

TENSE REVISION (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)

1- Although my uncle took every possible precaution about his health, he failed to prevent his early death.

- A) My uncle was extremely careful to live a healthy lifestyle, yet he died at rather a young age.
- B) My uncle was not healthy at all although he took great care of himself until he died.
- C) My uncle was afraid of dying at a young age, so he looked after himself really well all his life.
- D) My uncle's early death was unavoidable because he was so careless about his health.
- E) It was his failures in life that caused my uncle to die at a very young age.

2- I handed in the documents to the manager two days ago, but he still hasn't signed them.

- A) I hand in the documents to the manager in time, but he usually takes two days to put his signature on them.
- B) I have been waiting for two days for the manager to sign my papers.
- C) I had to wait for two days, but in the end, the manager signed my documents.
- D) The papers still lack the manager's signature although it's two days since I gave them to him.
- E) Two days ago, I took some documents to the manager, but he just didn't sign them.

3- Being just on the point of closing the shop, the shop assistant was not happy with the arrival of a late customer.

- A) The assistant closed the shop very late because a customer turned up at the last moment and he had to deal with her.
- B) The shop assistant didn't like it when a customer arrived just as he was closing the shop,
- C) Although the shop-assistant wasn't pleased to have a customer as he was closing the shop, he gave his service anyway.
- D) After he served the customer who came just at the last moment, the assistant closed the shop hurriedly.
- E) The shop-assistant was hurrying to close the shop, but just then, a customer arrived.

4- It was while he was working on a voluntary project in the Far East that he got married to a woman on the same project.

- A) He met his future wife in the Far East, where she was employed in a voluntary project.
- B) Just after they got married, they volunteered to do some work in the Far East.
- C) When they got married, he was working in the Far East on a voluntary project.
- D) He married a colleague from his team during his voluntary work in the Far East.
- E) They were colleagues before they got married and now they work in the Far East on a voluntary project.

5- An urgent call on my mobile made me leave the stadium before the match finished.

- A) Just as the match was about to finish, I received an urgent call on my mobile.
- B) I received an urgent call on my mobile while I was coming out of the stadium.
- C) I didn't want to leave the stadium before the match finished, despite the urgent call on my mobile.
- D) I was at the stadium watching a match when I received an urgent call on my mobile.
- E) Due to an urgent call, I had to leave the stadium when the match was still going on.

6- My son hardly studied for his exams, so we were already expecting these poor results.

- A) We were not expecting our son to do so badly in his exams because he studied for them quite a lot.
- B) Because my son studied very little for his exams, it wasn't surprising for us that he got bad results.
- C) We knew that our son studied very little for his exams, but we were still disappointed with his results.
- D) My son found his exams quite hard, so, not surprisingly, he got very poor results.
- E) My son's exams were so hard that, as we were expecting, he did very badly in them.

7- As far as I know, they're still working on a solution to their financial problems.

- A) As far as I'm concerned, they are about to find a solution to their monetary problems.
- B) I know that they have no idea about how they can get over their financial problems.
- C) From what I know, they haven't yet found a way to solve their monetary difficulties.
- D) It seems to me that they are still far from finding a solution to their financial difficulties.
- E) I know that they are all working hard to get over the financial difficulty they are in.

8- The fire fighters didn't arrive at the blazing house in time to save it from burning down.

- A) The fire consumed the house completely, because the fire fighters were not quick enough in arriving there.
- B) When the fire fighters arrived at the blazing house, the fire was burning fiercely.
- C) It took the fire fighters quite a long time to get to the blazing house.
- D) The fire fighters didn't think that it was such a big fire, so they were slow arriving there.
- E) When the fire fighters arrived, the flames were so big that it took them a long time to put the fire out.

9- I know Eleni is studying biology, because I have just seen her in the laboratory.

- A) Because I saw her in the laboratory a little while ago, I know that Eleni is a biology student.
- B) Eleni may be a biology student because I know I have seen her studying in the laboratory.
- C) I'm sure I saw Eleni in the laboratory when she was studying biology.
- D) As I see Eleni in the laboratory every day, I'm sure that she studies biology.
- E) I know I have just seen Eleni studying biology, but it wasn't in the laboratory.

10- Ophelia was working in Oman at the start of the millennium, but for the past four years, she's been in Hong Kong.

- A) Ophelia worked for four years in Hong Kong and after that, in 2000, she went to Oman.
- B) Ophelia stopped working in Oman several years ago, and then lived in Hong Kong for four years.
- C) Ophelia has been working in Hong Kong for four years now, and she first went there from Oman around the year 2000.
- D) For four years after the start of the millennium, Ophelia worked in Oman, but now she is in Hong Kong.
- E) For four years now, Ophelia has been in Hong Kong, but at the beginning of 2000, she was working in Oman.

11- Damien speaks Chinese, but at the moment he is reading a newspaper in Japanese.

- A) Damien is speaking Chinese while he is reading a Japanese newspaper.
- B) Damien is reading a Japanese newspaper right now, but he also speaks Chinese.
- C) Damien likes to read Japanese newspapers, but at the moment he is speaking Chinese.
- D) Damien, who speaks Chinese, prefers to read his newspapers in Japanese.
- E) The newspaper Damien is reading now is Japanese, but he also reads Chinese ones.

12- Cortes first encountered the Aztecs when he was exploring the western coast of Mexico.

- A) Cortes travelled along the western coast of Mexico to make contact with the Aztecs.
- B) During his expedition on the western coast of Mexico, Cortes came across the Aztecs for the first time.
- C) Cortes was the first person to meet the Aztecs when they were exploring western Mexico.
- D) Cortes met the Aztecs again during the time he was touring on the western Mexican coast.
- E) During his expedition, Cortes didn't meet any Aztecs, except on the western coast of Mexico.

13- Milan is unique in football history, as two different football clubs from the city have won the Champions League.

- A) The two football clubs from Milan have both done well in the Champions League.
- B) The city of Milan has only two football clubs, but both of them have been successful in the Champions League.
- C) With two of its football clubs winning the Champions League, Milan has no parallel in the history of football.
- D) In its history, Milan has seen two of its football clubs playing in the Champions League.
- E) One of the football teams from the city of Milan is unique, because it has won the Champions League twice.

14- Amin Maalouf has been living in France since he moved there at the start of the Lebanese Civil War.

- A) Amin Maalouf was living in France until he moved to Lebanon at the beginning of the Lebanese Civil War.

- B) After the Lebanese Civil War, Amin Maalouf moved to France, and he is still living there.
- C) When the Lebanese Civil War began, Amin Maalouf was already planning to move to and settle in France.
- D) Amin Maalouf was moving to his home in France when the Lebanese Civil War broke out.
- E) When the Lebanese Civil War began, Amin Maalouf moved to France, and he has had his home there up to now.

15- I don't want to eat Thai food at the moment, but I have tried it once before, and I do like it.

- A) I don't eat Thai food anymore, although I did like it when I first tried it.
- B) I like Thai food, but I haven't eaten it for a long time, and I have no appetite for it now.
- C) Although I do think that Thai food is nice, I don't think I'll be able to eat any now.
- D) Although I've eaten it once, and I think it is nice, at present I have no desire to eat Thai food.
- E) I think Thai food tastes nice, but I haven't eaten any since the first time I ate it.

16- Achilles stayed by his ships while the rest of the Greeks fought with the Trojans.

- A) As the Greeks and the Trojans had a battle, Achilles remained and rested by his ships.
- B) When the other Greeks were fighting the Trojans, Achilles didn't leave his ships.
- C) The Greeks and Trojans had a battle because Achilles didn't leave his ships.
- D) The Trojans attacked the other Greeks when Achilles remained with his ships.
- E) The Greeks with Achilles fought the Trojans while they were close to their ships.

17- Babur was living far away from his homeland in Kabul when he decided to invade India.

- A) Babur had decided to attack India long before he moved to a great distance from his homeland in Kabul.
- B) Babur was thinking about attacking India although it was so far away from his homeland in Kabul.
- C) Babur chose to return to his homeland, India, when he was living far away from it in Kabul.
- D) Babur's decision to launch an attack into India occurred when he was staying in Kabul, far from his own country.
- E) Babur, who was in his homeland Kabul, which was so far away from India, still decided to invade that country.

18- Scientists have predicted that Asteroid 99942 Apophis will not collide with the Earth in 2029.

- A) Scientists have decided that Asteroid 99942 Apophis won't have a collision with Earth until 2029.
- B) In 2029, Asteroid 99942 Apophis and Earth will not hit each other, according to the belief of scientists.
- C) It is believed that Asteroid 99942 Apophis won't go past the Earth in 2029.
- D) Asteroid 99942 Apophis isn't likely to crash into our planet before 2029, say scientists.
- E) The view of science is that the collision between Earth and Asteroid 99942 Apophis will happen sometime after 2029.

19- The Mayan civilization had declined before the Spanish conquered Central America.

- A) The Mayan civilization became weak, and later on, the Spanish took control in Central America.
- B) The Spanish conquest of Central America caused the fall of the Mayan civilization.
- C) The Spanish took over Central America because of the weakness of the Mayan civilization.
- D) The Mayan civilization became rather weak when the Spanish fought to take control of Central America.
- E) The Spanish used violence to take over Central America, and this led to the decline of the Mayan civilization.

20- The emirate of Dubai is constructing the tallest building in the world, and will have finished it by 2010.

- A) The emirate of Dubai is planning to construct the world's tallest building in 2010.
- B) The tallest building in the world, which the emirate is building now, will be in Dubai before or in 2010.

- C) Before or in 2010, Dubai will house the tallest building in the world as the emirate is starting to construct it soon.
- D) The emirate of Dubai will start constructing the world's tallest building in the year 2010.
- E) By the end of 2010, the emirate of Dubai will have put up the tallest building in the world.

21- Farah has just cut her hand, so I'm dashing to the chemist's to buy a bandage.

- A) Because Farah has cut herself, shall I go to the chemist's and buy a bandage quickly?
- B) Farah's hand is bleeding terribly, so I'll quickly go to the chemist's to buy a bandage.
- C) I'm on my way to the chemist's to buy a bandage quickly, because Farah cut her hand just now.
- D) We need a bandage for Farah's cut finger, so someone has to dash to the chemist's.
- E) I've been to the chemist's to buy this bandage for Farah's cut finger.

22- Two people in the row behind us were talking continuously throughout the entire film.

- A) We didn't enjoy the film because two people were talking behind us.
- B) We didn't start to enjoy the film until the two people behind us stopped talking.
- C) During the most thrilling parts of the film, a couple were chatting behind us, which was very irritating.
- D) The noise of people talking completely spoils the film for us.
- E) During the whole film, two people sitting behind us didn't stop talking.

23- Before George Orwell started to write, he had worked for the colonial British police in Burma.

- A) George Orwell started writing when he was a colonial British police officer in Burma.
- B) Although he was a writer, George Orwell also served in the colonial British police force in Burma.
- C) George Orwell was first a British police officer in colonial Burma, and then he began to write.
- D) While he was serving as a British police officer in colonial Burma, George Orwell began to write.
- E) George Orwell had already begun writing before he worked as a British police officer in colonial Burma.

24- The expression 'knowledge is power' is no longer valid because there is no longer a shortage of information.

- A) The saying 'knowledge is power' was based on the misconception that those who know a lot of things are always clever.
- B) Due to the abundance of information available today, the saying 'knowledge is power' has become meaningless.
- C) The saying 'knowledge is power' developed from the shortage of information ancient people suffered.
- D) Those who had knowledge used to be powerful, but modern people all have access to information.
- E) We need to replace the expression 'knowledge is power' with a more suitable and modern alternative.

25- There was very little traffic yesterday afternoon so, for once, I arrived home before my mother.

- A) I always arrive home after my mother, but yesterday afternoon was an exception because of the light traffic.
- B) My mother, who usually comes home before me, got caught up in traffic yesterday afternoon, but luckily I didn't.
- C) Because I was travelling in the afternoon, when the traffic is usually not heavy, I got home quite quickly, which has happened only once in a long time.
- D) The traffic is almost always very bad on my route home, but yesterday afternoon I arrived home around the same time as my mother.
- E) My mother usually comes home after me, but yesterday afternoon she arrived before me because the roads were clear of traffic.

26- My friend's cousin graduated from university two years ago and has been working in Korea since then.

- A) My friend's cousin took two years to graduate before he went to Korea to work.
- B) My friend's cousin went to work in Korea two years after he'd graduated from university.
- C) Two years before my friend's cousin graduated from university, he had been working in Korea.
- D) My friend's cousin has been working in Korea from the time of his graduation two years ago.
- E) Two years after my friend's cousin left university, he decided to work in Korea.

27- I last saw Mary's brother just before his exams, and not surprisingly, he looked thin and pale then.

- A) Whenever I see Mary's brother, he looks thin and pale because he's always studying hard for his exams.
- B) I'm not surprised Mary's brother looks thin and pale because very shortly he will take his exams.
- C) Naturally, Mary's brother has become thin and pale because he is taking his examinations.
- D) Surprisingly, just before his exams, Mary's brother appeared to have lost weight and was looking rather pale.
- E) I haven't seen Mary's brother since he was about to take his exams and he naturally appeared thin and pale.

28- I had never seen a Shakespeare play performed until I saw 'Twelfth Night' by the university theatre group last week.

- A) I have never seen a Shakespeare play performed, but our university theatre group performed his Twelfth Night' last week.
- B) Twelfth Night', which I saw performed by the university theatre group last week, was the first Shakespeare play I had seen
- C) The university theatre group had never performed a Shakespeare play until last week, when they put on a performance of 'Twelfth Night'.
- D) Shakespeare's play Twelfth Night', performed by the university theatre group, was the first play that I had ever seen in my life.
- E) Shakespeare's Twelfth Night', which we performed with the university theatre group last week, was the first play in which I took part.

29- He was confused about his maths homework until his friend's brother explained the instructions to him.

- A) The explanation given to him by his friend's brother confused him, so he didn't know how to do his maths homework.
- B) Because he was confused about his maths homework, his friend asked his brother to help him.
- C) After his friend's brother explained the instructions to him, he was no longer confused about his maths homework.
- D) When his friend's brother offered to do his maths homework for him, he was confused about whether he should let him or not.
- E) Maths is very confusing for him and the explanations can be just as difficult to understand; therefore, he prefers to ask a friend for help.

30- Due to his wish to see his children more often, he has recently started a new job closer to the house so that he doesn't waste time travelling.

- A) His children wanted to see more of him, so he went to work for another company, which gave him more free time.
- B) Recently he has taken different employment near his house in order that he doesn't have to travel, and therefore, he can see more of his children.
- C) In his new job, he doesn't have to travel any more, which means that he won't waste time in heavy traffic except when taking his children to and from school.
- D) His previous job was better-paid, but he gave it up for one closer to his house as he wanted to spend the time he'd otherwise waste commuting with his children.
- E) The reason why he's changed his job recently and got a new one near his house is that he hates to spend so much time in traffic.

31- Vicki wasn't feeling well yesterday, so for once, I beat her at badminton.

- A) I always lose to Vicki at badminton, but yesterday was an exception because of her ill health.
- B) I usually beat Vicki at badminton, but yesterday I lost, though this was due to my ill health.
- C) I have only once won at badminton, and that was against Vicki, who actually wasn't feeling well at the time.
- D) Despite not feeling very well, Vicki beat me yesterday at badminton as she normally does.
- E) I beat Vicki for the first time yesterday at badminton, but she blamed her ill health for her defeat.

32- The Internet has become accessible to most people because computer prices have fallen and internet cafes have sprung up in the last few years.

- A) Lack of money is no longer a barrier to access to the Internet because those who can't afford to buy a computer can go to computer cafes.

- B) A few years ago, only the rich had been able to afford a computer, but now, due to falling prices, everyone can own one.
- C) Most people access the Internet on their own computer or at internet cafes, which are springing up everywhere.
- D) As the cost of a computer has dropped and internet cafes have opened up over recent years, the Internet is now only inaccessible to very few people.
- E) Because of falling prices and internet cafes opening up all over the place, everyone in the world will have access to the Internet soon.

33- John has been responsible for sales in the Midlands since his promotion by the firm two months ago.

- A) The company promoted John two months ago and since then he has had the responsibility for sales in the Midlands.
- B) Before the company promoted John, he had the responsibility for sales in the Midlands for two months.
- C) John had the responsibility for Midland sales two months before his company promoted him.
- D) John has had the responsibility for Midland sales for two months and his company has just promoted him.
- E) In two months' time, John's company will promote him and he will be responsible for sales in the Midlands.

34- I last hiked this sort of distance at university and, not surprisingly, I was much fitter then.

- A) You will be surprised to learn that I was much fitter at university and could walk distances like this with no difficulty at all.
- B) I'm surprisingly fit considering that I haven't done a walk of this length since university.
- C) Naturally, I'm tired as I'm not accustomed to walking so far, but I was much fitter when I was at university.
- D) I'm not surprised I'm finding walking so far more difficult than last time, as I was attending university then.
- E) I haven't walked such a distance since I was at university, when I was much fitter, of course.

35- FIFA football, which I played with my nephew last week, was the first computer game I had played in my life.

- A) I had never played a computer game until I played FIFA football with my nephew last week.
- B) I have never played any computer games, but my nephew played FIFA football last week.
- C) I beat my nephew on the computer game FIFA football last week for the first time ever.
- D) I had never used a computer until I played FIFA football last week with my nephew.
- E) I had never allowed my nephew to use my computer before, but he played FIFA football, on it last week.

36- As the crust tasted like cardboard, that was the last time I ever tried to make an apple pie.

- A) I bought an apple pie for them instead of trying to make one myself because last time my pie crust resembled cardboard.
- B) They didn't like my apple pie because it tasted like cardboard, so I won't bake another one.
- C) Every time I try to make an apple pie, it tastes a bit like cardboard, so I'm going to give up trying.
- D) I never attempted to bake an apple pie again because the crust of my last attempt resembled cardboard in taste.
- E) The moment I saw my last apple pie come out of the oven, I knew it was another disastrous attempt as it had less taste than cardboard.

37- She stopped worrying about her son when he telephoned her from the university.

- A) She worries a lot about her son, who is at university, so he phones her frequently.
- B) He phoned his mother from the university because he didn't want her to worry about him.
- C) After her son phoned her from the university, she was no longer worried about him.
- D) He phones his mother from the university because he knows she worries about him.
- E) After her son promised to phone her when he arrived at the university, she stopped worrying.

38- Lena Zavoroni had suffered for nearly twenty years before she died of an eating disorder.

- A) Lena Zavoroni passed away because of eating too little for over twenty years.
- B) When Lena Zavoroni died twenty years ago, she was suffering from an eating disorder.
- C) After almost twenty years of suffering from an eating disorder, Lena Zavoroni passed away.
- D) Almost twenty years of eating unhealthy food caused the death of Lena Zavoroni.
- E) Lena Zavoroni's death was a result of twenty years of overeating.

39- Julia has been painting a portrait of her mother for the last three weeks.

- A) About three weeks ago, Julia painted a portrait of her mother.
- B) Julia started painting her mother's portrait three weeks ago and hasn't finished yet.
- C) The portrait Julia painted of her mother took three weeks to finish.
- D) At the moment, Julia is painting her mother's portrait, which will probably take her three weeks to finish.
- E) In three weeks' time, Julia will have finished the portrait she is painting of her mother.

