

1- I'd rather starve than eat my brother's cooking.

- A) I was so hungry that I even found it possible to consume food that my brother had made.
- B) If my brother hadn't managed to cook something, I might have died from lack of food.
- C) In my opinion, dying of hunger is preferable to eating the food my brother prepares.
- D) My brother cooks in such a way that I am always extremely hungry when I see him.
- E) I would prefer death from hunger to having my brother come round for a meal.

2- Peter wouldn't have been able to get here so quickly without his car.

- A) Although he's going to drive his car, Peter may still not arrive here on "time."
- B) Peter arrived here very early because he drives quite fast in his car.
- C) Although Peter's got a car, there are other faster ways to travel here.
- D) If Peter had driven his car, he wouldn't have managed to be here so fast.
- E) If Peter didn't have a car, he would have taken much longer to get here.

3- This book is so long that I don't think I'll ever finish it.

- A) I've been wanting to read this book for a long time.
- B) If this book were shorter, I'd have finished it long ago.
- C) I'm hoping to be able to finish this book, it's very long though.
- D) I've nearly finished this book, but it's taken a long-time.
- E) I don't believe I'll finish this book because it's too long.

4- Although that bakery is cheap, the cakes aren't usually very fresh.

- A) While that bakery is inexpensive, the cakes are often a bit stale.
- B) Usually, that bakery offers special discounts for stale cakes.
- C) When the cakes in that bakery are cheap, they're usually old.
- D) The cakes in that bakery are cheap, and often, freshly baked.
- E) Buying fresh cakes at that bakery is generally quite expensive.

5- My mother keeps telling me not to play my music so loudly.

- A) My mother shouted at me and told me not to play my music.
- B) My mother has to speak loudly to be heard when I play my music.
- C) My mother often tells me to stop playing my music.
- D) My mother, who prefers quiet, gentle music, doesn't like my loud music.
- E) My mother constantly tells me to turn down the volume of my music.

6- The film has been banned on the grounds that it could cause offense.

- A) People don't like the film in that place, so it has been banned.
- B) As the film might make people behave aggressively, they've banned it.
- C) The film attacks certain places, so it has been banned in those areas.
- D) The film has been banned in the places where it is likely to upset people.
- E) The reason they've banned the film is that it may offend some people.

7- Our friendship continued as long as he lived.

- A) We had been friends for a long time when he died.
- B) We remained friends until his death.

- C) If he'd lived longer, our friendship would have grown.
D) He was a friend of mine long before he died.
E) I hadn't known him long when he died.
8- His enthusiasm for his new career seems limitless.

- A) He is limited by the regulations about which career he can choose.
B) The eagerness he has brought to his new job is apparently boundless.
C) He could only bring a limited amount of determination to his new position.
D) Though he is unhappy about changing careers, he is attempting to make the best of it.
E) He has a great deal of empathy with others in his profession.

- 9- We'll attempt to solve the problem as soon as the relevant documents arrive.

- A) Once we've obtained all the information we need, we will try to find a solution.
B) Since we have all the necessary documents, we may as well attempt to solve the problem.
C) I'm sure we'll solve the problem soon, and in our own way.
D) I doubt that we'll be able to solve such a problem before we have all the information.
E) Since the documents have only just arrived, it'll be some time before we can solve the problem.

- 10- You wouldn't feel sick now if you hadn't eaten so much.

- A) It is a good thing you didn't eat too much, or you would feel sick now.
B) You know that you always feel sick when you eat too much.
C) You had better be careful of how much you eat or you might feel sick.
D) You ate too much, and as a result, you are now sick.
E) I'd recommend you not to eat so much in future if you don't want to be sick.

- 11- I wish you didn't have to leave so soon, and so does my brother.

- A) I hope you can stay longer next time you come here, and this is my brother's wish as well.
B) Both my brother and I think it's a shame you cannot stay longer.
C) I don't know what I will do when you leave with my brother.
D) I don't want to leave with you, and nor does my brother.
E) I'm sure my brother will be upset when he finds that you have to leave soon.

- 12- The film was very well made, but even so, it was unpopular.

- A) The film did not attract a large audience in spite of its being so well made.
B) More people would have gone to see the film if it had been better made.
C) While the film was skilfully directed, the critics didn't like it.
D) The film was so good that a lot of people went to see it.
E) Although the film had its good points, few people liked it.

- 13- Until I tried it, I had thought that I would dislike para-gliding.

- A) Had I not tried para-gliding, I would never have known if it was enjoyable.
B) I had expected that I would like para-gliding, but I didn't when I tried it.
C) Contrary to my expectations, I enjoyed para-gliding once I tried it.
D) I was reluctant to attempt para-gliding because I was certain I would not like it.
E) I have once tried para-gliding, but I am not sure whether I enjoyed it or not.

- 14- The first time I visited New York, I was only ten years old.

- A) I haven't visited New York for ten years.
B) I have wanted to visit New York since I was ten years old.
C) I haven't visited New York since my first visit at the age of ten.

