't seem to get into the habit of saving.

- A) Why? You earned more last year but you came here, saying there was no job satisfaction there.
- B) Well, even if you earned more, you'd still spend all of it.
- C) There's plenty of overtime available if you want to increase your income.
- D) I heard about a good secretarial job abroad. You should apply for that.
- E) Me too. And I also think that this job is extremely boring.

85- Gerry: What's the matter with your husband? I saw him yesterday and he looked terrible.
Jean:
Gerry: He should know better. Why doesn't he cut down?
Jean: He says he will, as soon as the busy period is over.

- A) Didn't you know? He had a heart attack last month.
- B) You may think he looks terrible, but he looks fine to me.
- C) Don't say that to him. He's really happy that he lost so much weight.
- D) I know. Since he retired, he's been just sitting in front of the TV all day eating.
- E) He's been working too hard lately, and he's suffering from stress.

86- Julia: I've never been so embarrassed in my life!
Harry: What have I done this time?
Julia:
Harry: I don't know what you're talking about. Everyone seemed to enjoy them.

- A) You ate so much dessert that there wasn't enough left for anyone else.
- B) You didn't talk to anyone all night. You just sat there and watched that television program.
- C) You were extremely rude to my parents after I'd told them so much about you.
- D) You made a complete fool of yourself telling those stupid jokes of yours.
- E) Ella and Maggie are my two oldest friends, and you didn't even talk to them.

87- Jim: I wonder if I could have a couple of days off next week, Mr Pitt.
Mr Pitt: You've already had three days off this month, Jim.
Jim:
Mr Pitt: Well, all right, if it's really necessary. Give her my regards and tell her I hope she feels better.

- A) Well, you see. Sir, I promised my fiancée that I'd take her on a trip.
- B) I know, but I have to visit my elderly mother in Scotland. She hasn't been well lately.
- C) But I had flu then, and I suspect that I'm having a relapse.
- D) This is important. My aunt died last week, and I have to be in Scotland for the reading of the will.
- E) The biggest match of the year is next Tuesday. You wouldn't want me to miss it, would you?

88- Captain:
Sailor: Isn't there a harbour nearby where we can take shelter?
Captain: No, there's nothing but rocky coastline for miles.
Sailor: I guess we'll just have to ride it out then.

- A) He looks as if there is some stormy weather ahead.
- B) We're taking in water. I'm afraid the ship is going to sink.
- C) Have you been through such terrible weather before?
- D) The engine is broken. Is there anyone who knows how to fix it?
- E) It looks like smooth sailing right across the Atlantic.

89- Lucy: Hi Jackle, are you all ready for the big exam?
Jackle:
Lucy: Oh no! What are you going to do?
Jackle: I guess I'll just have to hope I know enough to pass it anyway.

- A) No. My roommate broke up with her fiancé, and kept me awake all night telling me the story.
- B) I should be, but I studied until so late last night that I'm a bit sleepy.
- C) No way! I was sick last week, so Professor Jones is going to let me take the exam later.
- D) I don't need to study as I know all the answers anyway.
- E) Can you lend me your notes from yesterday? I missed the lecture.

90- Customer: I'd like this skirt shortened, please.
Tailor: Certainly. How much do you want it taken up?
Customer:
Tailor: That would be fine. It's the skirt-length in fashion this season.

- A) No, this length doesn't suit me at all.
- B) Well, I think definitely not more than £5.
- C) Oh, I'd like it to be just above the knee.
- D) I wouldn't have liked it to be too short.
- E) Hmm, let's see. I don't think I can wear too short a skirt.

91- Anthony: How was your trip to New York?
Janice: It was terrific. Everyone says it is dangerous, but we didn't see any violence, and the only people we saw with guns were the police.
Anthony:
Janice: Oh, you should really.

- A) That's what I thought. I bet you're sorry that you went there.
- B) Yes, I suppose that could be quite terrifying.
- C) If I were you, next time I'd go somewhere safer.
- D) I've always been afraid to go there, but maybe I'll try it sometime.
- E) Actually, I'm terrified of flying myself.

92- Terry: What's happened to Alice? She hasn't been to school for ages.
Roger:
Terry: I'm glad to hear she's continuing her education and not letting the money go to her head.

- A) It's really sad. She couldn't pay her fees, so she has had to take a full time job as a waitress.
- B) Haven't you heard? She married a millionaire, and transferred to the University of Southern California.
- C) She won the lottery, so she decided to quit school and move to Hawaii.
- D) It seems her family has serious financial problems, so she has had to go back and help them out.
- E) She says she wants to continue her education somewhere where it doesn't cost so much money.