40- Though she is an intelligent and talented woman, her four marriages have all failed.

- A) It is surprising that anyone with her talent and intelligence should have difficulty sustaining a marriage.
- B) She believes that intelligence and talent do not necessarily lead to happiness in married life.
- C) Perhaps she is too intellectual for men, because she does not seem able to remain married.
- D) None of her four attempts at marriage has been successful in spite of her intellect and abilities.
- E) Naturally, her talent and intelligence have led to the failure of her four marriages.

41- The president was working continuously throughout his illness.

- A) The president was so ill that he couldn't conduct affairs efficiently.
- B) The president was able to handle most of his normal workload during his recent illness.
- C) While he was ill, the president never stopped working.
- D) His continuous illnesses mean that he is no longer fit enough to be president.
- E) We should not expect a president who is so ill to continue working.

42- The baby woke up again before I was half-way through cleaning and tidying the house.

- A) I could do twice as much housework before I had the baby.
- B) I usually do only half of my housework while the baby is asleep.
- C) By the time the baby woke up, I had hardly finished the housework.
- D) I couldn't finish my housework because the baby kept waking up.
- E) My housework wasn't half done when the baby woke up again.

43- We just saw John just when he'd decided on a radical change in his life.

- A) When we met John again, we noticed that he had changed his life radically.
- B) When we met John last month, he had just reached a major decision.
- C) John was considering the possibility of doing something different when we last saw him.
- D) We haven't seen John since the very moment that he expressed his decision to change his life completely.
- E) In order to make such a radical decision about his life, John wanted to talk to us one last time.

44- We had never lived abroad until we went to Africa for three years in the early 1990s.

- A) When we went to Africa in the early 1990s for a period of three years, it was our first stay overseas.
- B) We have plenty of experience of living abroad, because we stayed in Africa for three years in the early 1990s.
- C) We were going to live in Africa for three years in the early 1990s, but we decided not to because we hadn't done anything like that before.
- D) Three years after our first visit to Africa in the early 1990s, we wanted to go there again.
- E) We haven't been on an overseas trip since the early 1990s, when we stayed in Africa for three years.

45- As soon as I mentioned the price of the vase, the lady's face took on a disappointed expression.

- A) The lady looked quite happy until she knew how much I had charged her for the vase.
- B) The disappointment showed on the lady's face the moment I told her the cost of the vase.

- C) It was obvious from the expression./on the lady's face that she didn't want the vase because it was expensive.
 D) I think the lady was disappointed because the vase was too expensive for her to buy.
 E) From the expression on her face, I could see the lady was angry because the vase was overpriced.
- 46- Once she had made her decision to quit her job, no one even tried to convince her to change her mind.
- A) She decided to quit her job once, but her friends convinced her to change her mind.
 B) There was no reason for anyone to try to convince her to change her mind after she made a decision.
 C) There was not a single person who made the effort to persuade her not to quit her job after she had decided.
 D) When she mentioned quitting her job there was no one who said that it was a good decision.
 E) No one saw any point in trying to persuade her to stay with her job because she has never once changed her mind.
- 47- He had studied English for years, but it was only when he arrived in London that he discovered how little he really knew.
- A) By the time he arrived in London, he had forgotten most of the English that he had studied over the years.
 B) He was glad that he had studied English before he went to London because every little bit he knew was useful to him.
 C) He had been studying English for years, but he knew that it was still not enough for him to go to London for education.
 D) Before he arrived in London, he had thought that he had learned more English than he actually had.
 E) During the years he studied the English language, he was aware that if he knew too little, he wouldn't be able to study in London.
- 48- She was surprised that, although her father had never smoked or eaten fatty foods, he had a heart attack.
- A) To her amazement, her father didn't have a heart attack even though he was a heavy smoker and ate an unhealthy diet.
 B) She could not believe it when her father gave up smoking and eating fatty foods after his heart attack.
 C) Because of her father's healthy diet, she feels certain that he'll never have a heart attack.
 D) She was glad that, after his heart attack, her father never smoked or ate fatty foods for the rest of his life.
 E) She didn't expect her father to have a heart attack because he had kept away from cigarettes and fatty foods all his life.
- 49- There is an incredible variety of washing powders available including one which a company has recently brought out for washing dark coloured clothes.
- A) It is hard to find a detergent specially designed for dark coloured clothes, even among the wide variety of washing powders available.
 B) There is a wide variety of detergents specially designed for washing dark colours available in the shops.
 C) Although there is a huge range of detergent powders on the market, no company has so far launched a product specifically for dark materials.
 D) Among the unbelievable choice of detergent powders on sale is one which a company has recently launched to specifically wash dark coloured clothes.
 E) There is a vast choice of washing powders on sale in the shops, but none is designed specially for darker clothes.
- 50- His car had been in the lead until he went into the pit, but he came out of the pit in the third place.
- A) Before he took a pit stop, he had been leading, but he rejoined the race in the third position.
 B) Because he took such a long pit stop, he lost three places before he rejoined the race.
 C) He was the third person to take a pit stop and he won the race.
 D) At one point he was leading the race, but he took a long pit stop and finally came third.
 E) The leader took three pit stops during the race and thus lost the leading position.

51- My brother has received lots of job offers since Catering Magazine awarded him the 'Young Chef of the Year' title four weeks ago.

- A) A month ago, my brother got his current job because Catering Magazine awarded him the title of 'Young Chef of the Year' several times.
- B) My brother had had several jobs before he won Catering Magazine's 'Young Chef of the Year' last month.
- C) Ever since he won Catering Magazine's 'Young Chef of the Year' title, my brother has become more devoted to his job.
- D) Catering Magazine named my brother their 'Young Chef of the Year' a month ago, and since then, lots of companies have offered him work.
- E) My brother had worked hard to win Catering Magazine's 'Young Chef of the Year' title and he attained his goal last month.

52- Karl wasn't concentrating while he was preparing the vegetables for dinner in the restaurant due to problems at home.

- A) Karl's many domestic problems didn't stop him from carrying out the preparation of the vegetables for the restaurant.
- B) Because of domestic problems, Karl's mind wasn't on his work as he prepared vegetables for the evening meal at the restaurant.
- C) Karl was reluctant to carry out his work of preparing for the evening meal at the restaurant due to an argument with his wife.
- D) Karl didn't concentrate as well as usual tonight while he was preparing the vegetables for the restaurant.
- E) Karl didn't prepare the vegetables for dinner in the restaurant properly as he was too upset about personal matters to care.

53- It took me longer to find the arts building than it had taken me to drive from home to the university.

- A) The university was easy to find by road, but once there, the arts building was difficult to locate.
- B) I had left plenty of time for the car journey from home to the university, but not enough time to find the arts building.
- C) Finding the arts building took me longer than I had expected, as had the car journey to the university from home.
- D) I spent more time trying to find the arts building than I had spent getting to the university from home by car.
- E) Because I had to walk from the car park, which was quite far away, to the arts building, it took me longer than to drive all the way from home.

54- Both governments claimed that the other had started the conflict.

- A) Both governments are to blame for the current unrest.
- B) Neither government wanted the present conflict to start.
- C) During the unrest, neither government acknowledged the true cause.
- D) Both governments declared that they had initiated the agreement.
- E) Each government blamed the other for initiating the unrest.

55- She believed in Father Christmas until she turned thirteen.

- A) She already knew that Father Christmas was fantasy before she was a teenager.
- B) By her fourteenth birthday, she no longer thought that Father Christmas brought her presents.

- C) When she was thirteen, she still thought Father Christmas was real.
- D) She thought Father Christmas was real until she became a teenager.
- E) She started to believe in Father Christmas at the age of thirteen.

56- He looked everywhere for his favourite t-shirt because he didn't know his mother had thrown it out.

- A) He had been looking for his favourite t-shirt for ages when he found out that his mother had thrown it away.
- B) After he had searched everywhere for his favourite t-shirt without success, he assumed his mother had hidden it from him.
- C) When he couldn't find his favourite t-shirt anywhere, he thought his mother had accidentally put it out with the rubbish.
- D) He was frantically searching everywhere for his favourite t-shirt when his mother told him where to find it.
- E) As he was unaware that his mother had thrown his favourite t-shirt out, he searched for it everywhere.

57- She had behaved well at school before she made friends with Annabella Miller.

- A) She will be well-behaved in school as long as she doesn't mix with Annabella Miller.
- B) Until she became friends with Annabella Miller, she had been well-behaved in school.
- C) Her good behaviour in school was a result of her association with Annabella Miller.
- D) She was better behaved in class than normal during her friendship with Annabella Miller.
- E) She has behaved much worse at school since she started to fall out with Annabella Miller.

58- They have been looking for a suitable house unsuccessfully for three months.

- A) They started looking for a house three months ago and they haven't found one that suits their needs yet.
- B) At last, they found a house about three months ago, though it is not very suitable for them.
- C) It took them three months to find a suitable house.
- D) At the moment, they are looking for a suitable house, but they won't be moving in for another three months.
- E) In three months' time, they will be moving to a more suitable house that they have found.

59- Though he was an experienced water-skier, he made a foolish mistake and swung towards the beach.

- A) Because of his lack of experience as a water-skier, he made a basic error and turned his skis in the direction of the beach.
- B) Such an inexperienced water-skier had better stay away from the area near the beach in case he swings around in the wrong direction.
- C) He made a silly error and swung in the direction of the beach despite having a great deal of water-skiing experience.
- D) I was shocked that such an experienced water-skier made the silly mistake of skiing directly towards the beach.
- E) Normally experienced water-skiers don't make basic errors such as skiing too close to bathers or the beach.

60- Just 24 hours after their leader called for restraint, activists killed three more people in the area.

- A) Even though their leader had pleaded for restraint, activists killed more than three people just in 24 hours.
- B) Activists killed three people 24 hours ago, so the leader of their government has asked for restraint.
- C) Only 24 hours after their leader asked them to show restraint, three activists in the area started killing again.
- D) Activists murdered another three people in the area only one day after the leader asked them to show restraint.
- E) A day after activists murdered three people, their leader appealed again for restraint.

61- I have wrapped her present up but will have to post it later as I don't have my address book with me.

- A) Because my address book is somewhere else, I have no choice but to wait until later to post her present, which I've already wrapped up.
- B) I have finished gift-wrapping her present and have addressed it, but I will wait until later to post it.
- C) I will wrap her gift I bought for her later as I don't have my address book with me anyway.
- D) Because I had left my address book at home, I wasn't able to post the gift to her.
- E) I had wrapped her present up yesterday, but I had to post it this morning, when I had found out her address.

62- I last visited the doctor when a nasty lump had developed behind my ear.

- A) I have a worrying lump growing behind my left ear, which wasn't there when I last went to see the doctor.
- B) Since the last time I visited the doctor, a nasty-looking lump has been getting bigger behind my ear.
- C) The next time I went to the doctor's was because I was worried about a lump which had been growing behind my ear for some time.
- D) I have made an appointment with my doctor, at last, to ask him about a growth which has appeared behind my ear.
- E) I haven't had an appointment with the doctor since I went to see him about a worrying growth behind my ear.

63- He had never suspected her of being part of the gang until he accidentally found her secret address book.

- A) He had often suspected her of being a member of a gang, but he wasn't sure until he found her hidden address book.
- B) When he came across her secret address book, it was the first time he had had his suspicions that she was a member of the gang.
- C) His suspicions that she was a member of a gang, which he had had for some time, were confirmed when he found her address book.
- D) When he discovered her secret address book, it confirmed the suspicions that she was a member of the gang.
- E) After he had found her hidden address book, he had no more doubts about her being a member of a gang.

64- As soon as she tried on the dress in the shop, she knew it was perfect for her wedding day.

- A) She didn't think much of the wedding dress she saw in the shop's window until she tried it on.
- B) When she put the dress on at home, she knew she had bought the best wedding dress available in the shop.
- C) She got married in the most beautiful dress that she almost hadn't tried on in the shop.
- D) She realised that the dress was the ideal one to wear for her wedding the moment she put it on in the shop.
- E) She thought the first dress that she had tried on in the shop was the best one to wear on her wedding day.

65- Once she had telephoned to say that she was safe and well, her entire family felt greatly relieved.

- A) She rang most members of her close family to say how well and happy she felt.
- B) She never neglected to telephone every member of her family to inform them of her health and well-being.
- C) She felt a great sense of relief after the telephone call saying that none of the members of her family had come to any harm.
- D) All the members of her family experienced great relief after she had called to tell them that she was fine.
- E) Her parents were hopeful that she would contact them and inform them that she was safe and well.

66- She had had no trouble understanding the English of her English teacher, but she had a lot of trouble understanding the local residents of Hackney when she arrived in London.

- A) Although she had easily understood the English of her English teacher, on her arrival in Hackney, London, she found the inhabitants difficult to understand.
- B) Since she arrived in London, she hasn't had much difficulty understanding the English of the people who live in Hackney, but she had understood the English of her English teacher more easily.
- C) Despite having no difficulty understanding English in a classroom situation, out on the streets of Hackney, London, she hasn't understood a word anyone said to her since she arrived.
- D) She had no trouble understanding either the English of her English teacher or the English spoken by the local residents of Hackney after she arrived in London.
- E) She had little difficulty understanding the English spoken by the residents of Hackney after she arrived in London although it bore little resemblance to the English of her English teacher.

67- In almost every country, they are locking up more and more children.

- A) Some nations put a very large number of children behind bars.
- B) They are putting an increasing number of children in prison in virtually every nation.
- C) An increasing number of countries are sending children to prison.
- D) Some countries lock up a higher percentage of children than others.
- E) Worldwide, there are more children in prison today than ever before.

68- The reason she wasn't responding to your questions is that her anger at you for what you said to her the other night still hasn't waned.

- A) What you said to her a few nights ago doesn't matter any more because she's no longer angry with you and will respond to any questions you ask her.
- B) Your words to her the other night made her very angry, and for this reason she's not asking you any questions.
- C) She remains angry with you for all those things you said to her a few nights ago, and that's why you weren't getting any replies to your questions.
- D) She hasn't stopped being angry with you for your words to her a few nights ago, but there's no reason for you not to respond to her questions about them.
- E) It wasn't a good idea for you to be angry with her just because she wasn't responding to your question about what you had said to her the night before.

69- He had bought me the CD a couple of months before, but he was waiting for my birthday to actually give it to me.

- A) I think he gave me the CD on my birthday, but he had bought it for himself several months earlier.
- B) He bought me the CD many months ago, yet he didn't give it to me until after my birthday.
- C) On my birthday, he gave me the CD which he had actually bought for himself a few months before.
- D) I didn't receive the CD until it was my birthday, even though he'd purchased it for me a few months earlier.
- E) Until he gave me the CD I didn't know he'd been waiting for two months to do so since he'd purchased it.

70- I thought she was the right person for the position, yet it turned out that she was quite useless.

- A) I was expecting her to be incompetent in this job; however, she wasn't that bad.
- B) Contrary to my initial impression, she was not totally unsuitable for the position.
- C) I was right in thinking that she was totally useless for the job.
- D) Because I was expecting her to be competent, I was shocked to see her perform rather badly.
- E) I was mistaken about her suitability for the position, since she proved rather incompetent.

71- A lot of people believe that other life forms exist elsewhere in the universe, but we'll probably have to wait for a long time until we know for sure.

- A) It is most likely that it will be many years before humans know for certain if there are aliens somewhere in the universe, but many people already believe they do.
- B) Many people believe that it will take a long time for us to know for sure if other life forms exist somewhere else in the universe.
- C) It is certain that other life forms exist somewhere in the universe, but it will be a long time before people can find and get into contact with them.
- D) Many people have long believed that somewhere in the universe there certainly exist other life forms that are waiting for us to contact them.
- E) We'll probably have to wait many years before other life forms arrive from elsewhere in the universe to convince us that they really exist.

72- It took us all night to drive from Kansas to Texas, and by the end of the journey, we were absolutely exhausted.

- A) We were driving from Kansas to Texas the whole night long, and when we finally got there, we were extremely tired.
- B) By the time we finally arrived in Kansas, we were completely exhausted because all night long we had driven through Texas.

- C) It was a whole night's drive through Texas, so we were all very tired by the time we arrived at our destination in Kansas.
- D) Driving from Kansas to Texas took us nearly one night, so we all felt exhausted when we eventually arrived there.
- E) We found the journey from Kansas to Texas rather tiring, because we had to drive almost all night long.

73- The number of people participating in the conference was far below my expectation.

- A) Because the conference hall was so far from the city centre, few people attended it.
- B) I knew that holding such a conference required the participation of more people.
- C) I had expected that many more people would actually attend the conference.
- D) I think attendance at the conference was low because it was held too far away from the city centre.
- E) The number of participants at the conference far exceeded my expectations.

74- Ever since the dawn of civilization, human beings have felt the need to express their deepest emotions and desires through music and dance.

- A) The dawn of civilization first came about when mankind began to express his most profound emotions and desires through music and dance.
- B) Music and dance express human beings' deepest feelings and desires about the rise of civilization.
- C) From the dawn of civilization until today, singers and dancers have been freely expressing their most basic emotions and wishes.
- D) Mankind has perceived the necessity of showing his strongest feelings and wishes by means of music and dance since the first civilizations arose.
- E) When human beings express their most profound emotions and desires by singing and dancing, it is very representative of civilization.

75- The waitress had confused my order with the person at the next table's, so he received my chicken while I got his turkey.

- A) I was surprised when the waitress got my order right, giving me the chicken and the man at the next table turkey.
- B) There was great confusion when the waitress gave my chicken order to the person at the next table and his mixed chicken-turkey order to me.
- C) The man at the table next to me got my chicken and I got his turkey because of the mix-up of our orders by the waitress.
- D) The waitress appeared to be confused when I said that I had ordered chicken, while the man at the next table had ordered turkey.
- E) The waitress was so confused when she was taking our orders that she ended up giving my chicken to the man at the next table, and his turkey to me.

76- He agrees with me about the fact that our breaking up but staying friends is the best possible decision for us to make.

- A) He and I are of the same opinion that the best thing for us to do before breaking up is to speak with our friends.
- B) I think there is no better decision for us to make than to separate yet remain on friendly terms, and he thinks so as well.
- C) We have decided to remain friends after we've broken up, but this does not seem very possible to me.
- D) The only thing he agrees with me about is that we should stay friends now that we have separated.
- E) When I made the decision to break up, he said that we should stay on friendly terms, and I agreed with him.

77- Trying to run a few errands just before she went to the airport caused her to be a little late in meeting her husband there.

- A) She was running some errands when she suddenly realized that she had to go to the airport to meet her husband, and she arrived there a bit late.
- B) She had run several errands a short time before she went to pick her husband up at the airport, yet she still managed to get there just on time.
- C) She still had a few small tasks to do, but she had to leave them because she didn't want to be late in arriving at the airport to meet her husband.

- D) She had to run a few errands after she had picked her husband up at the airport, and so they arrived home a little late.
- E) It was due to her attempt to do some small tasks at the last moment that she arrived at the airport a few minutes late to pick her husband up.

78- Although she had been trying to quit smoking for several years, she wasn't successful until she used the hypnosis method.

- A) She had smoked for several years and tried to give it up under hypnosis many times, but she never succeeded in doing so.
- B) She has never managed to give up smoking, even though she has tried the normally successful hypnosis method.
- C) Her giving up smoking using the hypnosis method over several years turned out to be very successful.
- D) For many years, she attempted and failed to give up smoking, and it was only when she underwent hypnosis that she managed to do so.
- E) The hypnosis method wasn't very useful for her quitting smoking, since she tried it many times over a period of several years and failed each time.