- D) This is the first time I have visited New York in ten years.
 E) At the age of ten I made my first trip to New York.
- 15- One can hardly expect profits to double again this year.
- A) Profits will probably drop by as much as 50 percent again this year.
 B) They don't expect this year to be profitable at all.
 C) It's quite possible that profits this year will be halved again.
 D) It won't be easy to double the profits again this year.
 E) It's not likely that profits will again go up by 100 percent this year.
- 16- It is more than a couple of years since my sister went to Antalya.
- A) My sister visited Antalya twice last year.
 B) My sister has never stayed in Antalya for longer than two years.
 C) My sister went to Antalya for the last time two years ago.
 D) My sister hasn't been to Antalya since her visit over two years ago.
 E) My sister has been living in Antalya for over two years.
- 17- Taking photographs inside the museum is strictly forbidden.
- A) There are no photographs showing what the museum looks like inside.
 B) No one is allowed to take photos in the museum. There is a strict rule against it.
 C) This is the first time someone has taken photos inside the museum.
 D) People aren't allowed to take photos of some rooms in the museum
 E) We were able to take only a few photos inside the museum though it was forbidden.
- 18- You may be clever, but I'm cleverer than you are.
- A) Because of my intelligence, I can get a job anywhere.
 B) I admit that you are clever, but you are less clever than I am.
 C) You are the most stupid person I have ever met in my life.
 D) Instead of being a clever person, you choose to be a boastful person.
 E) Don't worry! I can't be as clever as you.
- 19- He never sings except when he is taking a shower.
- A) He seldom sings when taking a shower.
 B) I think singing when you take a shower is very common
 C) It's impossible to hear him singing outside the bathroom.
 D) Whenever he went to the bathroom for a shower, he started to sing.
 E) He occasionally sings both in and out of the shower.
- 20- My elder brother took drugs for five years.
- A) My older brother doesn't take drugs any more after taking them for five years
 B) My younger brother took five drugs a day for years
 C) Since my elder brother gave up taking drugs five years ago, he has not taken any mor
 D) My elder brother gave up taking five drugs five years ago.
 E) My older brother still takes drug five times a day.
- 21- Try as might, I couldn't pass the exam.
- A) Hard as I tried, I couldn't pass the exam.
 B) If I tried hard, I could pass it.
 C) I couldn't pass the exam even if I studied hard.
 D) I could have passed the exam if I had I tried hard enough.
 E) I wish I had studied hard to pass the exam.
- 22- It takes about two months to get a social security card after the application and necessary evidence of age, identity and citizenship have been received at the local social security office.

- A) The local social security office will supply evidence of age, identity, and citizenship two months after someone presents an application.
- B) Before someone submits evidence of age, identity, and citizenship to the social security office, it's necessary to get a card.
- C) Two months before someone needs a social security card, s/he should present evidence of age, identity, and citizenship, along with an application to the local social security office.
- D) Someone must submit evidence of age, identity, and citizenship two months after the social security office processes your card.
- E) Submitting evidence of age, identity, and citizenship to the social security office, it's not required to get a card.

23- If it hadn't been for the wind, the fire would never have spread so rapidly.

- A) Unless the wind develops the fire is hardly likely to spread quickly.
- B) It was the wind that brought about the fire to spread at such a speed.
- C) Even without the wind, the fire would have spread just as rapidly.
- D) Had there been a wind, the fire would have spread even more rapidly.
- E) The route of the wind affected the force the fire spread.

24- Anyone wanting to experience the full range of what it feels like to be in a lunar module could hardly do better than to visit the newly-found aeronautics centre.

- A) If a person would like to experience the different atmosphere of being in a lunar module, I recommend that he should visit the newly-found aeronautics centre.
- B) Staying in a lunar module for a few minutes in the newly-found aeronautics centre is such an experience that one can barely forget it during all one's life.
- C) One of the few best things one can do to fulfil one's desire to experience being in a space module is visiting the aeronautics centre, which has recently been set up.
- D) You can't do anything better than visiting the newly-found aeronautics centre to experience the difference between living on earth and on the moon.

- E) So far, the only good thing I have done in my life was visiting the newly-found aeronautics centre.

25- He suffers from diabetes and needs to take good care of himself.

- A) The reason why he is ill is that he doesn't look after himself well.
- B) Unless he is careful about his health, he might go down with diabetes
- C) As long as he insists on eating sweets, it is impossible for him to get over his illness
- D) No matter whom he consults, he will never be able to find a cure for his illness.
- E) He is ill with diabetes, so he should pay attention to his health.

26- When television first became available to large number of Americans in the 1950s and 1960s, most producers ignored its possibilities as a tool for education.

- A) Until the 1950s and 1960s, most of the television programs in the United States were tools for education, for few producers were unaware of its uses.
- B) In the 1950s and 1960s, there were not many educational programs on American televisions due to the negligence of the majority of the producers.
- C) After 1950s and 1960s, most American producers did not see the educational possibilities of television
- D) During the 1950s and 1960s, educational programs first became available to Americans thanks to the producers of those years.
- E) As 1950s and 1960s passed with no opportunity to produce educational programs, most producers tried hard to help people learn things from televisions.

27- That schools ought to offer environment-awareness courses immediately seems to the Environmental Protection Agency an inevitable course of action.

- A) The Environmental Protection Agency thinks that schools should protect the environment.
- B) According to the Environmental Protection Agency schools should