93- Lily: Have you heard about the new exercise classes at the community centre?
Joanne: Yes, they have aerobics three nights a week, but I can't go because I'm working nights.
Lily:
Joanne: I think they do, but I'm so tired that I can't get up until noon.

- A) Don't they have any morning classes?
- B) That sounds terrible. You must be really tired in the mornings.
- C) I'm looking for a job too. Do they have any vacancies?
- D) I'm going to start next week. Do you want to come along?
- E) Don't they have a day shift, so you could work more social hours?

94- Maurice: Since next week is a holiday, why don't we ask the boss if we can leave early today?
Tom: Do you really think that's a good idea? He's been on the war-path since we lost that big contract.
Maurice:
Tom: Oh, I wouldn't like to create a similar situation, so let's forget about your suggestion then.

- A) So let's ask him. I'm sure he'll agree.
- B) Of course I think it's a good idea. I wouldn't have suggested it otherwise.
- C) It will be really nice to start the holiday early, even if it is only a few hours.
- D) That was your fault. Why should it concern me?
- E) Maybe you're right. He yelled at his secretary for no reason this morning.

95- Amy:
Lucy: There is a new place that just opened near my house. I haven't got the number, but I can stop by and make an appointment for you.
Amy: Could you? Any afternoon would be okay. Are they expensive?
Lucy: I'm afraid so, but they make you look so good I think they are worth it.

- A) I feel awful. Do you know of any good doctors?
- B) I'm getting headaches when I read these days. Do you know of a good optician?
- C) I'm looking for a good vet for my cat. Do you know where I can find one?
- D) That's a really nice dress. Where did you buy it?
- E) Your hair looks fantastic. Where did you have it done as I need to go myself?

96- Lisa: Have you seen the film that won all the Oscars?
Naomi: Yes. I loved the costumes and the acting, but I thought the story was silly.
Lisa:
Naomi: Oh, I didn't know that our tastes were so different.

- A) I'll have to see it myself and decide.
- B) Really? I thought the acting was terrible, but the story was great.
- C) I agree. I don't know how such a dumb screenplay could ever be written.
- D) Obviously, some agreed with you since the film got both best actress and best supporting actress.
- E) I agree about the story, but it was so well-filmed that I think I'll go and see it again.

97- Alex: I'm glad the elections are almost over. It's been so noisy.
James:
Alex: Sorry, but I never discuss politics.
James: Actually, you may be right. Sorry that I asked.

- A) I'm so fed up with all of them that I'm not even going to vote.
- B) Really? I enjoy all the noise and excitement.
- C) I agree. Who are you going to vote for?
- D) Do you think you are going to win? Your opponent looks quite strong.
- E) I haven't yet decided which party I'll vote for.

98- Roger: There is a new play on that's supposed to be really good. Would you like to see it?
Anne:
Roger: I guess our tastes are really different. Maybe we'd better just forget it.
Anne: Maybe that would be best.

- A) You know I hate football. I don't know why you bother to ask.
- B) I've been looking forward to seeing it since I read about it. I thought you'd never ask.
- C) Not this weekend. I've got exams all next week. Maybe after that.
- D) I don't much like live theatre. I'd prefer a disco or even an amusement arcade.
- E) I've read the book and seen the film. They were really good.

- 99- Dawn: Why don't you come sailing with us next weekend?
 Elaine: I've never been sailing before. Isn't there a lot you have to know?
 Dawn:
 Elaine: Maybe I will try it then. It's something I've always wanted to do.
- A) That's right. It can be really dangerous for beginners.
 B) It's not so dangerous if you start on small waves and learn to stand up on the surf board gradually.
 C) I'm sorry, I thought you had done lots of sailing. Maybe you shouldn't come after all.
 D) It is more interesting if you can identify the different kinds of coral and fish.
 E) Not if the others are experienced. We can give you something easy to do, then teach you bit by bit.
- 100- Bobby: Dad, can I have an ice-cream?
 Frank: Not now, you'll spoil your appetite for dinner.
 Bobby:
 Prank: Ask me again then and we'll see.
- A) You're so mean! You never let me have what I want.
 B) That's what you always say.
 C) But I promise I'll eat properly even if I do have an ice-cream.
 D) That's OK, I didn't really want an ice-cream anyway.
 E) How about after dinner?