79- Before he moved back to his hometown towards the end of 1980, my brother had been living abroad for about ten years.

- A) In the late 1980s, after he had lived abroad for about ten years, my brother moved back to his hometown.
- B) Towards the end of 1980, my brother left his hometown to live abroad for about ten years.
- C) In the late 1980s, my brother decided to live abroad and left his hometown, but he came back after about ten years.
- D) All through the ten years he lived abroad during the 1980s, my brother was always thinking of moving back to his hometown.
- E) My brother lived abroad for nearly ten years until, at around the end of 1980, he returned to live in his hometown.

80- This is the first time our daughter has been away from us for such a long time.

- A) Our daughter has never been away from us for so long before.
- B) Our daughter never stays away from us for a long time.
- C) We have never let our daughter stay away from us for so long before.
- D) For the first time in years, our daughter will be living away from us.
- E) For a long time, our daughter did not want to live away from us.

81- At this time tomorrow, hopefully, I'll be relaxing at home rather than working this hard.

- A) I hope that, instead of working so hard at this time tomorrow, I'll be at home resting.
- B) Resting at home is something I hope to be coming at this time tomorrow, but I'll probably be working quite hard instead.
- C) Tomorrow, rather than relaxing at home as I'd hoped to do, I'll be working quite hard.
- D) I'm planning to relax at home tomorrow, instead of working so hard.
- E) I'd really rather have a rest at home tomorrow, but this just doesn't seem possible.

82- Public education is so good in European countries that there is almost no demand for private schools.

- A) Even the excellence of public education in Europe does not stop people from sending their children to private schools.
- B) People still send their children to private schools in Europe although the public education system is excellent.
- C) The increased demand for private schools in Europe is due to the deteriorating state of public education.
- D) In Europe, there is no reason for parents to send their children to private schools because state schools are so good.
- E) Hardly anyone sends their children to private schools in Europe because state schools are excellent.

83- I really doubt that you'll be able to get the support of all the members.

- A) I'm sure you'll only get the support of a few members.
- B) It seems to me that none of the members will support you.
- C) I'm almost certain there will be members who won't give you their support.
- D) I have no doubt that you'll be able to get the support of all the members.
- E) Some members are doubtful, but most of them will support you.

84- When we arrived at the party after our car broke down on the way, there weren't many people left.

- A) Because we had car trouble on the way to the party, many people grew tired of waiting and left before we arrived there.
- B) Our car broke down on the way to the party and by the time we got there, most of the guests had already left.
- C) Not many people had left the party yet when we got there, although we were late because of a car problem on the way.
- D) When we arrived at the party after we had had car trouble on the way there, hardly anyone had left yet.
- E) Since we were late getting to the party because our car had broken down, most of the other guests had already arrived.

85- She had to buy a new battery for her mobile phone because the charge was unable to last for more than two hours.

- A) She had to charge a new battery for her mobile phone because the old one only lasted for a little over two hours.
- B) Because she charged her new mobile phone battery for only two hours, the charge did not last very long.
- C) Her mobile phone couldn't hold a charge for more than two hours, so she had to buy a new battery.
- D) The charge on her mobile phone only lasts for two hours, so she has to charge it very often.
- E) The new battery she bought for her mobile phone would not hold a charge for longer than two hours.

86- Ever since she saw a documentary about Cappadocia, she has dreamed of visiting its famous rock churches.

- A) Her dream has always been to see Cappadocia's famous rock churches and make a documentary about them.
- B) She watched a documentary on Cappadocia, and from then on, her wish has been to see its famous rock churches.
- C) Whenever she watches a documentary about Cappadocia, she dreams of visiting the famous rock churches there.
- D) Long ago she saw a documentary on Cappadocia, and when recently she went to visit its famous rock churches, she realized her long-held dream.
- E) She has frequently had documentary-like dreams about visiting the famous rock churches of Cappadocia.

87- The dry weather during the winter meant that there was not enough water for us during the summer.

- A) We spent the summer suffering from a shortage of water, though we had had plenty of rain during the winter.
- B) The reason why we're suffering from a water shortage this summer is the dry spell last winter.
- C) Whenever there was a long dry spell in winter, there was a shortage of water in summer.
- D) We haven't had much rain so far, and this means that we will be short of water this summer.
- E) We were short of water in the summer because of the lack of rain in the winter.

88- The police officer shot the criminal because he refused to put down his weapon and surrender.

- A) The criminal didn't listen to the warning to drop his gun and surrender, so the police officer shot him.
- B) The police officer was about to shoot at the criminal, but just then, he put down his gun and surrendered.
- C) The police officer didn't realize that the criminal had dropped his weapon and was surrendering, so he shot him.
- D) The police officer saw the criminal put down his weapon and surrender, but he shot him anyway.
- E) The criminal dropped his weapon as he was surrendering, so he definitely didn't shoot the police officer.

89- She will have the baby in January, but the baby won't have its own room until they move into their new house in March.

- A) They are going to move into a new house in January so that the baby can have its own room when it is born in March.
- B) When the baby is born in March, it will have its own room because they are moving into a bigger house in January.
- C) Because they will have moved into a bigger house by March, the baby will have its own room as soon as it is born.

- D) When they move into the new house in March, two months after the baby is born, there will be a separate room for the baby.
- E) They will not move into the new house in January because they want to wait until after the baby is born in March.

90- As soon as she walked in through the front door, Susan got the feeling that she was not alone in the house.

- A) While Susan was walking in through the front door of the house, the person already inside left through another.
- B) Susan felt that there was someone else in the house the moment she came in by the front door.
- C) Since she wasn't alone in the house, Susan had a feeling that she shouldn't have gone in through the front door.
- D) Although there was no one in the house when Susan walked in the front door, she realized that someone had been there.
- E) Even though there was no one else in the house, Susan was afraid to walk in through the front door.

91- While she was writing a novel set in ancient Rome, she visited Italy in order to do some research.

- A) While she was visiting Italy, she decided to write a novel set in ancient Rome.
- B) She wanted to do some research about the book she was writing on ancient Italy, so she went to Rome.
- C) She read a novel about ancient Rome while she was doing research in Italy.
- D) The novel she read was set in ancient Rome and the research inspired her to visit Italy.
- E) She went to Italy for research since she was writing a novel that takes place in ancient Rome.

92- Though Goran's never played tennis well, last night he was worse than ever.

- A) Goran played absolutely terrible in last night's tennis match, so now it's clear that he's a bad player.
- B) Goran's performance last night was his worst one so far, but he's never been a good tennis player.
- C) While Goran's certainly not a very good tennis player, last night he played less badly than before.
- D) The horrible performance that Goran gave in tennis last night established him as the worst player there.
- E) It was very surprising how badly Goran played last night, as he's always been a decent tennis player.

93- It's nearly sunset now and I still haven't eaten anything since breakfast.

- A) There hasn't been time to eat anything since breakfast, and now it's almost sunset.
- B) It is not a good idea to go from breakfast to sunset without eating anything.
- C) I generally don't eat anything between breakfast and sunset, as is the case today.
- D) I'm getting hungry because it's almost evening and I haven't even eaten breakfast today.
- E) Breakfast was the last thing that I ate and the sun will be setting soon.

94- The taxi driver ignored the stop sign, so it was only natural that he crashed his vehicle.

- A) Since he paid no attention to the stop sign, it is not surprising that the taxi driver had an accident.
- B) Naturally, the taxi driver nearly had an accident after he had disregarded the stop sign.
- C) The taxi driver probably crashed his car because he was foolish enough to ignore the stop sign.
- D) The taxi driver always has accidents because he never pays any attention to stop signs.
- E) As he had completely disregarded the stop sign, the taxi driver was lucky to avoid crashing his car.

95- The price of orange juice has doubled due to cold weather in the orange-growing regions.

- A) The 100% increase in demand in the orange-growing areas, as well as cold weather, has affected orange juice prices.
- B) The orange-growing regions of the world have suffered greatly from cold weather and a doubling of prices.
- C) As a result of cold weather in the areas that grow oranges, orange juice now costs twice what it did before.
- D) When the weather in the regions that grow oranges gets cold, orange juice prices tend to rise by 100%.
- E) Before the cold weather hit the orange-growing areas, the price of orange juice was twice what it is now.

96- The meteorologist has just said that it will rain heavily all next week.

- A) The meteorologist has stated that it will continue raining heavily for most of the coming week.
- B) I agree with the meteorologist's prediction that it will continue raining heavily until next week.
- C) There is going to be a lot of rain until next week, if the meteorologist's forecast proves correct.
- D) As the meteorologist has pointed out, it has been raining heavily since the beginning of the week.
- E) Throughout the coming week, according to the meteorologist, there is going to be heavy rain.

97- The hotel had completely burned down by the time the firefighters arrived.

- A) Nothing but the arrival of the firefighters was able to stop the hotel from completely burning down.
- B) The firefighters came too late to save the hotel from being entirely destroyed by the fire.
- C) Not enough firefighters were present to prevent the building from total destruction.
- D) The firefighters bravely fought against the fire, but they couldn't stop the hotel from burning down.
- E) The firefighters came just in time to prevent the hotel from burning down completely.

98- Our university's administration has recently announced that it will build a new campus in Bloomington.

- A) According to a recent announcement by our university's administration, Bloomington needs the building of a new campus there.
- B) The plan to build a new campus in Bloomington has, according to a recent statement, received approval from our university's administration.
- C) The construction of the new Bloomington campus has not yet begun, as the administration of our university recently announced.
- D) The administration of our university is going to construct a new campus in Bloomington, according to an announcement it's made recently.
- E) We didn't know where the new campus in Bloomington was going to be until the administration of our university made an announcement.

99- I had been planning to visit Haiti until the military coup made it too dangerous.

- A) I almost cancelled my trip to Haiti when the military coup came to power, as it could have been too dangerous.
- B) Though a dangerous military coup came to power in Haiti, I was still planning to visit the country.
- C) It seemed as if my trip to Haiti was going to be risky because of the military coup that had come to power.
- D) There was a military coup in Haiti that made the country very dangerous, but I was still eager to visit.
- E) As it became too unsafe in Haiti when the military coup came to power, I cancelled my plan to travel there.

100- During the next decade, the population of Chicago will probably drop by at least a quarter of a million people.

- A) It is very likely that Chicago's population will go down by no fewer than 250,000 people in the next ten years.
- B) Generally speaking, the population of Chicago tends to fall by approximately a quarter of a million people every ten years.
- C) The population of Chicago will almost certainly drop by at least 250,000 people yearly for the next ten years.
- D) At least a quarter of a million people have left Chicago in ten years, and they will probably continue to do so.
- E) Ten years from now, Chicago's population will definitely have dropped by more than 250,000 people.

MODAL REVISION (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)

- 1- Because it was pouring down so intensely, I had to pull over the car and wait for the rain to get lighter.
- A) The rain intensified just as I was about to start the journey, so I decided to wait until it got lighter.
 - B) I was lucky that the rain had become less intense by the time I had to leave, because I couldn't have waited.
 - C) I had to pull the car to the side of the road for some reason, but just then, the rain started to get more and more intense.
 - D) The heavy downpour made it impossible for me to continue driving, so I had to stop and wait until it became less intense.
 - E) I shouldn't have kept driving ignoring the heavy downpour, as the vision was poor and I very nearly drove off the road.
- 2- Generous people prefer giving to receiving.
- A) People who are generous would rather give than receive.
 - B) People in general should give more and receive less.
 - C) Generous people don't like receiving gifts, but they like giving them.
 - D) More people ought to buy things for other people as well as for themselves.
 - E) Generous people feel that they have to think of others as well as themselves.
- 3- He can't have read the report prior to the meeting because he didn't know anything about the project.
- A) He needn't have read the report, but he didn't know they weren't going to talk about the new project.
 - B) It was clear that he hadn't read the report before the meeting as he knew nothing about the project.
 - C) They didn't talk about the project in the meeting, so he needn't have read the report anyway.
 - D) He didn't read the report before the meeting because he didn't know that they were going to discuss the project.
 - E) He had to read the report carefully before the meeting because he knew nothing about the project.
- 4- He had better not forget my book today, or I'll never lend him anything again.
- A) I am angry with him because he keeps forgetting to bring my book back.
 - B) He was supposed to bring my book back today, but as usual he forgot it, so I'm no longer lending him anything.
 - C) I won't lend him anything in the future if he doesn't remember to bring my book today.
 - D) He's promised to bring my book back as soon as he gets better, but I can't believe him.
 - E) I think it will be better for me not to lend him any more books from now on.
- 5- Let's go out for a walk in the sunshine instead of sitting at home watching TV.
- A) Would you rather stay at home and watch TV or take a walk in the sunshine?
 - B) Rather than watching TV here at home, why don't we go out and take a walk in this nice, sunny weather?
 - C) We wouldn't be at home watching TV if the weather was nice; instead, we could go out and take a walk.
 - D) I wouldn't mind taking a walk as I find staying at home boring especially in this sunny weather.
 - E) I would much sooner be outside in the sunshine than be here at home just watching TV.
- 6- The shoes you bought may be a fashionable style, but they are not at all appropriate for school.
- A) You shouldn't have chosen these shoes because the school will not allow you to wear them.
 - B) You are not going to a fashion show but to school, so take those shoes off and put on a pair suitable for school.
 - C) Next time you go shopping, I'll come with you and help you choose shoes more suitable for school.

- D) Buying these shoes was a mistake, as they are neither fashionable nor suitable for school.
- E) You have chosen a pair of shoes, stylish though they are, totally unsuitable for school.

7- It was only towards the end of the sixth month in her swimming course that she could swim across the pool.

- A) She'd been taking swimming lessons for almost six months by the time she was able to swim across the pool.
- B) She found it difficult to swim across the pool even after six months of swimming lessons.
- C) She should never have expected to learn how to swim across the pool in a period of less than six months.
- D) She was unable to swim across the pool despite having taken swimming lessons for six months.
- E) Because she had only taken swimming lessons for six months, she had difficulty swimming across the pool.

8- We can't change the date of our party because the hotel has reservations for every other day this week.

- A) We should have decided earlier which date we wanted our party because now the hotel has bookings for the whole week.
- B) We'll either cancel the reservation or hold the party at the weekend because the hotel is full on weekdays.
- C) As the hotel is fully booked for all the other days this week, to change the date of our party is out of the question.
- D) We could have changed the date of the party if we had decided earlier and told the hotel which day we wanted.
- E) The hotel should have told us that we couldn't change the date of our party once we had booked it.

9- The parents needn't have given their children any money as the school paid the museum entrance fee.

- A) The parents didn't give their children any money because they knew the school was going to pay for them to go into the museum.
- B) The school had to pay for the children to go into the museum as their parents hadn't given them any money.
- C) The school paid the children's entrance fees so that the parents didn't have to give their children any money.
- D) The school paid the entrance fee of the museum for the children, so the parents had given them some money unnecessarily.
- E) The school didn't have to pay the entrance fee of the museum for all the children as some parents had given their children some money.

10- We'll have nowhere to stay if we can't find a new flat by the end of this month, when our contract is due.

- A) I don't think we'll be able to find a new flat by the end of this month, and then we won't have anywhere to stay.
- B) Our contract will be over at the end of this month, so we'll have to find a new flat by then, we don't want to be homeless.
- C) We only have one month to evacuate this flat and move into a new one, because our contract is due to end at the end of this month.
- D) We don't have to start looking for a new flat just yet, because our contract is valid until the end of this month.
- E) If we have to evacuate this flat at the end of this month, then we have one month ahead of us to look for a new one.

11- As a child, I used to believe that the old woman who lived in the cottage in the woods was a witch.

- A) The old woman who lives in the cottage in the woods is very scary because she looks just like a witch.
- B) I was terrified to hear that the old woman who lived in the cottage in the woods was a witch as a child.
- C) The old woman who lives in the cottage in the woods used to say she was a witch, but I didn't believe her.
- D) As a child, whenever I saw an old woman living in a cottage in the woods, I used to think that she was a witch.
- E) When I was young, there was an old woman living in the cottage in the woods, who, then I thought, was a witch.

12- He must have forgotten that today is my birthday.

- A) He'd forgotten about my birthday, so I had to remind him.
- B) I'm really cross at his forgetting my birthday today.
- C) He'll probably remember later in the day that today is my birthday.
- D) It is highly likely that he hasn't remembered that it's my birthday today.
- E) I don't think he'll remember that today is my birthday.

13- Airmail service, including parcels, is available at relatively low cost throughout the world.

- A) You can send letters and parcels to your relatives by air wherever they are in the world, and it'll cost you very little.
- B) Choose airmail service for your post and parcels if it is available to where your relatives live because it is not as expensive as generally considered.
- C) It's possible to send your post as well as your parcels everywhere in the world by air, and it isn't expensive at all.
- D) Airmail service is available for letters throughout the world, but not for parcels as the cost is relatively high for them.
- E) The postage you'll pay to send your mail and parcels by air varies depending on where in the world you're sending them.

14- I doubt that he realised the importance of the situation despite your excellent explanation.

- A) You should have found a better way to explain the importance of the situation to him.
- B) Although you explained it perfectly, he might still not have understood how important the situation is.
- C) In spite of your perfect explanation, he seemed doubtful about whether the situation was indeed so important.
- D) I admit that you explained the situation excellently, but he couldn't understand it.
- E) You couldn't have explained the importance of the situation any better, but he still didn't understand it.

15- Would you mind if I used your mobile phone to tell my mother about my exam results?

- A) Do you think I should telephone my mother and tell her that I passed all my exams?
- B) My mother will be happy to hear that I passed all my exams. Can I use your mobile to phone her?
- C) Have you got your mobile with you as I need to phone my mother and tell her about my exam results?
- D) Is it all right with you if I telephone my mother on your mobile to tell her about my exam results?
- E) Would you mind telephoning my mother on your mobile and telling her about my exam results?

16- Everyone should save water as it is not only economical but also resourceful.

- A) All of us must have used less water as we have saved a lot of money on our water bill.
- B) Every person must try to use less water not in order to save money but to save valuable resources.
- C) Everybody ought to save water because by doing so, they will save both money and this resource.
- D) Using less water should be everybody's concern as it saves valuable resources.
- E) Someone must have used a lot of water as our water has cost more than usual.

17- I will let you take the dog for a walk, but you are not to take off its lead at any time.

- A) I will allow you to walk the dog; however, you must not take his lead off at all.
- B) Our dog should not be let off his lead at any time, so you can't take it for a walk.
- C) We used to take off the dog's lead during walks, but now I find it dangerous.
- D) You were supposed to take the dog's lead off while you were walking it.
- E) I won't let you take the dog for a walk until you promise not to let it loose.

18- You might have difficulty finding the files for some of these customers on the list, so ask me if you need any help.

- A) Perhaps you would have found it easier to work on these customer files if you had asked for my assistance.
- B) I could have helped you find the files on these customers, but I didn't know you were having trouble.
- C) You were supposed to find the files on all of these customers on your own, but you heeded my help when you had trouble.
- D) Ask me if you require assistance as it is possible that you won't find all these customers' files easily.
- E) You must have had difficulty finding the files on some of these customers, but you should have asked for help.

19- If you would prefer us not to supply an alarm with the vehicle, we can provide cheaper price.