- teach courses about how to protect out environment.
- C) The Environmental Protection Agency feels that schools are in no position to offer courses on environmental protection.
- D) The Environmental Protection Agency seems to be forcing to offer courses on environment-awareness.
- E) The schools seem to have offered environment-awareness courses for the Environmental Protection Agency
- 28- The abolition of capital punishment is an issue about which there is widespread disagreement, not only among people in a given country, but also among different nationalities.
- A) All nations are willing to abolish the capital punishment.
- B) Some nations are in favour of the capital punishment.
- C) Capital punishment will soon be abolished in the world.
- D) There are opposing views all over the world concerning the abolition of capital punishment.
- E) Individuals are usually against capital punishment whereas governments are usually for it.
- 29- Though diplomatic efforts to forestall the bombardment have been intensified, there is apparently no progress towards an agreement.
- A) Every known means of diplomacy has been tried, but peace seems to recede and the expected attack to be quickly approaching.
- B) Reconciliation remains a remote hope, for diplomatic channels apparently lack the necessary authority to check an attack.
- C) In spite of diplomatic efforts to the contrary, the bombardment was a violent one and all hopes of an agreement were shattered.
- D) Though they are desperately in need of a truce, they can find no way to achieve one and now await the attack.
- E) Reconciliation seems no nearer, even though a massive effort is being made to find a diplomatic solution and so avoid a bombardment.
- 30- I was mistaken in thinking that I could rely on him.
- A) If I had trusted him, I would not have made the error.
- B) I shouldn't have thought him dependable.
- C) It was wrong of me not to have considered him trustworthy.
- D) I thought I could depend on him not to make a mistake.
- E) It was unwise of me to have regarded him someone unmistakable.
- 31- It was only its cheapness that made us decide to stay at the hotel.
- A) We weren't impressed by the service at the hotel, though it was very cheap.
- B) We had decided to choose the cheapest hotel in the area.
- C) Though it was quite cheap, the hotel was just to our liking.
- D) We would have liked the hotel better if only it had been cheaper.
- E) We were attracted to choose that hotel merely due to its low price.
- 32- It was my refusal to obey the policeman that caused my arrest.
- A) It was because I refused to obey the policeman that I was arrested.
- B) It was my fault to obey the policeman that I was arrested.
- C) It was because I obeyed the policeman that he arrested me.
- D) It was a mistake to refuse the policeman's wish.
- E) It was by mistake that I was arrested.
- 33- The last time I saw my cousin he was only five years old.
- A) I haven't seen my cousin for five years.
- B) It's five years since I last saw my cousin.
- C) The last time I saw my cousin was five years ago.
- D) I haven't seen my cousin since he was a 5-year-old child.
- E) I still haven't seen my cousin who is now five years old.
- 34- It was not until I spoke to him that I realised how serious the case was.
- A) I was already aware that the case was really serious when I talked to him.
- B) I wasn't aware before I spoke to him that the case was so serious.
- C) After I talked to him, I was convinced that the case was as serious as he thought.
- D) As soon as he told me about the case I realised that he was in serious trouble.

- E) The case was so serious that I couldn't talk to him until he himself mentioned it to me.

35- Our team played extremely well, but even so, we lost.

- A) Our team played well but the other team played even better.
B) Though our team won, the other side played extremely well.
C) Our team deserved to win as we really played well.
D) Though our team lost, the other team was really much worse.
E) Our team didn't win, but nevertheless we played magnificently.

36- It was only its cheapness that made us decide to stay at that hotel.

- A) We weren't impressed with the service at the hotel, though it was very cheap.
B) We had decided to choose the cheapest hotel in the area.
C) Although it was very cheap, the hotel was just to our liking.
D) We were attracted to choose that hotel merely due to its low price.
E) We would have liked the hotel better if only it were cheaper.

37- The only thing I forgot to put in my case was the dictionary.

- A) I didn't forget to put the dictionary in my case.
B) The only thing in my case was the dictionary.
C) I put everything in my case including the dictionary.
D) In my case I put only my dictionary, not the other things.
E) I remembered to put everything in my case except the dictionary.

38- The police allege that Simpson killed his wife and her lover last year.

- A) The police knew that Simpson killed his wife and her lover last year.
B) The police are sure that Simpson killed his wife and her lover last year.
C) Simpson is alleged to have killed his wife and her lover last year.
D) It is important to know that Simpson killed his wife and her lover last year.

- E) Because of her lover Simpson killed his wife and her lover last year.

39- You cannot go into that restaurant without a jacket and tie.

- A) It's preferable to wear jacket and tie while you are going into that restaurant.
B) Unless you wear a jacket and tie, you cannot go into that restaurant.
C) If you want to go into that restaurant, you have to wear a special tie and jacket.
D) When you wear a jacket but not a tie, you can go into that restaurant.
E) It's advisable to wear a jacket and tie when you go into that restaurant.

40- We took more clothes than we needed on holiday last summer.

- A) We needn't have taken so many clothes for our holiday last summer.
B) Last summer we had to take clothes which we needed.
C) We needed a holiday last summer so we took more clothes.
D) Having taken more clothes than we needed, we went on holiday last summer.
E) You needed to go on holiday last summer, therefore, we took a lot of clothes.

41- It would be wise for us to be punctual for school.

- A) If we want to be wise we must be punctual.
B) Being punctual for school is very important for us.
C) We'd better be punctual for school.
D) If we're wise enough, we can be punctual for school.
E) In order to be punctual for school, we must be wise.

42- You'd better tell your teacher everything.

- A) It's better to tell your teacher everything.
B) It's time for you tell your teacher everything.
C) Telling everything to your teacher is important.
D) It's advisable to you to tell your teacher everything.

- E) You always tell your teacher everything.
- 43- No Egyptian pyramids are so famous as the pyramids of Giza.
- A) The most famous of the Egyptian pyramids are the pyramids of Giza.
 B) There are lot of famous pyramids in Egypt including Giza.
 C) Giza is one of the famous pyramids in Egypt.
 D) Giza is the least famous Egyptian pyramid.
 E) In Egypt, you can see a lot of pyramids except Giza.
- 44- We haven't heard from her for at least two months.
- A) The last time we received some news from her was more than two months ago.
 B) After she left here, we didn't receive any news from her about two months.
 C) It had been almost two months by the time we heard from again.
 D) We last saw her exactly two months ago.
 E) We hope to have heard from her in two months' time.
- 45- It's forecast that it will snow heavily during the whole week.
- A) I'm sure that everywhere will be covered in snow this week.
 B) It has been snowing steadily since the beginning of the week.
 C) Heavy snow is predicted throughout the week.
 D) This heavy snow is expected to continue into the next week.
 E) I think it will continue snowing heavily till the end of the week.
- 46- I closed the window to keep out the loud noises.
- A) When I closed the window, I heard the loud noises.
 B) Although I closed the window, I heard the loud noises.
 C) I closed the window because I wanted to keep out the loud noises.
 D) Unless I closed the window, I wouldn't keep out the loud noises.
 E) Whenever I closed the window, I kept out the loud noises.
- 47- The box was too heavy for me to carry.
- A) Although the box was heavy I was able to carry it.
 B) When the box was heavy I wasn't able to carry it.
 C) I was able to carry the box because it was light.
 D) The box wasn't light enough for me to carry.
 E) If the box weren't too heavy I would be able to carry it.
- 48- The harnessing of the wind to generate electricity dates back to 1890, but few notable advances were made until 1970 when energy prices began to rise fast.
- A) In 1890, a few efforts were made to generate electricity from wind power, but it was only in 1970 when energy prices rose steeply, that such a scheme was taken seriously.
 B) In 1970 when there was a sudden increase in energy prices, efforts were made to harness the power of the wind for the generation of electricity for the first time since 1890.
 C) Between 1890 and 1970 various attempts were made to harness the power of the wind as the rising prices of energy made this desirable.
 D) Impressive advances in the generation of electricity from wind power coincided with rising energy prices in 1970, but the practice actually dates back to 1890.
 E) It was in 1890 that the wind was first used to generate electricity, but it was only in 1970 when the energy prices started to rise sharply, that real advances were made.
- 49- This appliance is ideal for busy working mothers.
- A) Housewives will find this device useful.
 B) Busy married women must fill out this application.
 C) This appliance might be useful for housewives especially with children.
 D) Married women who work outside the home will benefit from using this appliance.
 E) This device is perfect for women with both children and jobs.
- 50- The population of Istanbul is less than half that of Tokyo.