- A) I'm afraid we cannot supply an alarm with the vehicle at such a cheap price.
- B) We would much rather supply an alarm with the vehicle, but this, of course, increases the price.
- C) Would you like us to supply an alarm with the vehicle, which we will be able to include in our price?
- D) As you've asked us to supply an alarm with the vehicle, you'll have to pay extra money for that.
- E) We can give you a better price if you would rather we didn't supply the vehicle with an alarm.

20- If we can get a baby-sitter on Saturday, let's go for a meal at that Italian restaurant by the river.

- A) We should have got a baby-sitter on Saturday, so we could have gone for an Italian meal by the river.
- B) Why don't we eat at that Italian restaurant by the river on Saturday if we can find someone to look after the baby?
- C) Shall we ask our baby-sitter to stay up for Saturday night so that we can go to that Italian restaurant by the river?
- D) We needn't have hired someone to look after the baby on Saturday, as we didn't go to the Italian restaurant by the river after all.
- E) We were able to get someone to look after the baby on Saturday, so we went to the Italian restaurant by the river.

21- I've just learned from the doctor that Peter has to stay in hospital until they remove his stitches.

- A) According to what the doctor has just told me, Peter can only leave the hospital after they have taken his stitches out.
- B) The doctor has just informed me that Peter wants to leave the hospital as soon as they have taken his stitches out.
- C) According to the doctor, they might allow Peter to go home from the hospital when they have taken his stitches out.
- D) As far as I know, the doctors ought to have taken his stitches out before they allowed Peter to leave the hospital.
- E) I know that Peter has to stay in hospital a little longer because the doctors still haven't taken his stitches out.

22- Rather than buying curtains, why don't we make them ourselves?

- A) I would rather buy some curtains than make my own.
- B) Would you rather buy curtains or make them yourself?
- C) Let's make our own curtains instead of buying some ready-made ones.

- D) I wouldn't mind making our own curtains, if you don't want to buy any.
- E) Do you think we can manage to make our own curtains or should we buy them?

23- We used to walk around the shopping centre for ages doing nothing but window shopping when we were teenagers.

- A) When we were teenagers, we went to the shopping-centre very often but rarely bought anything.
- B) It used to take us hours to decide what to buy at the shopping-centre when we were teenagers.
- C) For ages, window-shopping at big centres has always been quite exciting for teenagers.
- D) As teenagers, we would spend hours at the shopping-centre just looking in the shop windows.
- E) I shouldn't have spent so many hours window-shopping when I was a teenager.

24- It is impossible for us to give you a further discount on this price.

- A) We can only offer you another small discount on this price, and that's all.
- B) There is no way we can reduce this price further.
- C) We shouldn't have reduced the price so much.
- D) Seeing as you can't afford it, we'll have to drop our price.
- E) I can assure you that our price is the lowest you will find anywhere.

25- You ought to have asked for the departure times of the trains yesterday.

- A) You shouldn't have left home yesterday without knowing the departure times for trains.
- B) It was a mistake on your part not to have found out departure times for trains yesterday.
- C) You were supposed to find out the departure times for trains yesterday, not today.
- D) You couldn't have learned the departure times for trains yesterday even if you'd tried to.
- E) They ought to have told you the train times yesterday when you asked them.

26- He had better hand me his report today, or I'll inform the manager.

- A) The manager ought to deal with employees who fail to give me their reports.
- B) He was supposed to hand me his report today, but he didn't, so I've told the manager.
- C) I had no alternative but to tell the manager because he failed to give me his report again.
- D) I would rather not inform the manager, but I think I have to because he won't give me his report today.
- E) I'll let the manager know if he fails to give me his report today.

27- Would you mind if I picked you up half an hour later?

- A) I won't be able to get there to pick you up for half an hour.
- B) Would you pick me up thirty minutes later than usual, if you don't mind?
- C) If that's all right with you, can I pick you up thirty minutes later?
- D) Can I collect you in half an hour if that won't make you late for work?
- E) Do you want me to pick you up in half an hour?

28- He must have been on his way to class, otherwise, he would have stopped to chat.

- A) I'm pretty sure he was on his way to his lesson and couldn't stop to talk.
- B) I saw him on his way to his lesson, but he still had time to stop and talk.
- C) I saw him going to his lesson, but, instead of stopping to chat, he ignored me.
- D) If he had been on his way to class, he wouldn't have stopped for a chat.
- E) He is always late for his lessons and never has time to stop to chat.

29- It is possible that he hurt your feelings unintentionally.

- A) You may not have heard him properly
- B) He might not have meant to hurt your feelings.
- C) He should have told you about that without hurting your feelings
- D) He couldn't have explained this without hurting your feelings.
- E) As far as I can see, he hurt your feelings deeply, though not on purpose.

30- However worthless they may seem to most of us, antique hand-crafted buttons are avidly collected by enthusiasts.

- A) In the opinion of many, collecting antique hand-crafted buttons is a complete waste of time.
- B) Many of us may not be aware of the value of hand-crafted buttons; however, enthusiasts spend a fortune on them.
- C) It is surprising how many people are enthusiastically taking up the hobby of hand-crafted button collecting.
- D) Collectors enthusiastically make antique hand-crafted button collections despite their apparent worthlessness to most of us.
- E) I think most people would agree that making a worthwhile collection of handcrafted buttons takes enthusiasm.

31- Would you mind if I borrowed your car to take my sick friend to the hospital?

- A) Do you think I should drive my friend to the hospital? He seems very ill.
- B) Would you give us a lift in your car to the hospital as my friend is very ill?
- C) Did you bring your car, because I need to take my sick friend to the hospital?
- D) Will you give me your permission to take my sick friend to the hospital in your car?
- E) Do you think I should borrow a car and take my sick friend to the hospital?

32- In spite of the many news reports, I am not sure he understands the gravity of what has happened.

- A) The news reports have emphasized how serious the situation is, but he does not care at all.
- B) Had it not been for the news reports, he would not have realised how serious the situation actually is.
- C) Although what has occurred has been in the news a lot, I doubt that he is aware of its seriousness.
- D) I feel sure that he would understand the seriousness of the situation if the news reports were more complete.
- E) No matter how well the news reports put it across, he is incapable of understanding how serious this is.

33- Private parcel delivery services provide a faster and more secure alternative to postal services around the world, but they are relatively expensive.

- A) International postal services are facing stiff competition from private parcel delivery services, so they have lowered their prices in response.
- B) Although postal services around the world are cheaper, parcels have a better chance of arriving more quickly and securely through private parcel delivery services.
- C) While it is more expensive to use local postal services, privatised parcel delivery services are faster and more secure.
- D) Private parcel delivery services, with their faster, more economical and more efficient delivery, are driving postal services out of business all over the world.
- E) You can use a normal postal service for your parcels, or alternatively, if you are willing to take a chance and wait a little longer, you can use a private parcel delivery service.

34- He must have changed his phone number because I can't get hold of him.

- A) He could have changed his phone number after I last got in touch with him.
- B) He had to change his phone number because I couldn't get through to his old one.
- C) It is possible that he'll change his phone number, but I won't know for sure until I talk to him.
- D) He should have changed his phone number because no one could get in touch with him.
- E) I am unable to get in contact with him, so it is highly likely that he has a new phone number.

35- As a student, I used to think that all my teachers wanted me to fail.

- A) In spite of being a good student, I did badly because of the attitude of my teachers.
- B) I was such a bad student that I got used to thinking that all my teachers wanted me to fail.
- C) Though it sometimes seemed that all my teachers wanted me to fail, I knew that it was not true.
- D) When I was a student, I held the belief that none of my teachers wanted to see me succeed.
- E) During my time as a student I was confident of passing despite the attitude of my teachers.

36- In order to be able to hand your essay in tomorrow, you had better stop making notes now and start typing.

- A) Why don't you type your essay directly, without taking notes, if you are to hand it in tomorrow?
- B) If you had wanted to finish your essay in time to hand in, you should have finished your note-taking yesterday.
- C) I guess you stopped taking notes and started typing your essay in order to be able to get it ready for tomorrow.
- D) It is time to stop note-taking and start typing; otherwise, you won't be able to give your essay in tomorrow.
- E) You don't need to stop writing notes and start typing yet as you can explain tomorrow why you haven't finished it.

37- It was not necessary for me to study as hard as I actually did for the exam because it was easier than I expected.

- A) I must not have studied as hard as I thought I did because the exam did not seem easy.
- B) Having hardly studied for the exam, I was hoping that it would be easier than they usually were.
- C) I didn't use to study very hard for my exams because I usually found them so easy.
- D) Because I knew the exam was going to be easy, I studied very little for it.
- E) The exam was not as difficult as I had anticipated, so I needn't have studied so hard for it.

38- This can't be the house I grew up in because I don't recognise anything.

- A) I should have come here to find my home before it changed so much and there were still familiar things.
- B) It is not possible that this is the house where I spent my childhood as nothing is familiar to me.
- C) As this is the house where I was raised, I am surprised that I recognise so little.
- D) I am unable to tell if this is my childhood home or not because so much is unfamiliar.
- E) I can tell that this used to be my home when I was a child, even though everything is so different now.

39- It was only after he had lived in Egypt for five years that he was able to read the newspapers without much difficulty.

- A) Although he had lived in Egypt for five years, he was still unable to decipher the articles in the newspapers.
- B) While he could read the newspapers after five years in Egypt, he was still having great difficulty understanding them.
- C) In spite of only having lived in Egypt for five years, he was able to read the main headings of the newspapers.
- D) He had lived in Egypt for five years before he could understand the newspapers without finding it very difficult.
- E) His ability to read the newspapers was impressive for someone who had only lived in Egypt for five years.

40- Going into a house with your shoes on may be acceptable in the West, but it isn't in most of the East.

- A) Though Westerners usually enter a house with their shoes on, they are careful not to do so if they are in the East.
- B) You should remember when visiting the East that customs like not wearing footwear inside a home are very important.
- C) The Western custom of going into a house wearing shoes is unacceptable in the majority of Eastern societies.
- D) You should not wear shoes inside a house in some countries no matter how normal it might seem in your own country.
- E) Though no one can explain why it is inappropriate to wear shoes inside a house in the East, Westerners should remember not to do it.

41- Let's take a taxi instead of walking home even though it is expensive.

- A) I wouldn't mind spending the extra money and going home by taxi although it is a nice walk.
- B) Rather than spending the money on a taxi, why don't we walk home instead?
- C) If we had enough money, we wouldn't have to walk home; instead, we could take a taxi.
- D) In spite of the expense, I would rather we took a taxi home than walked.
- E) Should we take a taxi despite the expense, or should we walk home?

42- It is possible that this will be your last opportunity if you do not do well on the report.

- A) I think it is better if you don't get another chance to do a report after the last one.
- B) You will only get another chance if you have done your best on this report.
- C) As soon as you are better, you will get another chance to do a good report.
- D) You must have done a good report as you know that you will never get another chance, if you haven't.
- E) You had better do a good job on the report, or you may never get another chance.

43- You can't have written this paper yourself because the English is perfect.

- A) You did not write the paper in perfect English because you are not able to.
- B) The English in this paper is so good that I know you must have worked hard on it.
- C) It is not possible for this paper to be your own work because you are unable to write such flawless English.
- D) You must not have worked very hard on this paper, or the English would have been perfect.
- E) No one would have thought that you were capable of writing such good English.

44- It must have been a terrific feeling when you heard about your lottery win.

- A) I'm sure you felt great upon learning that you were the winner of the lottery.
- B) I can imagine how you felt when you learned that you had almost won the lottery.
- C) I guess your first feeling was fear when you heard about winning the lottery.
- D) You should have felt better about all the money you won from the lottery.
- E) You ought to have chosen different numbers if you wanted to win the lottery.

45- You had better wait for the rain to stop before you leave, or you might catch cold.

- A) It is so cold and rainy that it would be a good idea for us not to leave just now.
- B) It's likely that you'll catch cold in this rain, so you shouldn't leave until it stops.
- C) You will certainly get cold and wet if you go out into this rain.
- D) Do you really think it is a good idea to risk catching a chill in this rain?
- E) It is too cold to go out and it might rain, so I think you should wait before you leave.

46- Someone within the company should be responsible for export orders.

- A) There is a member of staff whose sole responsibility is export orders.
- B) Surely, someone in the company ought to have been in charge of export business.
- C) Someone from the company is responsible for orders from overseas.
- D) A member of staff ought to be in charge of dealing with the company's orders from overseas.
- E) Isn't there anybody responsible for export business in the company?

47- The pastries in the kitchen are for Simon's visitors, so you are not to eat any of them.

- A) The pastries in the kitchen may not be sufficient for Simon's guests, so don't touch any of them.
- B) You'll have to wait until Simon's guests have arrived if you want to eat some of the pastries in the kitchen.
- C) You must not eat any of the pastries in the kitchen because they are for Simon's guests.
- D) I can give you some of those pastries in the kitchen if there is any left after Simon's guests have eaten.
- E) I made those pastries in the kitchen because Simon is expecting some guests today.

48- You might feel dizzy for a while after this vaccination, so we suggest you sit down for half an hour.

- A) We recommend that you sit down for half an hour after this vaccination because it's possible that you'll experience some dizziness following it.
- B) You are advised to sit down for thirty minutes after the vaccination; otherwise, you will certainly experience dizziness.
- C) You should sit down for thirty minutes after the vaccination in order to avoid dizziness.
- D) The reason why you are now feeling dizzy is that you didn't sit down for half an hour after the vaccination as we had recommended.
- E) You experienced dizziness following the vaccination because you didn't follow our recommendation of sitting down for thirty minutes.

49- I can check the availability for you if you would prefer a later flight.

- A) If you would rather fly at a later time, I can look whether that is possible.
- B) Unfortunately, there are no available seats on the later flights.
- C) It might have been possible to fly later in the day, but you didn't request us to check.
- D) We would rather not travel so early, if there are later alternatives.
- E) Would you like us to book this flight for you as there are no later options?

50- When we go to Australia for three months, we had better hire a gardener for our garden here.

- A) We'll have to hire a professional to do our garden every time we go to Australia for three months or more.
- B) Someone professional is going to look after our garden here until we come back from Australia in three months' time.
- C) I'm glad we've decided to employ a gardener for our garden here when we go to Australia for three months.
- D) Only a professional gardener can look after our garden well while we are away in Australia for three months.
- E) We ought to arrange for someone professional to look after our garden here while we are in Australia for three months.

51- Because the weather is so superb, let's take the bus to the woods and picnic on the grass in the clearing.

- A) Shall we catch the bus to the clearing in the forest after we have had our lunch as it is such a nice day?
- B) Do you think the weather is nice enough for us to take the bus to the clearing in the forest and eat our lunch there?
- C) Because the weather is so hot today, why don't we catch the bus to the forest where we can picnic in the shade of the trees?
- D) Would you like to take a picnic with us in the forest today if it gets warm enough to sit on the grass and eat?
- E) Why don't we catch the bus to the forest and have a picnic in the grassy clearing as it is such a wonderful day?

52- You should have checked with your doctor before you started such a strict diet.

- A) You needn't have asked your doctor's permission before starting your strict diet.
- B) I can't believe that you're continuing such a strict diet despite your doctor's advice against it.
- C) Your doctor might have advised you against dieting so intensely.
- D) It was a mistake on your part not to have sought the opinion of your doctor before dieting so intensely.
- E) You can't start such a strict diet before you have spoken to your doctor.

53- Gill has to retake her Turkish test even though she failed by just one percent.

- A) As Gill's mark was only one percent below the pass mark, she didn't have to retake her Turkish test.
- B) Gill could have passed her Turkish test if she had worked a little harder because she failed by only one percent.
- C) Gill wasn't able to pass her Turkish test, but she was only one percent away from a pass.
- D) Gill has to work harder if she is to pass her Turkish test the second time, having failed by one percent on her first attempt.
- E) Although Gill's mark was just one percent under the pass mark, she has to take her Turkish test again.

54- Believe it or not, people used to fish in this river.

- A) It is hard to imagine, but there was a time when people caught fish in this river.
- B) I don't believe that people once fished in this river.
- C) There used to be a surprising amount of fish in this river.
- D) No one believed that people had once fished along this part of the river.
- E) This river is far more polluted than it was when we used to fish in it.

55- There is no way we can allow you to keep pets in this house.

- A) We would prefer you not to keep animals in the house.
- B) It is impossible for us to permit you to have animals in the house.
- C) We would rather you didn't keep animals in the house.
- D) We might be able to permit you to keep a pet in the house.
- E) I'm not sure whether you would be permitted to keep a pet in the house.

56- Rather than spend any more of our holiday on cramped buses, why don't we hire a car?

- A) Hiring a car is another holiday option to travelling around on crowded buses.
- B) Let's hire a car for the rest of our vacation instead of travelling any more on crowded buses.
- C) I would rather not hire a car for this holiday unless the buses are overcrowded.
- D) We have decided to hire a car for the rest of our holiday because the buses are very crowded.
- E) We could have hired a car for the rest of our holiday, but we are travelling around on crowded buses instead.

57- They had better make some improvements to the level of care, or my mother will transfer to another nursing home.

- A) My mother will move to a different nursing home unless they improve the standard of care.
- B) They should make some improvements to the standard of care at the nursing home to which my mother has been transferred.
- C) Because they are not improving the standard of their care, my mother is transferring to a different nursing home.
- D) My mother has no other alternative than to move to another nursing home because the level of care in the one she is in has dropped.
- E) My mother would rather stay in the nursing home now that they have improved the level of care.

58- Would you mind if I took my lunch break now?

- A) Why don't you allow me to take my lunch break now?
- B) Shouldn't you be taking your lunch break now?
- C) I'll go to lunch now, if it is all right with you.
- D) Would you mind taking your lunch break now?
- E) I would rather you took your lunch break now.

59- Jeff must have been disappointed with the result of the match; otherwise, he would have come to the cafe with us for a drink.

- A) We were disappointed that we lost the match, so we didn't go for a drink with Jeff afterwards.
- B) Jeff should have come for a drink in the cafe with us even though we lost the match.
- C) I was disappointed that Jeff didn't come to the cafe with us for a drink after the match that we'd lost.
- D) I'm certain that the result of the match was a disappointment to Jeff because he didn't join us for a drink in the cafe.
- E) Jeff was so disappointed with the result of the match that he refused to go to the cafe with us for a drink.

60- There was a universal feeling in the crowd that the Queen Mother's funeral service was respectful.

- A) Everyone at the Queen Mother's funeral service respected her.
- B) Some people among the mourners thought the Queen Mother's funeral lacked respect.
- C) The Queen Mother was universally respected, which was reflected in the funeral service.
- D) Everyone at the Queen Mother's funeral thought the service displayed respect.
- E) A large crowd gathered at the Queen Mother's funeral to pay their respects.

61- Would you mind if I placed this yoghurt in the office refrigerator until home time?

- A) Do you think it would be advisable to put this yoghurt in the office fridge until I leave work?
- B) Would you put this yoghurt in the office fridge until we leave this evening?
- C) Is there a refrigerator in the office so that I can keep this yoghurt fresh until I go home?
- D) Perhaps I had better put this yoghurt in the office fridge until this evening.
- E) Will you give me your permission to put this yoghurt in the office fridge until I leave work?

62- Countless wildflowers used to grow along the side of this field, but we no longer see any.