- A) Though a big city, Tokyo is not so crowded as Istanbul.
- B) Istanbul and Tokyo are among the most crowded cities in the world.
- C) Istanbul has double the number of people that Tokyo does.
- D) Less than half the size of Tokyo, Istanbul is not very crowded.
- E) More than twice as many people live in Tokyo as do in Istanbul.

51- I wonder why no one ever tried to do that before.

- A) It's been wonderful because I'm the first one to have tried it.
- B) I'd like to know whether anyone has actually tried to do it yet.
- C) It's no surprise to me that nobody has made such an attempt before.
- D) Since it's such an effort, it's no wonder I've never tried it.
- E) The reason it wasn't attempted earlier makes me curious.

52- There is no one besides you that I can trust with this matter.

- A) In addition to you, there are a few people in whom I have confidence.
- B) I really wish that I could trust you with this concern.
- C) You are the only person in whom I can put any faith concerning this.
- D) If anyone else was trustworthy, I wouldn't disturb you with this matter.
- E) Having found no one else that I can trust, I will confide in you.

53- Had Brian told the truth to his parents, he'd be better off now.

- A) Brian wouldn't be in this mess now if he hadn't lied to his parents.
- B) Since he confessed the truth to his parents, things will work out well for Brian.
- C) Brian may have lied to his parents, which, if he did, will cause him trouble.
- D) Today Brian will tell the truth to his parents and, hopefully, this mess will come to an end.
- E) Unless Brian stops lying to his parents, he'll be worse off than ever before.

54- Jane ought to have visited her parents more often last year.

- A) Jane really should make more effort to visit her parents.
- B) Since last year, Jane and her parents haven't seen much of each other.
- C) Jane must visit her parents more often this year than she did last year.
- D) Last year Jane didn't make an effort to visit her parents often enough.
- E) Jane hasn't seen as much of her parents as she would like since last year.

55- It was unnecessary for you to come to the office in person.

- A) You don't necessarily have to come to the office.
- B) Nobody must ever bring personal friends to the office.
- C) You needn't have come to the office yourself.
- D) The work necessitated every person in the office to come punctually.
- E) You should not confide your personal problems to anyone in the office.

56- Did you come across Susan on your way in?

- A) Did you have any idea about what Susan was doing here?
- B) What happened to Susan while you were coming here?
- C) Did you come here with or without Susan?
- D) As you were coming in, did you see Susan by any chance?
- E) Was Susan with you when this event took place?

57- Safeguarding your property is by far the best measure against burglary.

- A) In trying to stop a break-in, it's a good idea to safeguard your property.
- B) Your property won't be safe from burglars unless it's properly protected.
- C) No other method is as effective as protecting your property from the burglar.
- D) There are fewer break-ins in properties which are well-protected.
- E) Burglars find properties without safeguards by far the easiest to burgle.

58- The festival has been postponed due to adverse weather conditions.

- A) There won't be a festival at all because the weather is so bad.
- B) The festival planners should have known that winter is an unfavourable time for a festival.
- C) It is a bad idea to have festivals in a place where the weather is so unsettled.
- D) The intense heat forced the cancellation of this year's festival.
- E) Since the weather is so bad, the festival will be held at a later date.

59- The summers in Siberia are as hot as the winters are cold.

- A) Though Siberia is known for its cold winters, at least the summer is nice.
- B) In Siberia, the winters are very cold, and the summers are, too.
- C) Siberia not only has very cold winters, but very hot summers as well.
- D) Since this summer was very hot, Siberia is due for a bitterly cold winter.
- E) While the summers are quite cool there, Siberian winters aren't bad.

60- Whatever the phone call was about, it was distressing enough to make her cry.

- A) She seems to burst into tears every time she talks on the phone.
- B) She was in tears, so the phone call was obviously upsetting.
- C) She was crying so much that she wasn't able to answer the phone.
- D) What I was calling about was the reason why she was crying so much.
- E) Hearing her crying on the phone for whatever reason was very upsetting.

61- The more I hear about him, the less I want to meet him.

- A) I've never really wanted to know him, but now, I've got a strong feeling that I really should.
- B) People keep telling me things about him, and so I've decided never to meet him.
- C) I don't know why people talk about that man so much, as I've met him and have little to say about him.
- D) Each time I'm told something else about that man, my desire to meet him decreases.
- E) I had wanted to meet the man, but now I know so much about him that I don't think it's necessary.

62- He can't have really meant what he said.

- A) It's not possible that his words truly reflected his feelings.
- B) He should have judged the impact of what he was saying.
- C) He told us that he didn't actually intend to say what he did.
- D) There's no excuse for him saying he didn't mean that.
- E) He ought to have lied and said something less offensive.

63- You don't happen to know Charles Simons, do you?