- A) Sometimes there are lots of wildflowers along the edge of this field and sometimes there aren't any at all.
- B) The last time I saw this field, I couldn't count the number of flowers growing wild along its edge, but now there aren't any at all.
- C) We don't see wildflowers along the edge of this field any more, but at one time, they were numerous.

- D) At certain times of the year, wildflowers grow in abundance all over this field, but at the moment, they are only around the edge.
- E) A long time ago, I saw countless wildflowers growing along the edge of this field, but soon they disappeared.

63- Even though the doctors had warned that they couldn't prevent her cancer spreading, it was hard for her family to understand that she would not recover.

- A) The doctors had told the family that they couldn't treat her cancer, but the family didn't even believe that she had cancer.
- B) It was difficult for her family to accept that her illness was terminal, despite being informed by her doctors that they couldn't stop the cancer developing further.
- C) Once the doctors had informed the family that there was nothing they could do about her cancer, they had to accept this.
- D) Although the doctors believed that her cancer was untreatable, her family never gave up hope that she would recover.
- E) Even though the doctors had hoped to prevent her cancer developing further, eventually her family had to accept that she might not recover.

64- Although people worry more about their homes being broken into, they stand more chance of being robbed in the street.

- A) Street robberies are more common than house break-ins; however, people worry more about the latter.
- B) Worryingly, people are less likely to be robbed in the street than they are to have their house broken into.
- C) People worry a lot about being robbed or having their house broken into, but the chances of these happening are quite remote.
- D) Statistically, more street robberies occur than house break-ins, which is a very worrying fact.
- E) Being robbed in the street must be much more distressing than having one's home broken into.

65- He must have obtained his degree at Oxford University, where he is teaching now.

- A) I think he studied for his degree at Oxford University, where he has applied for a teaching position.
- B) He had to get a degree in order to teach at Oxford University.
- C) Not only did he get his degree from Oxford University, but he also taught there.
- D) He may have studied for his doctorate at Oxford University, where he's been teaching for some time.
- E) At the moment, he's teaching at Oxford University, and I'm certain he achieved his degree there as well.

66- As a new mother, I used to enjoy watching my tiny baby sleep.

- A) Just after having become a mother, I could only enjoy myself while my baby was asleep.
- B) As a new mother, I liked to see the contented look on my baby's face when he was asleep.
- C) When I was a new mother, watching my little baby sleep would bring me pleasure.
- D) After the birth of my first child, nothing brought me more joy than rocking my baby to sleep.
- E) For me, one of the most enjoyable things about being a new mother was watching my tiny baby sleep.

67- You had better wash your purple dress today so that you can wear it to tomorrow evening's party.

- A) You should wash your purple dress because you might want to go to the party tomorrow evening.
- B) I'll wash your purple dress today in case you want to wear it to the party tomorrow.
- C) Why don't you wear your purple dress to tomorrow evening's party as it has been just washed.
- D) You could wear your purple dress to tomorrow evening's party, but you didn't wash it today.
- E) In order to be able to go to tomorrow evening's party in your purple dress, you should wash it today.

- 68- They left at the crack of dawn for London, although it had not been necessary as they didn't encounter any traffic problems.
- A) The roads must have been clear because they arrived in London at daybreak.
 - B) The roads were clear all the way to London, so they needn't have left at daybreak.
 - C) They used to leave for London as soon as it was light, but they don't now because most of the traffic problems have been solved.
 - D) They set off for London as soon as it was light in case they encountered some traffic congestion.
 - E) It was necessary to leave for London at daybreak because they could have been caught in traffic.
- 69- The man she was with at the party can't be her husband as he must be thirty years her junior.
- A) It isn't possible that the man she came to the party with is her husband as I am sure he is thirty years younger than her.
 - B) Don't you think the man she came to the party with looked at least thirty years younger than her?
 - C) How could she have married a man thirty years younger than her, the man we met at the party?
 - D) She has a new husband who is at least thirty years younger than her, and they were at the party together the other day.
 - E) Unbelievably, she married a man thirty years her junior and came to the party with him.
- 70- It was some time before the rescue team managed to reach the derailed train because of the dense forest.
- A) Despite the thick woodland, rescue workers arrived at the derailed train promptly.
 - B) It will be a long time before rescue teams reach the place where the train came off the tracks.
 - C) Because of the thick woodland, the rescue workers weren't able to reach the scene of the train crash.
 - D) Due to the thick woodland, there was some delay before rescue workers were able to reach the train that had come off the tracks.
 - E) Unfortunately, a train had become derailed in thick woodland, which was an awkward spot for rescue teams to reach.
- 71- You had better listen to the traffic reports on the radio, or you might get caught in a traffic jam.
- A) You should always listen to the travel information on the radio in order not to get caught in any heavy traffic.
 - B) You could have avoided the traffic congestion by listening to the road travel information on the radio.
 - C) A good way to avoid traffic problems is to listen to the travel information on the radio.
 - D) Travel news from local radio stations gives information to help you avoid congested areas.
 - E) It's possible that you'll run into traffic congestion, so you should listen to the traffic reports on the radio.
- 72- It must not have been easy to stop trading with your cousin.
- A) I'm sure to put an end to trading with your cousin was difficult.
 - B) I imagine you wanted to continue dealing with your cousin.
 - C) You ought not to have ceased business dealings with your cousin.
 - D) You had no other alternative than not to deal with your cousin any more.
 - E) It wasn't easy to decide not to deal with your cousin any more.
- 73- She can't have gone to J C Brierly High School because it wasn't built until 1982.
- A) It is unlikely that she attended J C Brierly High School because it was built a long time after 1982.
 - B) I don't think she attended J C Brierly High School because she graduated in 1982.
 - C) It is impossible that she attended J C Brierly High School as it didn't exist before 1982.
 - D) It seems possible that she attended J C Brierly High School, which was constructed in 1982.
 - E) No one would have thought her young enough to be a student at J C Brierly High School in 1982.
- 74- It's better if I send the package by private courier even though it is expensive.

- A) I wouldn't recommend a private parcel service because of the additional expense.
- B) The private parcel service will offer a more secure service, which obviously costs more.
- C) Do you think sending a parcel by independent parcel service is worth the additional expense?
- D) Don't you think the cost of sending this parcel by private courier is extremely high?
- E) Despite the high cost, I would rather send the parcel with a private courier.

75- Microwave-ready meals may be convenient, but they aren't very nourishing.

- A) Cooked microwave dishes provide both convenience and nourishment.
- B) Cooking food in a microwave oven is quick, but it destroys most of the vitamins found in food.
- C) Microwave cooking is a convenient way to cook healthy food.
- D) Although they offer convenience, prepared microwave meals lack nutrients.
- E) Heating food in a microwave is quick, but the results are not very satisfying.

PASSIVE VOICE REVISION (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)

1- Many English words are derived from Latin or Greek words.

- A) English people often use Latin and Greek words when speaking.
- B) The English language is a mixture of Latin and Greek.
- C) Most of the English words are a combination of Latin and Greek words.
- D) The origins of a lot of English words can be traced back to Latin or Greek.
- E) When there isn't an English word to describe something, English people often use Latin or Greek.

2- The link between smoking and cancer had never been acknowledged before this research.

- A) With the findings of this research, it was the first time anyone had acknowledged the link between smoking and cancer.
- B) Despite extensive research, the connection between smoking and cancer hadn't been proved.
- C) The connection between smoking and cancer hasn't been acknowledged yet, and it requires plenty of further research.
- D) The aim of the research was to find whether there was a link between smoking and cancer.
- E) No one has yet fully accepted that there is any connection between smoking and cancer.

3- The police kept the names of the suspects secret until after they'd arrested them.

- A) Although the police suspected certain people, they did not mention any names.
- B) The suspects didn't want their names broadcast until after they were in custody.
- C) The names of the suspects were not released by the police before their arrest.
- D) The police didn't know the names of the suspects before their arrest.
- E) Only after the suspects had been arrested did the secret become known to everybody.

4- A solution will never be found unless both parties discuss the problem openly.

- A) A solution can only result from both parties being satisfied with the conditions.
- B) Both sides must discuss the problem openly; otherwise, they will never be able to solve it.
- C) There is never going to be a solution because both sides will not discuss the problem openly.
- D) If one party does not turn up to the discussion, then it will be difficult to find a solution.
- E) After both sides have discussed the problem in detail, a solution will be found.

5- It is believed to be impolite to ask a man about his salary.

- A) Asking a man how much he earns is supposed to be impolite.
- B) A lot of people think a man should never be asked how much money he has.
- C) You should never ask a man how much he earns because he will think you are very rude.
- D) It is more impolite to ask a man how much he earns than it is to ask a woman.
- E) Asking a man about his salary is the easiest, but also the rudest, way to upset him.

6- It was not until the 20th century that the north and south poles were reached by human beings.

- A) Before the 20th century, there were no human beings living at the north and south poles.
- B) Many attempts were made to reach the north and south poles, but the first successful one was in the 20th century.
- C) Before the 20th century, human beings didn't know that the north and south poles existed.
- D) Man was only able to reach the north and south poles in the 20th century.
- E) Until the 20th century, man lacked the equipment for a safe exploration of the north and south poles.

7- Many rivers are getting more and more polluted due to our thoughtless disposal of industrial waste.

- A) A problem we should look at today is that many factories dispose of their waste by releasing it into nearby rivers, which causes pollution.
- B) Because we dispose of industrial waste without thinking of the consequences, pollution levels in many rivers are getting worse.
- C) The problem of river pollution should be given more thought; otherwise, it is only going to get worse.
- D) River pollution is a growing problem because industrial progress has meant that once clean rivers are now too dirty to swim or fish in.
- E) We cannot keep disposing of our industrial waste by pouring it into rivers, and therefore, another solution must be found.

8- The whole team were committed to the project and devoted their spare time to it.

- A) Everybody was very excited about the project and spent lots of time planning it.
- B) All the members of the team were dedicated people who worked very hard.
- C) Everyone in the team was committed to the project, but those with more free time worked harder.
- D) The success of the project depends on all the members of the team being committed and devoted.
- E) All the members of the team devoted themselves to the project and dedicated their free time to it.

9- It is claimed, but not proven, that watching violence on television affects children's behaviour.

- A) Parents should not let their children watch violence on television because it will have serious effects on their behaviour.
- B) Whether or not a child may be allowed to watch violence on television depends on how he reacts to it, but it is safer to restrict his viewing hours.
- C) Children's behaviour is claimed to be affected by watching violence on television, but this has not been proven.
- D) There are many experts who believe that some children are affected by watching violent films, while others are not.
- E) Studies carried out by a group of experts have proved that watching violence on television affects how children behave.

10- The new mayor of our town used to be a colleague of mine a long time ago.

- A) I worked for the new mayor of our town for a long time.
- B) The new mayor of our town was my colleague for a long time before he was elected.
- C) One of my colleagues from many years ago is the new mayor of our town.
- D) It's a long time that I have known the person who has just been elected as mayor of our town.
- E) Many years ago, one of my colleagues was the mayor of our town.

11- Many people think that Sue and Dave are divorced, but they are, in fact, only separated.

- A) Sue and Dave don't live with each other any more and a lot of people think that they are going to be divorced soon.
- B) It's widely believed that Sue and Dave are no longer married to each other; they are actually still married but living apart.
- C) Although Sue and Dave live apart from each other, the widespread belief among people is that they are still married.
- D) Sue and Dave told a lot of people that their marriage was over, but they haven't got divorced yet.
- E) Some people thought that Sue and Dave were going to get divorced, but actually they only decided to get separated for some time.

- 12- The Moon is the only body in the universe, other than the Earth, whose surface features have been mapped in detail.
- A) The Moon and the Earth are two of the cosmic objects which have been explored in detail by human beings,
 - B) When man landed on the Moon, it became possible to map its surface in almost as much detail as the Earth's.
 - C) Despite the many travels man has made into space so far, he has only been able to map the surface of the Moon in a similar way to the Earth's.
 - D) Apart from the Earth, the only cosmic object with detailed maps showing its surface features is the Moon.
 - E) The surface features of the Moon have been mapped in detail and found to be very similar to those of the Earth.
- 13- Someone should have warned us about the likelihood of being bitten by mosquitoes there at this time of year.
- A) We ought to have been warned that we were likely to be bitten by mosquitoes there at this time of year.
 - B) Before we can decide whether to go or not, we need to know if there will be mosquitoes there at this time of year.
 - C) We'd better ask someone there about the possibility of our contracting disease if we are bitten by mosquitoes.
 - D) We didn't know mosquitoes were such a problem at this time of year, so we haven't brought any mosquito repellent.
 - E) We made a big mistake by going there without asking anyone whether there were any mosquitoes there at this time of year.
- 14- Your salaries are going to be paid before the weekend.
- A) You'll have received your wages by the weekend.
 - B) We can only pay your salaries at the end of the week.
 - C) You should receive your wages sometime this week.
 - D) We're definitely paying your salaries at the weekend.
 - E) It doesn't seem possible for us to pay your salaries before the weekend.
- 15- Our Rotary Club finances the children's home annual outing every year.
- A) The expenses for the children's home this year will be financed by the Rotary Club.
 - B) The Rotary Club paid for the children's home, which has an outing every year.
 - C) The children's home yearly outing is always paid for by our Rotary Club.
 - D) The profit we get from the children's home yearly outing meets the expenses of our Rotary Club.
 - E) Because of their financial problems, the children's home yearly outing will be met by our Rotary Club.
- 16- This morning I drove past a pheasant, which had been run over.
- A) I passed a pheasant, which someone had run over, in my car this morning.
 - B) This morning I overtook the driver who had run over a pheasant in his car.
 - C) Unfortunately, I ran over a pheasant in my car this morning.
 - D) I couldn't avoid running over a pheasant, which appeared in front of me so suddenly, this morning.
 - E) I'm afraid I killed a pheasant this morning as I ran over it.
- 17- Due to a school boy's protests, a hazard warning sign has been erected at the point where ducks often cross the road.
- A) A school boy protested about the hazard warning sign, which had been put up at a place near a habitat of ducks.
 - B) They put up a hazard warning sign at the place which is frequently used by ducks to cross the road after the protests by a pupil.
 - C) A school boy suggests that the ducks could be protected if they put a hazard warning sign on the road.
 - D) A pupil from a nearby school put up a hazard warning sign at the side of the road in order to protect the ducks which often cross there.
 - E) The hazard warning sign was erected to warn the school boys not to disturb the ducks which live near the side of the road.
- 18- Not being selected for promotion disappointed him.

- A) He will be disappointed if he is not chosen for promotion.
- B) To his disappointment, they gave the manager's job to someone else.
- C) He was disappointed when he was not chosen for promotion.
- D) He wasn't promoted because his performance was so disappointing,
- E) His disappointment must have been connected with his colleague's promotion.

19- Despite being criticised by journalists, the Millennium Dome has attracted thousands of visitors.

- A) Thousands of people have visited the Millennium Dome even though journalists criticised it.
- B) The Millennium Dome had received thousands of visitors before journalists criticised it.
- C) Many of the visitors to the Millennium Dome have criticised it to journalists.
- D) The criticism of journalists dissuaded thousands of people from visiting the Millennium Dome.
- E) The Millennium Dome has been criticised by thousands of journalists who have visited it.

20- In England, as in Turkey, many surnames are derived from the skills and professions of ancestors.

- A) Most sons in England, as in Turkey, are named after their father's profession.
- B) Surnames in most countries, including England and Turkey, are based on the names of former skills and professions.
- C) Different from in Turkey, many of our ancestors in England were named after their skill or profession.
- D) Surnames in England can often be traced back to the skills and professions of ancestors, as is the case in Turkey.
- E) Many skills or professions in both England and Turkey are named after the surnames of the ancestors who carried them out.

21- This course of ours has been developed for users with no experience of Microsoft Excel.

- A) We believe that the people who developed this course have never used Microsoft Excel.
- B) We require you to have at least some experience of Microsoft Excel to take this course.
- C) During this course, we will help you develop your skills on Microsoft Excel.
- D) Your skills on Microsoft Excel will be enhanced during this course of ours.
- E) We have designed this course for people who have never used Microsoft Excel.

22- An effective antibacterial substance in crocodiles blood has just been discovered.

- A) They have very recently identified an effective antibody in crocodiles' blood.
- B) Crocodiles have remarkable antibacterial substances in their blood.
- C) The latest discovery in the field of medicine is that crocodiles have an effective antibody in their blood.
- D) They have just started looking at crocodiles blood in order to find an antibody which fights resistant bacteria.
- E) Scientists have concluded that crocodiles blood must contain antibodies.

23- Generally, scientists prefer to keep the details of their research secret until something has been proved.

- A) Scientists often worry about public reaction to their research if they haven't proved something with concrete evidence.
- B) In general, up until they have proved something, scientists would rather not disclose details of their research.
- C) Usually, people would like to learn the details of scientists' research even before they have proved their theories.
- D) Scientists don't have to release information about their work until they have proved something.
- E) Generally, scientists keep their findings to themselves, especially when they are difficult to explain to the public.

24- Before Mozambique can be restored to normal, considerable investment is required.

- A) It's normal that Mozambique requires significant investment in order to achieve a higher standard of living.
- B) The fate of Mozambique can only be altered with sizeable investment.
- C) Normally, stability in Mozambique cannot be achieved without some investment from overseas.
- D) They consider investing large sums to help relieve the suffering in Mozambique.
- E) Mozambique will need significant investment before the country can return to normal.

25- In Greek mythology, Medusa transformed whoever looked into her eyes to stone.

- A) According to Greek myth, anyone who glanced into the eyes of Medusa was turned to stone.
- B) The ancient Greeks believed that Medusa was capable of turning people to stone by looking at them.
- C) Medusa in Greek myth was a monster who turned lots of people into stone by glancing at them.
- D) It's believed that Medusa in Greek mythology was turned into stone when people looked into her eyes.
- E) Medusa is a Greek goddess who is believed to turn anything she looks at to stone.

26- Despite a great deal of improvements in public transport, congestion on the roads in Birmingham is getting worse.

- A) The problem of Birmingham's congested roads could be solved with significant improvement to public transport.
- B) A great deal of improvements in public transport is needed in order to relieve the congestion on Birmingham's roads.
- C) Public transport has been improved considerably, yet the roads in Birmingham are getting more and more congested.
- D) More roads are needed in Birmingham to relieve the congestion, which has been increasing due to inadequate public transport.
- E) Congestion in Birmingham could not be reduced until they built new roads and improved public transport a great deal.

27- The current English national football team manager used to be a player for Liverpool.

- A) At the moment, he manages both the English national football team and Liverpool.
- B) Before he managed the English national football team, he managed Liverpool.
- C) At one time the person currently managing the English national team played for Liverpool.
- D) He used to play for Liverpool, but now he only plays for the English national football team.
- E) Currently, he combines managing the English national football team with playing for Liverpool.

28- Every year, our local florist donates the flowers for the charity's annual concert.

- A) The flowers for the yearly charity concert are always donated by the florist in our neighbourhood.
- B) This year, the florist in our neighbourhood supplied the flowers for the charity's annual concert.
- C) Our local florist didn't charge the charity for the flowers which she provided for their concert.
- D) Every year, the charity asks the florist in our neighbourhood to donate some flowers for their concerts.
- E) Some of the profits from the flowers sold by our local florist go to fund the charity's annual concert.

29- Why this girl was sacrificed on the mountain summit will probably remain a mystery for ever.

- A) It appears that it will take some time to prove why this girl was sacrificed on the mountain summit.
- B) The reason for this mountain top sacrifice of a girl has to be discovered.
- C) It isn't yet clear why such a sacrifice of a young girl on a mountain top took place.
- D) It is likely that the reason for the sacrifice of this girl on the top of the mountain will never be known.
- E) We only have vague theories about why these sacrifices of girls took place on mountain tops.

30- Tom Higdon was dismissed from his job as a teacher in 1911 for suggesting that the children of farm workers should be educated.

- A) Tom Higdon was fired from his job as a teacher in 1911 when he refused to educate the children of agricultural workers.
- B) In 1911, the teacher Tom Higdon was fired because he proposed the education of children of farm workers.
- C) Tom Higdon's suggestions in 1911 that the children of farm workers didn't deserve to be educated led to his dismissal.
- D) In 1911, Tom Higdon was fired from his post as a teacher for teaching the children of farm workers who shouldn't have been educated.
- E) After being fired from his teaching position in 1911, Tom Higdon suggested that the children of farm workers ought to be educated.

31- Someone has just asked us whether a red handbag has been handed in.

- A) Have you been asked about the red handbag which was handed in to us?
- B) Luckily, someone had just found her red handbag and handed it in.
- C) If anyone phones to ask about a lost handbag, we've just been handed in a red one.
- D) We have just received an enquiry about whether anyone has handed in a red handbag.
- E) Has anyone lost a red handbag because we have had one handed in?

32- Ever since Jim became addicted to drugs, his mother's life has been unbearable.

- A) Jim's mother's life has been dedicated to her son since he formed a terrible addiction to drugs.
- B) Jim's mother's life has become extremely miserable from the time her son formed an addiction to drugs.
- C) Jim's mother is disgusted that her son could have become terribly addicted to drugs.
- D) Jim's mother has become terrified of her son because he is addicted to dangerous drugs.
- E) Worrying that her son may become involved with drugs is making Jim's mother miserable.

33- This video is adapted from LePrince de Beaumont's fairy tale.

- A) LePrince de Beaumont adapted this fairy tale for video.
- B) This video film, which is an adaptation of a fairy tale, was shot by LePrince de Beaumont.
- C) This fairy tale is narrated by LePrince de Beaumont.
- D) This video stars the famous actor LePrince de Beaumont.
- E) This video film is based on a fairy tale by LePrince de Beaumont.

34- Sir Paul McCartney got married to Heather Miles in June 2002.

- A) In June 2002, the wedding of Sir Paul McCartney and Heather Miles took place.
- B) Sir Paul McCartney proposed to Heather Miles in June 2002.
- C) The engagement of Sir Paul McCartney and Heather Miles was announced in June 2002.
- D) Sir Paul McCartney had planned to marry Heather Miles in June 2002.
- E) Sir Paul McCartney and Heather Miles were married until June 2002.

35- Many homeless people came from poor families.

- A) Homeless people would make very poor parents.
- B) Those who don't have a permanent home often don't have any family either.
- C) A lot of people without a home had grown up in poor families.
- D) The family environment for most homeless people must have been awful.
- E) Some people make themselves homeless because their families are so dreadful.

36- In my opinion, nuclear waste shouldn't be transported by rail.

- A) Moving nuclear waste over the railway network is not considered very safe.
- B) I believe that the best way to move nuclear fuel is over the railway network.
- C) It is my belief that it's a bad idea to move nuclear waste on trains.
- D) It is generally accepted that it is unsatisfactory to move nuclear waste by train.
- E) I agree with the popular opinion that nuclear waste is too dangerous to be moved by train.

37- We were all shocked by the news apart from Simon, who didn't seem to be surprised in the least.

- A) The news appeared to surprise everyone, particularly Simon, who looked completely shocked.
- B) Surprisingly, no one seemed shocked by the news, including Simon, who looked completely disinterested.
- C) Almost everyone was surprised by Simon's shocking news, but I didn't find it shocking at all.
- D) The news didn't appear to surprise Simon at all, but otherwise, it shocked us all.
- E) All of us were shocked by the news, but Simon seemed the least surprised of us all.

38- Before you can apply the varnish, the surface must be levelled.

- A) The surface requires levelling and varnishing.
- B) You should make sure the surface is clean before they apply the varnish.
- C) Varnish gives better results on smooth surfaces.
- D) Now that the surface is level, you can start varnishing it.
- E) You need to level the surface first so that you can varnish it.

39- Only a small minority of the population believes that immigration benefits the country.

- A) Some people think that immigration isn't beneficial to the country.
- B) The majority of people in the country consider immigration to be beneficial.
- C) The benefits of immigration to the country are recognised by quite some people.
- D) Immigration is considered advantageous to the country by a very small proportion of the population.
- E) About half of the population recognises that immigration can be advantageous to the country.

40- The problem with the fishing method known as pair trawling is that sea mammals also become entangled in the nets.

- A) Unfortunately, sea mammals can become trapped in fishing nets during pair trawling.
- B) Sea mammals, which often become trapped in nets, are a problem to fishermen when they are using the pair trawling system.
- C) During pair trawling, sea mammals sometimes get trapped in the nets, but this doesn't cause too many problems for the fishermen.
- D) The disadvantage of the pair trawling fishing system is that the net also entraps sea mammals.
- E) In addition to fish, the pair trawling fishing method has the added advantage of catching sea mammals.

41- While some of the trainees were bored by the exercises, others found them very interesting.

- A) Some of the training exercises that the participants did were tedious, but others were quite interesting.
- B) Although the training exercises were supposed to be interesting, many found them very tedious.
- C) Although the training exercises were designed to be interesting, some participants weren't very interested in them.
- D) Unlike most of the trainees, who found the exercises boring, we were interested in them.
- E) Although a number of participants found the training exercises tedious, others were very interested in them.

42- The feelings of the victim are rarely considered by criminals before they commit an offence.

- A) Very often, criminals do not take the feelings of their victim into account before the offence is committed.
- B) The feelings of the victim should be taken into account by criminals before they commit a crime, but they very rarely are.
- C) Criminals never show any regard for the emotions of their victim before they commit an offence.
- D) Fewer crimes would be committed if criminals had any regard for the feelings of their victims.
- E) Surprisingly, some criminals appear to consider the feelings of their victims before they commit a crime.

43- Modern corporations are so complex that their operations are beyond the control of the shareholders who own them.

- A) Complicated procedures make today's corporations difficult to understand even for those who own shares in them.
- B) Owning shares in a modern corporation involves understanding complicated procedures, which are difficult to control.
- C) Today's corporations are so complicated that their procedures can only be controlled by the shareholders who own them.
- D) The procedures of today's corporations are so complicated that only the shareholders, to whom they belong, can understand them.
- E) The complexity of today's corporations means that their procedures cannot be controlled by the shareholders, to whom they belong.

44- It is written in the official rules of cricket that the bat must be made of willow wood.

- A) A cricket bat must be made of willow wood according to the official rules of the game.
- B) Traditionally, a cricket bat has always been made of willow wood, but this is not laid down in the official rules of the game.
- C) Officially, cricket bats must be made of wood, which is normally willow in practice.
- D) The official rules of cricket state that the bat must be made of wood, preferably willow wood.
- E) Officially, cricket bats should be made of willow wood, but other types are also available.

45- They took on sixty voluntary workers to assist in the excavation of the bones.

- A) It took sixty hardworking recruits to excavate the bones.
- B) Sixty volunteers were recruited to help dig up the bones.
- C) They chose the volunteers for the task of digging up the bones from among sixty applicants.
- D) Sixty of the workers who dug up the bones were volunteers.
- E) Some of the workers who helped dig up the bones were working only voluntarily.

46- We've had to postpone the meeting because Ms. Burns, the technical consultant, is ill today.

- A) Our technical consultant, Ms. Burns, will not be in today because she is ill, so we will have the meeting another day.
- B) The meeting will take place as scheduled even though our technical consultant, Ms. Burns, is at home sick today.
- C) Ms. Burns, our technical consultant, called in sick today because she didn't want to attend the meeting.
- D) We should send the notes to our technical consultant, Ms. Burns, since she is home sick today and couldn't come to the meeting.
- E) Ms. Burns, our technical consultant, will be in tomorrow, but she is ill at home today, so we will inform her about the outcome of the meeting tomorrow.

47- Most people are very fond of horror films despite the terrifying scenes they contain.

- A) Most people prefer to watch horror films just because of the terrifying scenes they contain.
- B) More people would like horror films if they contained fewer frightening scenes.
- C) Although there are lots of frightening scenes in horror films, they are eagerly watched by most people.
- D) Horror films are watched with great enjoyment by some people, while others consider them awful.
- E) It's the scary scenes in a film that are the most eagerly watched by viewers.

- 48- Our housekeeper cooks and cleans for us, and for the most part she is very good, but she needs to clean the windows better.
- A) We like the food that our housekeeper cooks for us, and she is also good at cleaning the house and the windows.
 - B) We are happy with our housekeeper because she cooks and cleans well; however, she could do a better job on the windows.
 - C) Our housekeeper doesn't like cleaning the windows, so they are not very clean, but she does a wonderful job cooking and cleaning the rest of the house.
 - D) Our housekeeper is wonderful at most things, particularly at cooking and cleaning the house, though she doesn't like cleaning the windows.
 - E) While our housekeeper cleans the windows well, she needs to do a better job on cleaning the rest of the house; but the food she cooks is very good.
- 49- They must have been absorbed in their gossip, or they would have noticed Liz eavesdropping on them.
- A) Liz was secretly listening to their conversation while they were gossiping about her.
 - B) I guess that when Liz noticed that they were gossiping about her, she became curious to listen in.
 - C) They had been focusing on their gossip about Liz so much that they didn't notice others were eavesdropping.
 - D) Liz, as she was eavesdropping on their conversation, suddenly realized that they were gossiping about her.
 - E) I'm almost certain that they were deep in their gossip at the time and didn't notice Liz listening in.
- 50- You will never get a table there on a Saturday night unless you have made a reservation.
- A) You should have made a reservation if you expected to eat there on a Saturday night.
 - B) It is only possible for you to find a table there on a Saturday night by reserving a table in advance.
 - C) Let's make a reservation for Saturday night to be sure of getting a table.
 - D) If only you had made a reservation for Saturday, we would have got a table.
 - E) You may not be able to get a table there if you haven't made a reservation for Saturday night.
- 51- Did you happen to run into George last week?
- A) Was it a week ago that you last saw George?
 - B) Where do you think George was all last week?
 - C) Did you and George meet again last week?
 - D) Did you, by any chance, see George last week?
 - E) Have you any idea what happened to George last week?
- 52- The setting and costumes in the play were strongly reminiscent of 1930s New York.
- A) The costume designers of the play took their inspiration from 1930s New York.
 - B) The play made you feel that the New York of the 1930s was an exciting place.
 - C) With its setting and costumes, the play almost looked like it was really in 1930s New York.
 - D) New York in the 1930s was such an exciting place that it is often imitated in plays.
 - E) The play reflected life in 1930s New York, but the setting and costumes were not very suitable.
- 53- One part of the movie startled me screamed and made everyone in the theatre jump.
- A) While we were watching the movie I screamed at one point; this startled everyone in the theatre and they jumped.
 - B) The movie was very frightening; it made everyone in the theatre scream and jump.
 - C) While we were watching the movie, it scared me and I jumped up yelling.
 - D) Even though the movie wasn't scary, it startled me at one point; my scream made everyone else jump.
 - E) The scream in the middle of the scary movie startled everyone in the theatre and made us jump.
- 54- You could hardly have decided on a less secure career than that of a novelist.
- A) There are some careers that are not as secure as that of a novelist.
 - B) If it is security that you are after, you should try being a novelist.
 - C) If you work hard, you may secure yourself a future by being a novelist.

- D) There are probably better ways of securing your future than becoming a novelist.
- E) In deciding to be a novelist, you have probably chosen the least secure career possible.

55- Of all the people who have won the Nobel Peace Prize, few of them have actually secured peace.

- A) Many people have worked hard to bring about world peace, but few of them have been recognized by being given the Nobel Peace Prize.
- B) The Nobel Peace Prize has been awarded to many people who have made a contribution to bringing about world peace.
- C) The only way to win the Nobel Peace Prize is by making a positive effort towards bringing about world peace.
- D) Many people have been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize, but not many of them have established lasting peace.
- E) It is a good thing that peacemakers are recognized by being awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

56- The dictionary had been written in and a few of the pages had been torn, so I took it back to the bookstore and demanded a refund.

- A) I wrote something in the dictionary and ripped two of the pages, but I still got a refund when I returned it to the bookshop where I had bought it.
- B) The bookstore demanded some money from me when I wanted to return the dictionary, because I had written something in it and ripped some of the pages.
- C) I asked for my money back for the dictionary I had bought in the bookstore as somebody had written in it and damaged a couple of the pages.
- D) The bookshop where I had bought the dictionary agreed to pay a refund for a few torn pages and the writing inside of it.
- E) The dictionary had several pages to write on and those had been torn, so I returned it to the bookstore and asked for my money back from them.

57- After the mugger had beaten up the old woman and stolen her purse, he was seen running out of the alley.

- A) Somebody saw the mugger fleeing the alley after he had hit the old woman and taken her purse from her.
- B) The mugger tried to steal the old woman's purse, but when someone was seen nearby, he fled the alley running.
- C) The mugger was running down the alley when he saw an old woman, so he decided to steal her purse, but he had to beat her up to do so.
- D) The mugger physically attacked the old woman and took her purse, then he saw somebody running out of the alley.
- E) When someone saw the mugger running down the alley, he had just' snatched an old woman's purse.

58- It was CFCs, which were used in aerosols, refrigerators and solvents, that made the dangerous hole in the ozone layer over Antarctica.

- A) Aerosols, refrigerators and solvents contain CFCs, and these substances have caused several holes in the ozone layer, the most dangerous being over Antarctica.
- B) It has been found that the CFCs in aerosols, refrigerators and solvents affected the ozone layer over Antarctica more than anywhere else.
- C) The hole [n the ozone layer above Antarctica caused people to use CFCs in aerosols, refrigerators and solvents as they were found to be less dangerous.
- D) Aerosols, refrigerators and solvents produced CFCs, which led to the ozone layer over Antarctica being dangerously damaged.
- E) The dangerous hole in the ozone layer over Antarctica was caused by the use of CFCs, which used to be found in aerosols, refrigerators and solvents.

59- Although the house was situated in a very nice area of the city, it needed a lot of work to be done on it.

- A) The house was in a very good section of the city, yet it was badly in need of repair.
- B) Because the house had to have a lot of work done to it, its position in the city didn't seem important.
- C) We needed to do a great deal of work on the house that we had bought in a very beautiful part of the city.
- D) The house looked very bad even though it was located in the best part of our city.
- E) The house we found in the best section of the city required us to do a lot of work on it.

60- The Roman emperor Caligula was assassinated in 41 AD, due to his cruelty and immorality, and his uncle Claudius was placed on the throne.

- A) Claudius murdered his nephew, the Roman emperor Caligula, in 41 AD because of his brutality and immorality, and took his place on the throne himself.
- B) After the people killed the Roman emperor Caligula in 41 AD because of his cruelty and immorality, his uncle Claudius put himself on the throne.
- C) The Roman emperor Caligula assassinated his uncle Claudius in a nasty and brutal way in 41 AD, and then retook his place on his throne.
- D) The brutality and immorality of the Roman emperor Caligula caused people to kill him in 41 AD and make his uncle Claudius emperor instead.
- E) The cruel and immoral assassination of the Roman emperor Caligula in 41 AD left his place on the throne to be taken by his uncle Claudius.

61- Thai cuisine is unlike Turkish cuisine because the fruits and vegetables which can be grown in each country are totally different.

- A) Both Turkish and Thai cuisines rely on the fruits and vegetables grown in their own countries, so the food they cook is not at all similar.
- B) Turkey and Thailand are only able to produce certain kinds of fruit and vegetables, and they are not similar at all, so the food they cook is different.
- C) Thais don't like Turkish cuisine because the fruits and vegetables used in making the food are different from the ones in their country.
- D) Turkish farmers and Thai farmers choose to grow different kinds of fruits and vegetables, so their national food styles are dissimilar.
- E) The fruits and vegetables grown in Turkey are hardly ever found in Thailand, so their cuisine can be found strange by Turkish diners.

62- Because the burglar alarm hadn't been switched on, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly's house was robbed while they remained sleeping.

- A) Because the burglar hadn't activated the alarm, he was able to steal Mr. and Mrs. Kelly's things while they were sleeping.
- B) Since Mr. and Mrs. Kelly hadn't bought a burglar alarm, their house was burgled and they didn't even wake up.
- C) Mr. and Mrs. Kelly had forgotten to switch on the burglar alarm only once, and that night, while they were sleeping, they were robbed.
- D) Mr. and Mrs. Kelly were sleeping through the robbery because the alarm that they had switched on was turned off by the burglars.
- E) Mr. and Mrs. Kelly hadn't turned on the burglar alarm, so they didn't wake up while their house was being robbed.

63- Dominic loves Melissa, but she would prefer to go out with Antonio.

- A) Melissa used to be in love with Dominic, but now she loves Antonio.
- B) Dominic knows that Melissa is going out with Antonio, but he loves her anyway.
- C) Melissa is in love with Dominic, but Antonio would still like to go out with her.
- D) Dominic is in love with Melissa, but she would rather date Antonio.
- E) Antonio is going out with Melissa, even though Dominic is in love with her.

64- The river Amazon was first explored by the Spaniard Francisco de Orellana, who named it after the legendary warrior women, the Amazons, when rumours were heard of a female tribe living in that area.

- A) Francisco de Orellana named the first river he explored the Amazon,, after he met a female tribe living in that region which reminded him of the warrior women of mythology.
- B) Upon hearing a rumour about a female tribe - the Amazons - living along a river, Francisco de Orellana of Spain decided to explore the region, and he named the river Amazon.
- C) The Spaniard Francisco de Orellana first explored the Amazon River after he heard rumours of a legendary female tribe of warrior women - the Amazons - living in the area.
- D) Upon hearing tales that the area was inhabited by a female tribe, Francisco de Orellana of Spain, the first explorer of the Amazon River, gave it this name after the Amazons, the legendary fighting women.
- E) While the Spaniard Francisco de Orellana was exploring a river, he met a female tribe living in the area, who he thought looked like the Amazons -the legendary warrior women - so he called the river the Amazon.

65- The Titanic, which sank in 1912, wasn't rediscovered until 1985, when technological advances had made deep sea-diving possible.

- A) It was possibly deep-sea divers using the results of the latest technological advances who, in 1985, discovered the Titanic, which had sunk in 1912.
- B) Even with the advances in underwater diving technologies, it was not possible to find the Titanic, which had sunk in 1912, until 1985.
- C) When the technology that would enable man to go deep-sea diving became available in 1985, the Titanic, which had sunk in 1912, was discovered again.
- D) It was in 1985 that the Titanic was seen on the bottom of the sea for the first time since 1912, the year when it had sunk.
- E) Despite technological progress in deep-sea diving, it was not possible to find the Titanic until 1985, seventy-three years after she had sunk.

66- Abigail is working on a new project these days, as she has recently been promoted to the post of assistant manager.