- A) Do you know what happened to Charles Simons?
- B) You haven't done anything to Charles Simons, have you?
- C) Have you heard what Charles Simons did last?
- D) Are you acquainted with Charles Simons by any chance?
- E) Nothing bad ever happens to Charles Simons, does it?

64- I won't tell them how old you are unless they specifically ask.

- A) I'll only tell them about your age if they ask me directly.
- B) Even if they ask you specifically, you should still refuse to tell them your age.
- C) You mustn't tell them you're old unless they question you about that.
- D) I refused to tell them how old you were until they specifically asked me.

- E) If they don't ask you directly, I don't think you should mention your age.
- 65- Most soft drinks used to be sold in returnable bottles.
- A) Disposable bottles for soft drinks have now totally disappeared.
 B) One used to be able to take the majority of soft drink bottles back to the shop.
 C) Most people would prefer to buy soft drinks in bottles that could be returned.
 D) People used to use soft drink bottles for all sorts of purposes.
 E) Disposable bottles didn't used to be available at shops.
- 66- This book is too long for me to finish by Friday.
- A) This is a rather long book, so I can't finish it before Friday.
 B) I won't be able to finish a book of this length by Friday.
 C) Friday is too soon for me to finish such a boring book.
 D) I may not have started reading this book by Friday.
 E) I should be able to finish this book before Friday.
- 67- It was a bad idea for us to invite Tracy and Tony at the same time.
- A) We should never have Tracy and Tony over here together.
 B) We should have asked Tracy and Tony to come at different times.
 C) Tracy and Tony can't stand each other, so we ought to invite them separately.
 D) Tracy and Tony are angry that we didn't invite them both.
 E) We couldn't have given an invitation to both Tracy and Tony.
- 68- Our army had been defeated by the time the reinforcements arrived.
- A) New soldiers arrived just in time to rescue our army from defeat.
 B) Our army fought against defeat until the reinforcements arrived.
 C) The fresh soldiers who arrived were too few to save our army from defeat.
 D) Nothing but the arrival of reinforcements could have saved our army from defeat.
 E) The additional troops arrived too late to save our army from being beaten.
- 69- Daniel hardly knew any English when he arrived in London.
- A) After arriving in London, Daniel studied hard to learn English.
 B) Daniel had hardly arrived in London when he began attending a language school to learn English.
 C) Daniel found it hard to speak English even after studying in London.
 D) At the time of his arrival in London, Daniel knew only a little English.
 E) Daniel spoke enough English to get around without difficulty when he came to London.
- 70- I've never met anyone else who speaks so many languages.
- A) This is the first time I have met such a multi-lingual person.
 B) I would never have believed that anyone could speak so many languages.
 C) No one could possibly speak as many languages as he does.
 D) It was the first time I had met someone so linguistically talented.
 E) I wouldn't have agreed to meet him if he didn't speak so many languages.
- 71- Only those with managerial experience can be considered for the position.
- A) No one who has not been a manager before has a chance to get the job.
 B) A manager must have experience to consider the position objectively.
 C) Only experienced managers have applied for the position.
 D) Having experience as a manager would be a considerable advantage when you apply for this job.
 E) If you have experience as a manager, you have a good chance for the position.
- 72- We can't go to the museum because it is closed for restoration.

- A) There is no sense in going to the museum while it is under restoration.
- B) We are looking forward to visiting the museum once it has been restored.
- C) If it was not being restored, we could go to the museum.
- D) Since the museum is not open while it is being restored, we are unable to visit it.
- E) Just because it is being restored is no reason not to go to the museum.

73- I had never intended to live life in the way I do now.

- A) As a child, I did not know what I wanted to be when I grew up.
- B) When I was young, I had intended to assume a false identity.
- C) Life has turned out differently for me from what I had planned.
- D) I never wanted to grow up when I was a child.
- E) When younger, I was strongly opposed to the way of life I lead now.

74- Seldom have I encountered such rudeness.

- A) Have I ever met such rude people before?
- B) It was the rudest experience I have ever had.
- C) There cannot be any people who behave as rudely as they do.
- D) I have never come across such rudeness before.
- E) Only a few times in my life have I experienced such rudeness.

75- I wish you hadn't waited for me in such torrential rain.

- A) Was it raining very hard as you were waiting for me?
- B) You shouldn't have waited for me when it was raining so heavily.
- C) I'm sorry that I had to tell you to wait for me despite the heavy rain.
- D) Why did you give up waiting for me just because it started to rain?
- E) I hope you didn't get too wet waiting for me, as it was raining torrentially.

76- I didn't enjoy the concert, and nor did any of my friends.

- A) As was the case for me, none of my friends had fun at the concert.
- B) I don't know if any of my friends enjoyed the concert, but I didn't.
- C) While I did not have fun at the concert, some of my friends did.
- D) I might have enjoyed the concert more if I had been with my friends.
- E) I enjoyed being with my friends, though the concert was no good.

77- It seems to me that they convicted the wrong man.

- A) The convict didn't seem to me like someone who has committed a crime.
- B) I wish they had been more careful to get the right man.
- C) In my opinion the justice system seldom succeeds in punishing the true criminal.
- D) I feel that someone other than the real criminal was found guilty of the crime.
- E) There is no chance that the correct man was convicted.

78- The examination was not nearly as difficult as I had expected.

- A) I don't think I've ever had as difficult an examination as this one.
- B) I knew the examination would be difficult, but I didn't think it would be so difficult.
- C) As expected, the examination was a rather difficult one.
- D) The examination was much easier than I thought it would be.
- E) I don't remember ever taking such an easy examination in my life.

79- He has no friends, nor does he seem to care.

- A) He pretends not to care that he has no friends, but actually, he does.
- B) He tries hard to look unconcerned about not having any friends.
- C) If only he had a few friends, he wouldn't be so unhappy.
- D) He appears to be quite upset by having no friends.
- E) It does not seem to matter to him that he has no friends.

80- Have you come up with a solution to our problem?

- A) Has anyone told you how to solve our problem?
B) Has a way occurred to you to resolve our dilemma?
 C) Do you think it is possible to find a solution to our dilemma?
 D) Has anyone come who knows how to solve the problem?
 E) Why can't you think of any way out of our difficulties?
- 81- You ought to have made more effort to pass your exams.
- A) It is necessary for you to try harder if you want to pass your exams.
 B) You were able to pass your exams thanks to the effort you made.
C) You did not try as hard as you should have to pass your exams.
 D) You must have worked hard in order to pass all of your exams.
 E) You have to make the effort yourself if you wish to pass your exams.
- 82- Despite cries of protest, the man was publicly executed.
- A) Although a lot of people were crying, the man was murdered by the crowd.
B) The man was killed in front of spectators though many people were opposed to it.
 C) The death of the man in front of the crowd made a lot of people cry.
 D) The man was due to be killed, but he was released after the crowd said it was not right.
 E) As the man was not popular with the public, they cheered when he was killed.
- 83- This is the most enjoyable novel I've read in a long time.
- A) It took me a long time to read this novel, but it was worth it.
 B) It isn't often that you find a novel so amusing.
 C) It's a marvellous novel; I still remember it though I read it a long time ago.
D) It's ages since I got so much pleasure out of reading a novel.
 E) It's a long time since I read this novel but I know I enjoyed it enormously.
- 84- I'll be at the station to meet you if it's possible at all.
- A) It's just possible that I shall be at the station to meet you myself.
 B) I've promised to meet you at the station and I shall be there.
 C) I would most certainly have met you at the station if it had at all possible.
 D) I can manage to arrange for someone to meet you at the station.
E) I'll do my best to meet you at the station but it may not be possible.
- 85- The fire must have been started on purpose; otherwise, it couldn't have caused so much damage.
- A) Once the blaze had begun, it spread quickly and did a lot of damage.
B) Seeing that it destroyed so many things, the fire can't have been accidental.
 C) No one can say for sure how the fire broke out, but the harm it did is evident.
 D) If someone were to start a fire there, it could prove highly damaging.
 E) The fire might have been serious had nobody tried to extinguish it.
- 86- Large quantities of vitamin pills are taken by people who are destroying vitamins in vegetables by unsuitable cooking.
- A) The vitamin content in vegetables can only be maintained if vegetables are cooked properly.
 B) More and more people are taking vitamin pills to make up for the vitamin deficiency caused by the improper cooking of vegetables.
 C) Vegetables are rich in vitamins only if they are cooked without being destroyed.
 D) If you destroy vitamins in vegetables by unsuitable cooking, take some vitamin pills to make up for vitamin deficiency.
E) Those who are killing vitamins in vegetables by cooking them improperly wouldn't have to take so many vitamin pills if they cooked them properly.
- 87- Without physical fitness, there can be no mental fitness.
- A) People who are physically handicapped usually have some mental problems.
 B) Exercising the brain is as important as exercising the body.
 C) Keeping in good physical condition helps keep the mind active.
D) It is impossible to have a healthy mind if one doesn't have a healthy body.
 E) If you are mentally lazy, then you will be physically unfit.

88- You didn't attempt hard enough to accomplish your objective.

- A) You might have been successful if everything hadn't been so difficult.
- B) It was too difficult for you to attain your goal.
- C) Your endeavours weren't enough for you to succeed in something so hard.
- D) You hardly made any effort to get what you wanted.
- E) You should have tried harder so as to achieve your aim.

89- They were stunned to hear that the project was assigned to me.

- A) Obviously they hadn't expected me to be given the project.
- B) When I was put onto the project, everybody was very much surprised.
- C) They were all shocked at my success in carrying out the project I was given.
- D) My having got the promotion took them by much surprise.
- E) The fact that the project was given to me was what baffled them because they thought they had deserved it.

90- We were not informed of the trouble until the threat had passed.

- A) We were aware of the trouble only when there was a menace
- B) Before we realised that there was a problem, no one had warned us of it
- C) They only told us about the problem after it was no longer dangerous
- D) Until the trouble became too obvious to conceal, no one told us anything
- E) The threat elapsed only when we were told about it

91- John finished his homework before I was even half-way through mine.

- A) When John's homework was finished mine wasn't even half done.
- B) By the time John had finished his homework I had hardly begun mine.
- C) I did half of the homework, and then John finished it.
- D) When John's homework was finished, I started to do some of mine.
- E) John finished his homework quickly, but I had twice as much to do.

92- That is something you should ask John about as he's the financial expert.

- A) John is the one you should consult as he specialises in financial matters.
- B) John might be able to help you, as he takes an interest in financial matters.

- C) If I were in your shoes, I would get John's opinion on it first.
- D) John is the one to ask; he's responsible for all our financial transactions.
- E) Let's ask John. He's very experienced in such matters.

93- I'm likely to leave the office before he turns up.

- A) I'd like to leave the office after he has come.
- B) I may well have left the office by the time he arrives.
- C) I don't have to wait here in the office until he returns.
- D) I want to leave the office before he arrives.
- E) He won't be able to find me in the office when he comes back.

94- When snow falls thickly, drivers may have a difficult time seeing clearly.

- A) Driving in a snowstorm can lead to car accidents.
- B) If you are caught driving in a snowstorm, just pull over.
- C) You can best see a lot of snow when driving a car.
- D) A driving snow storm can really be a sight to see.
- E) Heavy snow fall can limit visibility for drivers.

95- The nearer the interview drew, the more anxious she became.

- A) She began to feel nervous when she got nearer the interview room.
- B) She was calm to begin with, but towards the end of the interview, she felt nervous.
- C) Her anxiety grew greater as the interview approached.
- D) The cause of her anxiety was most probably the approaching interview.
- E) Just before the interview, she felt too nervous to go.

96- His promotion caused a lot of disagreement among the other employees.