- A) As an assistant manager, Abigail was dealing with promotions until a short time ago, but now she is dealing with a new project.
- B) Because Abigail is working on a new task, she has just promoted someone to the position of assistant manager.
- C) Abigail was given the higher position of assistant manager a short time ago, so now a new project is being carried out by her.
- D) Abigail was given the job of assistant manager in order to start work on a new project, and so she is doing that these days.
- E) The assistant manager has recently been given a promotion, and so now, Abigail is working on the new project instead.

67- All but one of the tombs in the Valley of the Kings was raided by grave robbers, and that was the tomb of Tutankhamen.

- A) The tomb of Tutankhamen was carefully hidden, so it could not be discovered by grave robbers, unlike most of the other tombs in the Valley of the Kings.
- B) The tomb of Tutankhamen was not robbed by tomb thieves, but they stole from every other tomb in the Valley of the Kings.
- C) After all but one of the tombs in the Valley of the Kings had been robbed, the tomb of Tutankhamen was discovered.
- D) Except for Tutankhamen's tomb, where they couldn't find anything, grave robbers stole the goods out of all the other tombs in the Valley of the Kings.
- E) Grave robbers stole the goods from many of the tombs in the Valley of the Kings, but they couldn't find anything in Tutankhamen's tomb.

68- Because the climate of the area is suitable for its production, tea is grown in the Black Sea region.

- A) Tea grows in the Black Sea region, so the climate there must be suitable for it.
- B) Tea can be grown in the Black Sea region whenever the weather conditions are suitable.
- C) Tea flourishes in the Black Sea region, because the weather of that area is usually good for it.
- D) People produce tea in the Black Sea region, since that area has appropriate weather for it.
- E) Due to the weather conditions there, the Black Sea region is only able to produce tea.

69- Although the wildebeest had been killed by a female cheetah, it was taken from her by a pack of jackals.

- A) A female cheetah had killed a wildebeest, but a group of jackals got the body from her.
- B) The wildebeest was dead, so a female cheetah carried it away from a pack of jackals.
- C) Although a pack of jackals had killed a wildebeest, a female cheetah stole it from them.

- D) A group of jackals took away the body of a female cheetah after a wildebeest had killed it.
- E) A female cheetah had died attacking a wildebeest, and her body was carried off by a group of jackals.

70- Our wedding invitations must have all been lost in the mail, as we haven't received any replies yet.

- A) No answers to our wedding invitations have arrived so far, so I am sure that they were all lost in the post.
- B) It appears that all of our wedding invitations were lost in the mail, so we probably won't be getting any replies.
- C) No one has replied to our wedding invitations so far because they all fear that their reply will get lost in the mail.
- D) When we received no answers to our wedding invitations, we wondered if the post office had lost them all.
- E) Because all of our wedding invitations had got lost in the mail, no one was able to reply to them.

71- In 1922, New York postal officials burned 500 copies of James Joyce's Ulysses, which was banned in the United States until 1933.

- A) Though James Joyce's Ulysses had been banned in the United States in 1922, it was not until 1933 that 500 copies of it were burned by postal officials in New York.
- B) Because James Joyce's Ulysses had been banned in New York until 1933, postal officials burned 500 copies of it as soon as it was published in 1922.
- C) 500 copies of James Joyce's Ulysses were burned by New York postal officials between 1922 and 1933 because the book had been banned in the United States.
- D) 500 copies of James Joyce's Ulysses were burned by postal officials in New York in 1922, and, in the United States, it was banned until 1933.
- E) In the United States, James Joyce's Ulysses was banned by New York postal officials in 1922, and 500 copies of it had been burned by 1933.

72- Because it was the height of summer when the town was flooded, the humidity inside the houses became much higher than normal.

- A) The town had been flooded at the beginning of summer, and so the houses became more humid inside than normal as the summer went on.
- B) The summer humidity was already higher than normal at the time the flood came, and so it was extremely hot inside the houses.
- C) The houses got far more humid inside than normal because the flood happened during the hottest part of the summer.
- D) Since the town was usually flooded during the hottest part of the summer, the houses always got very humid inside.
- E) Whenever the town was flooded in the middle of summer, it used to get much more humid inside the houses than it normally was.

73- While the modern sonata form was invented by the composer Haydn, Beethoven greatly expanded the form's possibilities.

- A) At the same time that the composer Haydn was creating the modern sonata form, its possibilities were being greatly expanded by Beethoven.
- B) Haydn was the composer who created the modern sonata form, but its possibilities were considerably widened by Beethoven.
- C) Beethoven helped Haydn, the composer of the modern sonata form, to widen the possibilities of the form.
- D) It was not until modern times that the sonata form was created by the composer Haydn, and later, the possibilities of this form were greatly enlarged by Beethoven.
- E) The composers Haydn and Beethoven worked together to create and then expand the possibilities of the modern sonata form.

74- Billy was fired from the lemonade stand where he worked because he'd been drinking too much of the lemonade.

- A) As Billy was drinking an excessive amount of the lemonade from the lemonade stand where he had a job, he lost his job there.
- B) Billy left his job at the lemonade stand in order to find a job where he could drink more of the lemonade.
- C) Some people at the lemonade stand where Billy worked said that he had drunk too much of the lemonade, and so they fired him.
- D) Billy drank a lot of lemonade before he lost his job at the lemonade stand that he was working at.
- E) The lemonade stand where Billy used to work had very good lemonade, and so he drank it all, even though he lost his job because of this.

75- In the 18th century, the Divan poetry of the Ottoman Empire began to be influenced by Turkish folk poetry.

- A) The Divan poetry of the Ottoman Empire was only affected by Turkish folk poetry during the 1700s.
- B) In the 18th century, the Divan poetry of the Ottoman Empire was greatly influenced by poetry in the Turkish language.
- C) Turkish folk poetry was the only form of art that affected the Ottoman Empire's Divan poetry in the 1700s.
- D) Throughout the 18th century, Turkish folk poetry had the greatest influence on the Divan poetry of the Ottoman Empire.
- E) Turkish folk poetry started to affect the Ottoman Empire's Divan poetry in the 1700s.

CONDITIONAL REVISION (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)

1- We can only increase the standards of results in our school by being persistent in urging students to be diligent and hardworking.

- A) Unless we persistently encourage students to be diligent and hardworking, we won't raise standards of achievement in our school.
- B) Students in our school should be taught to be persistent in order to achieve successful exam results.
- C) We have successfully raised the standards of achievement in our school by encouraging students to be diligent and hardworking.
- D) Our school will achieve a higher degree of excellence because students that are accepted there are diligent and hardworking.
- E) If we had been persistent in encouraging students to work more diligently, we could have raised the standards of results in our school.

2- During their argument, she threw all his belongings out of the window.

- A) While they were arguing, she hurled his possessions through the window.
- B) They argued because she had thrown some of his tilings out of the window.
- C) If he hadn't made her so mad, she wouldn't have thrown his clothes through the window.
- D) He wouldn't have been upset with her if she hadn't chucked his belongings out of the window.
- E) The cause of the argument was her throwing his belongings out of the window.

3- I have no desire to keep a pet at home, but I cannot understand how anyone could be cruel to animals.

- A) I cannot describe myself as an animal lover, but that doesn't mean that I approve of animal cruelty.
- B) Animal cruelty is something that I cannot accept even though I'm not keen at all to have a pet myself.
- C) People who do not harbour any wish to keep a pet are often cruel to animals.
- D) Although I have never been cruel to animals. I would hate to have a pet at home.
- E) I hadn't had any wish to keep a pet until I witnessed some people treating animals cruelly.

4- Her husband has little chance of ever seeing Mary, who abandoned him last month, again.

- A) It won't be long until Mary and her husband meet again, although it's a month since she left him.
- B) There is a good possibility that Mary and her husband will meet again in about a month or so.
- C) Mary, who has been away from her husband for a month, will not be able to avoid him for long.
- D) Mary abandoned her husband again, and she says this time she is determined not to return to him.
- E) Mary left her husband a month ago, and it does not seem very likely that she will ever return to him.

5- Every year thousands of drivers and passengers, who would survive if only the first people on the scene knew how to react in emergencies, die in the few minutes after an auto collision.

- A) If people are to survive auto crashes, it is important that someone arrives in the scene within the first few minutes.
- B) It is important to learn the correct things to do in case you are ever in a car crash to keep yourself from being one of the thousands of victims who die every year.
- C) It is the first people to arrive at the scene of a car crash, rather than the crash itself, which kill thousands of drivers and passengers every year.
- D) Thousands of lives could be saved every year were the first people to arrive at the scene of an auto crash to know what they should do.
- E) In order to save the thousands of people who die every year in the first few moments after traffic accidents, the first people to deal with them on the scene should be medical staff.

6- Smeary windows will be considered a thing of the past provided you wash the glass with this special mixture.

- A) In the past, people used to wash their windows with a specially prepared mixture, but the glass became smeary before long.
- B) If you use this mixture to clean your windows, they will become smeary.
- C) The belief that smeary glass is unavoidable whatever you use to clean your windows with is just an old wife's tale.
- D) As long as you use this specially mixed solution to clean your windows, you'll never have smeary glass again.

- E) This special mixture to clean the windows, which was used in the past, is becoming popular again.
- 7- The Grand Bazaar was constructed shortly after Istanbul was conquered in 1453, but until 1481 it was not open to the public
- A) It was only in 1481 that the public was allowed to use the Grand Bazaar, which was built soon after the conquest of Istanbul in 1453.
- B) The construction of the Grand Bazaar lasted from soon after the conquest of Istanbul in 1453 to 1481, when it was opened to the public
- C) Soon after the conquest of Istanbul in 1453, the construction of the Grand Bazaar started, but it was not until 1481 that it was completed and opened to the public
- D) When the Grand Bazaar was completed and opened to the public in 1481, its construction had been going on since 1453, the year when Istanbul was conquered.
- E) The public wasn't able to use the Grand Bazaar, which was built just after the conquest of Istanbul in 1453, until quite some time after its completion in 1481.
- 8- If Mohammed Ali Jinnah hadn't died a year after founding Pakistan, the country would probably be very different today.
- A) Pakistan would probably still have turned out as it has, whether the founder, Mohammed Ali Jinnah, had lived longer or not.
- B) Had Mohammed Ali Jinnah not died so soon after creating Pakistan, the country would definitely be in a much better shape today.
- C) Mohammed Ali Jinnah founded Pakistan and died just the following year; if he hadn't, today Pakistan would likely be a very different kind of country.
- D) A very different Pakistan would have emerged if Mohammed Ali Jinnah had not died only a few years after he had created it.
- E) When Pakistan was founded by Mohammed Ali Jinnah, who died only a year later, the country was a very different one to how it is now.
- 9- Passengers arriving in Istanbul by plane catch their first glimpse of the city as they are flying over Yeşilköy.
- A) Yeşilköy provides people arriving in Istanbul on a plane with their first view of the city as they fly overhead.
- B) When people arrive in Istanbul by plane, they must first go through Yeşilköy.
- C) Yeşilköy is the town which first greets visitors to Istanbul, but only when they arrive by plane.
- D) Passengers get a glimpse of Yeşilköy as they are flying over Istanbul on their way out of the airport.
- E) Since Yeşilköy is the first part of Istanbul that tourists see as they fly over the city, it is a very important neighbourhood.
- 10- Residents of the area like to go to the park to enjoy a tea break after taking a walk along the shore.
- A) If you are tired after walking along the shore, people here suggest that you should go to the park for a tea break.
- B) After having a stroll along the shore, people living in this area enjoy going to the park and having a tea break.
- C) The park by the shore is a wonderful place for residents to have a tea break when they go for a walk.
- D) Enjoying a tea break with the residents of the park can be very enjoyable after a long walk along the shore.
- E) Walking along the shore can be very tiring if you don't take a break at the nearby park.
- 11- The lighthouse at the Marmara Sea entrance to the Bosphorus was commissioned in 1865 by Sultan Abdulmecid and was built by the French.

- A) If the French hadn't agreed to build it in 1865, Sultan Abdulmecid couldn't have afforded the lighthouse which stands at the Marmara Sea entrance to the Bosphorus
- B) The French built the lighthouse for ships entering the Bosphorus from the Marmara Sea in 1865 as a dedication to Sultan Abdulmecid.
- C) Influenced by the French, who wanted to build a lighthouse at the entrance to the Bosphorus from the Marmara Sea, Sultan Abdulmecid approved construction in 1865.
- D) While it was the French who designed the lighthouse at the Marmara Sea entrance to the Bosphorus, it was Sultan Abdulmecid who had it built in 1865.
- E) The French built the lighthouse which stands at the Marmara Sea entrance to the Bosphorus when Sultan Abdulmecid contracted them to do so in 1865.

12- If Yusuf had Gokhan's position in the company, everybody believes he would be able to motivate the workers better.

- A) Everybody who works in this company thinks that Gokhan motivates the workers well, so that is why he has a better job here than Yusuf.
- B) It is believed that Gokhan is not as good at encouraging the company's workers as Yusuf would be if he had the same job
- C) If Yusuf were able to motivate the workers better, he would be given Gokhan's present job in the company.
- D) The workers think that Gokhan would make a better manager than Yusuf because they believe he has better motivational skills.
- E) Everybody in the company thinks that the workers were motivated far better when Yusuf was doing Gokhan's present job

13- The people of Cambodia wish that so many land mines hadn't been laid in their country, as many people have lost limbs by stepping on them.

- A) The Cambodian people ought not to have planted so many land mines in their country because they have caused many people to lose their legs when they have exploded.
- B) The people of Cambodia want fewer land mines placed in their country as many people are becoming limbless by treading on them.
- C) The people of Cambodia who have lost parts of their bodies by stepping on landmines wish that these weapons hadn't been planted in their country in the first place.
- D) Cambodians feel that it was a really bad thing to have had so many land mines placed in their country because such a large number of people have had limbs blown off by them.
- E) Had there been fewer land mines scattered around Cambodia, fewer people would have had their limbs blown off by them.

14- We will be going to the rock concert tonight only if our parents give us their permission and some money.

- A) If our parents had allowed us and provided the funds, we would be attending the rock concert tonight.
- B) As long as our parents approve of us using a little bit of their money, we will be going to the rock concert tonight.
- C) I wish our parents had given us permission and some money so that we could go to the rock concert tonight.
- D) Unless our parents allow us and provide us with some cash, we won't be able to go to the rock concert tonight.
- E) All we needed to go to the rock concert tonight was our parents' consent and some money.

15- It is her sense of humour and the supportive friends surrounding her that make it possible for her to endure these difficult times.

- A) She believes that if you have a sense of humour and friendly people surrounding and supporting you, you can always make it through hard times.
- B) Without the support of the friends around her and her sense of humour, she wouldn't be able to make it through these hard times.
- C) Difficult times are hard to endure when you don't have a sense of humour or friends around you who can support you, as far as she is concerned.
- D) She may have a sense of humour, but that didn't help her when, in these difficult times, she lost the support of the friends around her.
- E) With a sense of humour and supportive friends around her, she could have endured these difficult times a lot better.

- 16- She is currently writing a historical book about food, which will include old recipes and the history behind them.
- A) The book she is writing at the moment is on the history of food, with old recipes and stories behind them.
 - B) At the moment, she is collecting recipes and the historical information behind them for the book which she intends to write on food.
 - C) There are many interesting historical facts behind the old recipes to be found in her book, which is a history of food,
 - D) The book she is writing is actually a historical book, but it also contains information about old recipes and the stories behind them.
 - E) She plans on writing a book that will be a history of food, but will also contain recipes and stories about them.
- 17- If he hadn't left the tap open while the water was cut off, we wouldn't have come home to a flooded apartment.
- A) If we hadn't come home in time, the whole flat would have been covered in water, as he had left the tap open when the water was off.
 - B) Our flat was flooded when we arrived, even though he had remembered to close the tap while the water was cut off.
 - C) Because he didn't turn the tap off while the water was off, we came home to find our flat covered in water.
 - D) If he had remembered to turn off the tap, the whole building wouldn't have been flooded.
 - E) When he realized that he had left the tap open, we expected to come home and find the apartment flooded.
- 18- So long as we go on burning fossil fuels as much as we do, the Earth's climate will continue to change.
- A) More coal, oil and gas will have to be produced if we want to keep pace with the climatic changes of our world.
 - B) Our planet's weather conditions will go on changing if we keep using fossil fuels as much as we are now.
 - C) If the world's climate continues to change, we won't need to burn as many fossil fuels like coal, oil and gas, as we do now.
 - D) Our world's weather would have kept on changing if we had kept on using fossil fuels as much as we once had.
 - E) If we used fossil fuels as much as we should do, the weather systems of the Earth would become very different.
- 19- If English were a phonetically spelled language, which means having one sound for each letter of the alphabet, then it would be much easier to read and write.
- A) For English to be easier to read and write, it has to become a phonetically spelled language so that its alphabet will have as many letters as the sounds the language has.
 - B) English is easier to read than write because it is a phonetically spelled language, which means that the language has one letter in its alphabet representing each sound it has.
 - C) The English language can be made easier to read and write only by making it a phonetically spelled language, which requires an equalization of the number of its sounds with the number of letters in its alphabet.
 - D) English used to be a phonetically spelled language; that is, it had one letter in the alphabet representing each sound used, so it was much easier to read and write English then.
 - E) The number of sounds and the letters representing them is not equal in English, as it is in phonetically spelled languages, so it makes the language difficult to read and write.
- 20- If the air conditioner was working, we wouldn't have needed to turn the fan on.
- A) We won't need to use the fan if the air conditioner is working.
 - B) We shouldn't operate the fan when the air conditioner is working.
 - C) We are only using the fan because the air conditioner is broken.
 - D) We used to start the fan whenever the air conditioner stopped working.
 - E) The air conditioner was working, so we didn't turn on the fan.
- 21- If I wasn't sure that the DVD player was broken, I wouldn't have brought it to you to have it repaired, would I?
- A) I know I shouldn't have brought the DVD player for you to fix before I was sure that it was broken.
 - B) It is because I am certain that the DVD player doesn't work that I brought it here for you to fix it.
 - C) I felt certain that the DVD player didn't work, and brought it to you, but apparently, it is not broken.

- D) If I hadn't brought the DVD player for you to look at, I wouldn't have been sure that it was broken.
- E) I am having my DVD player fixed, although I'm not actually sure if it was really broken or not.

22- Sultanahmet, where there are a lot of mosques, monuments and elaborately designed houses dating back to Ottoman, Byzantine and Roman times, is one of the oldest districts in Istanbul.

- A) Because Sultanahmet has always been a historical district, the Romans, Byzantines and Ottomans built many monuments, mosques and elaborately designed houses in the area.
- B) Sultanahmet, Istanbul's oldest district, is famous for its historical monuments, mosques and elaborate houses all built by the Ottomans, Byzantines and Romans.
- C) The Ottomans, Byzantines and Romans were all very skilled in building monuments, such as mosques and elaborate houses, and the majority of these can be found in Sultanahmet.
- D) With many historical sites, like mosques, monuments and elaborately designed houses from Ottoman, Byzantine and Roman periods, Sultanahmet is one of the oldest neighbourhoods in Istanbul.
- E) The oldest district of Istanbul, Sultanahmet became famous after the Ottomans, Byzantines and Romans made it their centre for monuments, mosques and homes.

23- The department store would have stayed in business if it had been able to attract more customers.