- A) The other members of staff didn't accept his promotion.
- B) The reaction to his promotion from the other employees was quite disagreeable.
- C) Not all of his colleagues approved of his promotion.
- D) He was promoted despite the bad feeling among the other workers.

E) The atmosphere at work wasn't good after he was promoted.

97- Heat and rain cause jungles to grow quickly.

- A) Heat and rain are the only functions to grown the jungles quickly.
- B) Because of heat and rain jungles grow quickly.
- C) In spite of rain and heat jungles don't grow quickly.
- D) Although there is no heat and rain, jungles grow quickly.
- E) Heat and rain are very important for jungles.

98- A communication satellite went up in 1962 for the first time.

- A) Before 1962, we couldn't communicate easily.
- B) They sent a communicate satellite in 1962 when they wanted to communicate with each other.
- C) A satellite which was about communicate only went up in 1962.
- D) In 1962, when a communicate satellite rose suddenly into the air for the first time, the people didn't have any communicate system.
- E) It was not until 1962 that the first communicate satellite went up.

99- Seeing our old friends again was wonderful.

- A) When we saw our old friend, they were wonderful.
- B) It was wonderful to see our old friends again.
- C) We wanted to see our old friends again.
- D) If we wanted to see our old friends, it was wonderful.
- E) Although we wanted to see our old friends, it was wonderful.

100- How about reading books in the library?

- A) It is for us to read books in the library.
- B) We'd rather read books in the library.
- C) Would you like to read books in the library?
- D) Do you fancy reading books in the library?
- E) Let's read books in the library.

101- Why didn't you tell me that you were going to be late?

- A) You ought to be punctual for your appointments.

B) You should have informed me beforehand about your being late.

- C) I must warn you about the fact that you shouldn't be late.
- D) I would like to be told if the person I will meet is to be late.
- E) I don't think you are reliable, for you weren't punctual on several occasions.

102- It is possible that they've been delayed by the traffic.

- A) They usually come late because of the traffic.
- B) They are likely to be delayed due to the traffic.
- C) The traffic may have delayed them.
- D) The traffic must have been solid; otherwise, they wouldn't have been delayed.
- E) It is obvious that the cause of their being late is the traffic.

103- It is only very sporadically that my father bothers to clean his car.

- A) My fathers car is usually filthy since he hates cleaning it.
- B) Having a dirty car doesn't bother my father at all.
- C) Cleaning the car is something my father seldom makes the effort to do.
- D) It so much bother to clean the car that my father sometimes just doesn't do it.
- E) The task of cleaning the his car is one my father hardly ever neglects.

104- "Whatever happens during the trial, don't give up your hope for freedom," my lawyer said to me while we were entering the court.

- A) On entering the court, my lawyer told me not to give up my hope for freedom if something bad happened during the trial.
- B) When some problems arose during the trial, my lawyer whispered that I shouldn't lose my hope for freedom whatever happened.
- C) As we were going into the court, my lawyer urged me to keep hopeful for freedom whatever happened during the trial.
- D) While we were entering the court, I was advised by my lawyer to keep quiet whatever happened during the trial if I wanted to be set free.
- E) At the court, my lawyer encouraged me to keep hopeful for freedom when things began to develop against me.

105- So far reaching are the effects of global warming that few can truly grasp the significance of the accelerating harmfulness of it.

- A) The after-effects of global warming can be observed in very remote areas and most people are not conscious enough to see the importance of the increasing damages it has caused.
- B) Were more people to know the harmful effects of global warming, there wouldn't be so many problems we encounter now.
- C) Only a few people are not aware that global warming is damaging everywhere as a result of which all the cities are going to be affected from it.
- D) So many people don't know that global warming is much more harmful they imagine that it will take many decades to teach them the effects of it.
- E) Global warming has become such an important matter that unless people understand its possible effects on the Earth, it will be too late soon to save it.

106- I liked the look of the dish, I didn't like its taste though.

- A) Although the dish appeared nice to me, I found it unpleasant.
- B) We thought the dish to be delicious, judging from its look, but it wasn't.
- C) Sometimes a dish can be awful though it looks nice.
- D) Usually a dish is delicious if it looks nice enough.
- E) The good look of a dish doesn't necessarily mean that it's tasty, too.

107- The artist's job in the beginning is not unlike the job of a writer.

- A) In the beginning, the job of an artist is not like the job of a writer.
- B) The artist's job in the beginning is very different from the job of a writer.
- C) The jobs of artists and writers are identical.
- D) In the beginning, the jobs of artists and writers are similar.
- E) The artist begins like a writer but finishes in a different way.

108- The good reviews of the exhibition made me very keen to see it.

- A) I was very eager to see the exhibition because the reviews spoke so well of it.
- B) The superb reviews of the exhibition made me happy that I'd seen it.
- C) I was very pleased to hear that the exhibition was excellent.

- D) I wasn't interested in the exhibition until I read the excellent reviews.
- E) Immediately after I'd read very good reviews of the exhibition, I went to see it.

109- It demands involvement to develop a physical or a mental skill.

- A) The growth of physical and mental skills is very complicated.
- B) Concentration increases the development of physical and mental skills.
- C) A physical skill cannot expand unless it's linked with a mental skill.
- D) Both physical and mental skills are related to the demands of advancement.
- E) Physical or mental skills will not evolve without participation.

110- I will make you an offer, but you are under no obligation to accept it.

- A) You don't have to accept my offer if you don't want to.
- B) You have no other choice but accept my offer.
- C) Under no circumstances will I make you an offer even if you accept it.
- D) Whether you like my offer or not, you will have to accept it.
- E) Even if you don't like my offer, I will oblige you to accept it.

111- You really must leave at once if you want to catch that train.

- A) You will miss that train unless you set off immediately
- B) So long as you leave soon, you'll be in plenty of time for the train
- C) The train is about to leave, so you ought to hurry up
- D) You could have caught the train if you had left at once
- E) If you leave at once, you might just manage to catch the train

112- What can we do to convince him that the project is sure to succeed?

- A) Why can't he admit that the success of the project is in doubt?
- B) Why can't we persuade him that the scheme is sure to fail?
- C) How should we go about persuading him that the success of the project is assured?
- D) Why must he believe that the scheme is sure to succeed?
- E) Doesn't he want us to believe that the project is sure to succeed?

113- I didn't enjoy his last novel nearly as much as his early ones.

- A) I thought his early novels were good, but this last one was even better.
- B) His early novels gave me far more pleasure than his last one did.
- C) His novels begin well, but towards the end they are really not very enjoyable.
- D) His first novel was his best, but I quite enjoyed his last one too.
- E) In comparison with his last novel, even his early novels were good.

114- He's only just arrived, so he still doesn't know what's happened.

- A) It's a long time since he came, so he doesn't know what's been happening.
- B) He hasn't been here long, so nobody thought the new would interest him.
- C) As he only got here a minute or two ago, he hasn't heard the news yet.
- D) All that happened just before he arrived.
- E) If he had arrived a little earlier he would have been given all the news.

115- I happened to run into him on my way to the library.

- A) Fortunately, I met him just before I entered the library.
- B) We met and went to the library together.
- C) I met him by chance as I was going to the library.
- D) I was quite surprised when I met him in the library.
- E) I happened to see him going into the library.

116- As the traffic is so heavy it will take us at least an hour to get there.

- A) Let's wait an hour before we go as there is so much traffic on the roads.
- B) Since the roads are full of traffic at this hour we won't go now.
- C) Since the roads are so busy we won't be able to get there in under an hour.
- D) There are so many cars on the roads that we can't get there for hours.
- E) We'll set off at an hour when there isn't much traffic on the roads.

117- In my opinion, Arabic is no more difficult than French.

- A) It seems to me that French is even more difficult than Arabic.
- B) I don't think French is as difficult as Arabic.

- C) My belief is that French and Arabic are two of the most difficult languages.
- D) The difficulties of French and Arabic are not to be compared, in my opinion.
- E) I feel that while Arabic may be difficult, French is equally so.

118- The shortest distance between two points is not necessarily the quickest.

- A) The best way to get from one location to another should be the shortest.
- B) It is sometimes required to go between places by somewhat longer routes.
- C) It isn't always necessary to travel the shortest distance to a destination.
- D) The fastest route from one place to another may not be the most direct.
- E) Occasionally, it may be better to take less speedy roads to some places.

119- As far as I know, it will take about ten hours to reach our destination.

- A) Our destination is so far away that it will take us at least ten hours to get there.
- B) If we leave now, I'm sure we will get there by 10 o'clock.
- C) We should have started at 10 o'clock if we wanted to reach our destination on time.
- D) Even if we go as fast as we can, it will still take us no less than ten hours.
- E) According to my information, the place we are going to is approximately ten hours from here.

120- Commuters in Istanbul are still not used to travelling on the Metro.

- A) Citizens of Istanbul didn't use to travel on an underground railway.
- B) The people of Istanbul have to learn to use the tube more often.
- C) People who travel to work every day in Istanbul are not yet accustomed to using the subway.
- D) In Istanbul, not many people are willing to travel by underground train.
- E) Not enough people use the Istanbul Metro as yet, which has been opened recently.

121- While the service was excellent, the food could have been hotter.

- A) The food was served quickly, but was possibly not cooked enough.

- B) If the waiters had been faster, the food might not have been so cold.
- C) The waiters did their job well, but the food was a bit too cold.
- D) The food wasn't hot; however, the waiters made sure it was re-heated.
- E) Unless the waiters work very quickly, the food might arrive cold.

122- As there is a water shortage in this area, please use water sparingly.

- A) There is never enough water in this area for everyone to use sufficiently.
- B) Please don't use too much water, because it is scarce around here.
- C) Please remember to turn off the taps so that the water doesn't run out.
- D) If you keep using the water so wastefully, then we'll be short of it.
- E) Since the water has been cut off for a long time, please use that carefully.

123- It wasn't the best film I've ever seen, but it was definitely above average.

- A) I've never seen such a good film in such an ordinary cinema.
- B) I can only recall ever seeing one film better than that one.
- C) The film was better than most, though I have seen better ones.
- D) I've seen a lot of dull films, but that one is worse than most.
- E) Though the film was wonderful, it lasted a bit longer than normal.

124- She never eats cake except when she celebrates her birthday.

- A) Until her last birthday, she had never tasted even a small piece of cake.
- B) At last, on her last birthday, she tried a piece of her birthday cake.
- C) The only occasion on which she eats cake is on her own birthday.
- D) Although she celebrates her birthday every year, she never eats any of her birthday cake.
- E) She has decided that, for the first time in her life, she will try eating cake on her birthday.

125- Glenda says that she will only work on Sundays if there's an emergency.

- A) Except for Sundays, Glenda says she will only work in emergency situations.
- B) If there isn't an emergency, Glenda says' she won't work on any days except Sundays.
- C) Glenda wont work on Sundays, not even in emergency situations.
- D) Only Glenda says she will work on Sundays if there's an emergency.
- E) Glenda refuses to work on Sundays unless it's an emergency situation.

126- Until we've discussed it with him, we won't be able to address the problem.

- A) We couldn't have solved the problem without talking to him first.
- B) After having discussed the problem with him, we were still unable to solve it.
- C) If we can't decide how to solve the problem, we should discuss it with him.
- D) Before we can start sorting out the problem, we'll have to talk to him about it.
- E) I'm sure we'll find a solution to the problem after we've talked to him.

127- I'd better go shopping because it looks as if we may run out of eggs.

- A) I have to run out of the house because I'm in a hurry to get some eggs.
- B) There is no need to run to the shops as we have plenty of eggs.
- C) I think I'll go and get some eggs because we don't have any and we may need them later.
- D) After running so much, I'm hungry and would like some eggs.
- E) We may not have enough eggs, so I should go and buy some.