- A) Unless the department store can attract more customers, it will go out of business.
- B) The department store found a way to attract more customers in order to remain in business.
- C) The department store couldn't get enough customers, so it had to close down.
- D) If the department store can pull in more customers, it won't go bankrupt.
- E) The department store was able to pull in more customers, so it remained open.

24- If the American economy hadn't crashed in 1929, causing a global depression, then the negative economic conditions that allowed Hitler to rise to power in Germany would not have been created

- A) If a global economic slump hadn't been caused by the sudden decline of the American economy in 1929, then Hitler would have created economic problems of his own in Germany so as to take power.
- B) Hitler became ruler of Germany only because of the world-wide economic crisis that had come about as a result of the collapse of the American economy in 1929.
- C) The negative state of the economy which Hitler created in order to claim power in Germany in 1929 also damaged the American economy, leading to a world-wide depression.
- D) Hitler's taking power created a negative economic situation in Germany that pulled both the USA and the world into an economic crash and slump in 1929.
- E) The world-wide economic slump of 1929 led to both a crash in the American economy and created the economic environment Hitler needed in order to take power in Germany.

25- Susan wishes she had bought the car when she had first seen it because when she went back later, it had been sold.

- A) Susan regretted not buying the car the first time she saw it, as by the time she returned later on, someone else had already bought it.
- B) Susan ought to have bought the first car she saw because the one she bought later was no good.
- C) Susan wanted to buy the car when she saw it for the first time because she knew that if she came back later, it might have been sold by then.
- D) If the car hadn't already been sold the first time Susan laid eyes on it, she would have definitely bought it.
- E) Susan really wishes that the car she decided to buy the moment she saw it had not already been sold to someone else.

26- Irina wishes that she hadn't eaten the badly cooked chicken.

- A) Irina doesn't want to eat the chicken, as it has been cooked badly.
- B) Irina didn't want to eat the badly cooked chicken.
- C) Irina is upset that she didn't cook the chicken well enough before she ate it.
- D) Irina wishes that the chicken she ate had been cooked in a different way.
- E) The chicken wasn't cooked properly, so Irina regrets that she ate it.

27- They must have left for their holiday to Didim because their car is not where it is normally parked in the parking lot.

- A) Their car is still out there in the parking lot, so they can't have left for their holiday in Didim yet.
- B) If they had left for their vacation to Didim, the car would still be parked in its usual place.
- C) If they hadn't left for their vacation to Didim, their car would be in its usual place in the car park.
- D) As long as their car is down there in the car park, they must have left for their vacation to Didim.
- E) They were planning to go to Didim for their holiday, so that is perhaps why their car isn't in the parking lot.

- 28- If Russia didn't have such strict visa regulations, more people would be able to visit the country and see the beautiful cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg.
- A) Russian people wish that their visa regulations were looser, so that more visitors would be able to come to the great cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg.
 - B) The charming cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg have been visited by more foreign tourists since Russia loosened its tough visa rules.
 - C) More and more people are travelling to Russia, despite the tight visa regulations, to see the amazing cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg.
 - D) The wonderful cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg would be threatened by mass tourism if it were not for the severe visa rules Russia has.
 - E) Because of Russia's rigid visa regulations, fewer people are able to take a holiday in that country and observe the lovely cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg.
- 29- Permanent damage to the retina will occur if a person stares directly at the sun for more than a few moments.
- A) If a person has a damaged retina, he or she can gaze straight at the sun for more than a few seconds.
 - B) If a person looks straight at the sun for over a few seconds, his or her retina may become terribly damaged.
 - C) People with irreversible retinal damage can sometimes look directly at the sun for longer than a few moments.
 - D) Should it be looked at directly for longer than a few moments, the sun causes irreversible damage to the human retina.
 - E) Unless a person avoids looking straight at the sun, he or she is certain to suffer permanent retinal damage.
- 30- If the driver of the Mercedes hadn't drunk so much, the fatal collision with the school minibus wouldn't have happened.
- A) The driver of the Mercedes hadn't actually drunk too much when he happened to crash disastrously into the school minibus.
 - B) If the school minibus hadn't crashed into the Mercedes in a bloody accident, the driver, who was actually drunk, wouldn't have been killed.
 - C) If he hadn't caused a violent crash with a school minibus while driving his Mercedes drunk, he wouldn't have killed so many people.
 - D) The deadly crash between the school minibus and the Mercedes only happened because the driver of the Mercedes was drunk.
 - E) The school minibus wouldn't have hit the Mercedes if its driver hadn't been so drunk, and no one would have been killed.
- 31- Mert wishes that he had studied Ottoman literature at university, instead of sociology.
- A) Mert studied sociology at university, but now he thinks Ottoman literature would have been a better choice.
 - B) Mert would rather be studying Ottoman literature at university than sociology.
 - C) Mert was going to study Ottoman literature at university, but in the end he wound up studying sociology.
 - D) Instead of sociology, Mert wants to study Ottoman literature at university.
 - E) Mert studied Ottoman literature at university, but now he regrets this and thinks that he would have preferred sociology.
- 32- If a person is having migraine, he or she should lie down and keep away from bright lights.
- A) A person ought to lie down and avoid bright lights when he or she is suffering from migraine.
 - B) A person can avoid having migraine if he or she rests and keeps at a distance from strong lights.
 - C) If a person doesn't rest and stay away from bright lights, he or she may develop migraine.
 - D) The best way to get rid of a migraine is to lie down and avoid bright lights.
 - E) Migraine can only be stopped if the sufferer relaxes and stays away from strong lighting.
- 33- A daily catamaran links Taşucu in Mersin with Girne in North Cyprus, unless the weather is bad.

- A) If the weather hadn't been good, the catamaran wouldn't have crossed from Tasucu in Mersin to Girne in North Cyprus today.
- B) In case the weather isn't good, there is also a catamaran that goes from Tasucu in Mersin to Girne in North Cyprus every day.
- C) Even if the weather is good, the catamaran between Tasucu in Mersin and Girne in North Cyprus doesn't make its trip every day.
- D) If the weather is alright, it is possible to cross from Tasucu in Mersin to Girne in North Cyprus every day by catamaran.
- E) The catamaran connecting Tasucu in Mersin with Girne in North Cyprus runs every day, whether the weather is good or not.

34- Had the Union army not seized the fortress of Vicksburg, the Mississippi River would have remained in Confederate control.

- A) The Union army captured the fortress of Vicksburg from the Confederates, and then went on to capture the Mississippi River as well.
- B) The Confederates lost power over the Mississippi River because Vicksburg fortress had been taken by Union forces.
- C) The fortress of Vicksburg would have been kept by the Confederates if Union forces had not taken control of the Mississippi River.
- D) The Confederates would only have been able to gain control of the Mississippi River if they had not been defeated by Union forces at Vicksburg fortress.
- E) The Union army decided to take control of the Mississippi River from the Confederates by seizing the fortress of Vicksburg.

35- Venice is threatened by high waters in the Adriatic; otherwise, it wouldn't be building the MOSE Project to stop the city from flooding.

- A) If Venice is at risk from the high waters of the Adriatic, it will construct the MOSE Project to prevent the city from flooding.
- B) Venice is only constructing the MOSE Project because it has to keep the high waters of the Adriatic out of the city.
- C) Venice wouldn't want the city to flood, and would thus carry out the MOSE Project, if the city were at risk from high Adriatic waters.
- D) The MOSE Project needs to be started to prevent Venice from flooding in case the high waters in the Adriatic become a bigger threat.
- E) Unless Venice comes under threat from the high Adriatic waters, it won't build the MOSE Project to protect the city from flooding.

36- If two bridges hadn't been built over the Bosphorus, the traffic problems in Istanbul would be worse.

- A) The traffic problems in Istanbul would still be bad even if a third bridge were built over the Bosphorus.
- B) Before the two bridges were constructed over the Bosphorus, Istanbul had terrible traffic problems.
- C) The traffic situation in Istanbul has been eased considerably since the construction of the two bridges over the Bosphorus.
- D) The traffic situation in Istanbul would be worse without the two bridges that have been constructed over the Bosphorus.
- E) If there weren't two bridges over the Bosphorus, the condition of traffic in Istanbul would be bad.

37- Whether I have to work on Saturday or not, I'll go out to dinner with you that evening.

- A) I'll take you out for dinner on Saturday evening if I don't have to work that day.
- B) If I didn't need to work on Saturday, I'd go with you somewhere for a meal that evening.
- C) I'll still go out for dinner with you on Saturday evening, even if I'm obliged to work that day.
- D) Only if I don't have to work on Saturday will I go out with you for a meal that evening.
- E) I wish I didn't have to work on Saturday; then, I would be able to take you out for dinner that evening.

38- Portsmouth Football Club would be winning more games if it had a better manager.

- A) If the manager of Portsmouth Football Club had been better, a greater number of games would have been won by the team.
- B) A better manager would enable Portsmouth Football Club to beat other teams more often in its matches.
- C) Unless Portsmouth Football Club gets a new manager, it won't be able to win any of its matches.
- D) A new manager will be hired by Portsmouth Football Club if the team doesn't win another game.
- E) It's high time a new manager was found for Portsmouth Football Club in order to improve its performance.

39- Let's invite Jeff as well, so that he can take Sue's place as a DJ in case she fails to turn up.

- A) Jeff is also a good DJ, so we can invite him if Sue says she won't be able to make it.
- B) I suggest that we ask Jeff to come too, because then he can be the DJ if Sue can't make it.
- C) Since Sue might not be able to come, why don't we ask Jeff to be our DJ?
- D) My suggestion is that we should invite both Jeff and Sue as DJs.
- E) I'd rather invite Jeff as the DJ, because Sue often fails to keep her promise and does not show up.

40- Providing that strict building codes have been followed, it is not particularly dangerous to live in an earthquake zone.

- A) It is fairly safe to live in an earthquake region if the buildings have been built according to tight regulations.
- B) Living in this earthquake zone has no risk, because strict building rules have been stuck to.
- C) If tight building regulations had been followed, the risk of living in this earthquake zone would be small.
- D) The earthquake would not have been so dangerous to the people living in the area if tight building codes had been followed.
- E) Strict building regulations have been followed; otherwise, it would be very dangerous to live in this earthquake zone.

NOUN CLAUSES REVISION (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)
--

1- I would rather go sightseeing than lie on beach, and so would my husband.

- A) I don't care for sightseeing or lying on beaches and my husband agrees with me.
- B) Neither my husband nor I mind lying on beaches, but we really don't care for going sightseeing.
- C) My husband likes going sightseeing, while I prefer sunbathing
- D) I would prefer it if my husband enjoyed sightseeing as much as I do.
- E) Both my husband and I prefer to go sightseeing than to sunbathe.

2- My father said I should never be ashamed of doing an honest job whatever it was.

- A) According to my father I should accept whatever job I'm offered if it is honest work.
- B) I was told by my father that I shouldn't be embarrassed doing any job so long as it was an honest one.
- C) Although I was ashamed of my job, my father said I should never have been so
- D) My father told me to quit my job if it was embarrassing me even though was honest work.
- E) My father says he doesn't think I should complain if I have an honest job.

3- Contrary to all expectations, she failed her final exams miserably.

- A) Everyone thought she would pass her final exams, but she failed them badly.
- B) Everyone knew she would fail her final exams because she was so unhappy.
- C) She was very miserable during her final exams, so, not surprisingly, she failed them.
- D) If she hadn't been so miserable during her final exams, she wouldn't have failed.
- E) She failed her final exams, but she wasn't expected to pass them anyway

4- Some doubt remained as to the accused man's possible motivation to murder.

- A) Some believed it was not possible that the accused could have committed a murder.
- B) Some people doubted that the accused had a really valid motivation to commit the murder.
- C) The man who is said to be the murderer has still not been shown to have had a clear motive for the crime.
- D) Whether the accused man had committed the murder or not could never be proven.
- E) What might have driven the accused to commit the murder had not become entirely clear.

5- Although I know they are vegetarians, I'm not sure if they eat eggs and cheese.

- A) Because they are vegetarians they probably eat eggs and cheese.
- B) I'm sure they are vegetarians, so they can't have eaten eggs and cheese at the party.
- C) I believe they are vegetarians, which means that they probably never eat any dairy products such as eggs and cheese.
- D) Being certain they are vegetarians, we should probably give them eggs and cheese instead of meat.
- E) Even though I'm not certain whether or not they eat eggs and cheese, I'm sure they are vegetarians.

6- I wonder where they bought their ceiling fan because I've been looking for something similar to it for a long time.

- A) I've been asking them for some time where they bought their ceiling fan as I want one just like it.
- B) I wish they would tell me the name of the shop where they bought their ceiling fan, so I would know where to go to buy one for myself.
- C) I asked them where they got their ceiling fan from as I bought one like it some time ago.
- D) I've been looking for a ceiling fan like theirs for a while, so I would be interested to know which shop they bought it at.
- E) Some time ago I was looking for a ceiling fan similar to theirs, so I wish they had told me where they had bought theirs.

7- She's so naive that she believes whatever she reads in the popular newspapers.

- A) She is so skeptical that she finds it difficult to accept anything she reads in the popular newspapers as the truth.
- B) If she weren't so skeptical, she would accept at least some of what is written in the popular newspapers as the truth.
- C) She never doubts the truth of anything she reads in the popular newspapers because she is so credulous.
- D) According to her, whatever is published in the popular newspapers is the truth, but she still doesn't accept how naive she is.

- E) It's difficult to believe that she can be so credulous as to consider everything published in the popular newspapers the truth.

8- "I'm concerned to hear what you consider a normal diet, Mr Smith" the dietician said to the fat man.

- A) The dietician expressed his concern at discovering the opinion of Mr Smith, who was fat, on what a normal diet consisted of.
B) After listening to Mr Smith listing what he ate in a normal day, the dietician advised him to follow a very strict diet.
C) The dietician was surprised that a man could be so fat as Mr Smith while eating a quite normal diet.
D) The dietician was worried about the fact that Mr Smith hadn't bothered to start a diet although he was fat.
E) Mr Smith was surprised to discover that the dietician didn't hold the same opinion on healthy eating as he did.

9- "We really need to know by next Friday who wants to come on the club outing," said the chairman.

- A) The chairman didn't know until Friday, when the club trip was to be held, how many members wanted to attend it.
B) The chairman insisted that by the following Friday they required the names of those who wished to go on the club trip.
C) Only if the chairman had known by that Friday who wanted to go on the club trip could he have organised it.
D) As he wants to organise a club outing, the chairman insists that all those who want to come along let him know at next Friday's meeting.
E) Any member who doesn't let the chairman know by next Friday won't be able to go on the club trip.

10- Everybody is able to do something, however small, towards caring for this planet, aren't they?

- A) All of us should have helped stop the pollution of the planet, shouldn't we?
B) Contributions to the task of cleaning up the planet can be made by us all, but too many people don't do enough, do they?
C) Even small things help us look after the planet and everybody helps in one way or another, don't they?
D) Something, even if very tiny, can be done by every person to help look after our planet, can't it?
E) We are all able to do something to help look after the planet, but not all of us know how to do this, do we?

11- I don't like how the sales manager speaks to the sales team.

- A) The sales manager should be more polite to the salesmen.
B) I've noticed that the sales manager is rather rude to the sales team.
C) I'm not in favour of the way the sales manager talks with his sales representatives.
D) His sales team don't speak to the sales manager respectfully.
E) The sales manager has to be more careful who he speaks to like that.

12- I can't believe how much they paid for their holiday.

- A) They didn't tell me why their holiday was so expensive.
B) The price of their vacation seems unbelievable to me.
C) In my opinion, they could have bought the same vacation much more cheaply.
D) I would never pay as much as they did for a holiday.
E) You don't know how much they paid for their holiday, do you?

13- Do you know what they are going to do to dispose of their old furniture when they move to Australia?

- A) Do you have any knowledge about how they are going to get rid of their old furniture before they move to Australia?
B) Do you think they are going to sell their old furniture before they move to Australia?
C) They are going to get rid of all of their old furniture before they move to Australia aren't they?
D) I can't believe how much furniture they have to get rid of when they move to Australia, can you?

E) Do you know whether or not they are taking all of their furniture with them when they move to Australia?

14- As there were four of us, it was more economical to buy a group ticket.

- A) We knew that four people could travel on a group ticket, which would be more cost effective.
- B) We purchased a group ticket because, being four of us, it worked out cheaper that way.
- C) I saved some money by buying a ticket which is valid for four visits:
- D) All four of us should buy a season ticket in order to save money.
- E) A group ticket is designed for four people to use, so it is very economical.

15- Even though she took expensive holidays and wore designer clothes, the accountant's wife insisted that she was unaware of her husband's deception.

- A) The accountant was unaware of his wife's deception even though she went on luxury holidays and wore expensive clothes.
- B) The accountant didn't tell his wife that he was being deceitful in order to pay for her extravagant lifestyle, which included designer clothes and expensive holidays.
- C) The accountant's wife was totally unaware that her husband was deceiving her because he bought her expensive clothes and sent her on luxury holidays.
- D) Despite going on luxury holidays and having a wardrobe full of designer labels,-the accountant's wife denied that she had known about her husband's deception.
- E) It was clear that the accountant's wife must have known about his deception because she wore designer clothes and went on expensive holidays.

16- I had no idea where to buy a telephone cable extension, so I asked the sales assistant at the newsagent's.

- A) I don't know where you can buy a telephone cable extension, but I would ask the assistant at the newsagent's as she lives around here.
- B) I didn't know where to go to buy a telephone cable extension, but I finally found one at the newsagent's.
- C) The assistant in the newsagent's kindly told me where to go to buy a telephone cable extension.
- D) I asked whether the newsagent sold telephone cable extensions, but they didn't and they didn't know anywhere that did.
- E) I enquired whether the sales assistant at the newsagent's knew anywhere that sold telephone cable extensions, as I didn't know which shop to go to 17- I had no idea what to buy my sister for her birthday, so I asked my mother for her suggestion.

- A) My mother had no suggestions about what I should buy for my sister's birthday, so I don't know what I'm going to get.
- B) Having no idea what to buy my sister for her birthday, I asked my mother to buy something for me.
- C) I asked my mother what she thought would make a nice present for my sister's birthday, as I couldn't think of anything.
- D) I didn't know what I should get as a birthday present for my sister, but, luckily, my mother gave me some useful ideas.
- E) I never know what to get my sister for her birthday, but my mother usually gives me a suggestion, which works out quite well.

18- They maintain that this issue will be discussed at the forthcoming council meeting.

- A) Their claim was that this matter had already been discussed at the previous council meeting.
- B) They claimed that they were going to discuss this matter at the council meeting, but they didn't.
- C) It is necessary that this, topic should form the focus of the discussion at the next council meeting.
- D) They asserted that there was a need for this topic to be discussed at the impending council meeting.
- E) They claim that there will be a discussion about this topic at the next meeting of the council.

19- We were a little disappointed to find that the mayor himself had not attended the award ceremony.

- A) The fact that the mayor was not present in person at the award ceremony disappointed us a little.
- B) The mayor had promised to attend the award presentations, but he was unable to in the end.
- C) What disappointed us most about th< ceremony was that the awards were not presented by the mayor himself.
- D) As we expected, the mayor didn't attend the award ceremony, which did not disappoint us at all
- E) By riot going to the ceremony, the mayor disappointed both the audience and the award winners.

20- It took a long time for us to find the answer to what had seemed a simple question.

- A) Sometimes the simplest questions take the longest time for us to answer.
- B) It took them quite a long time to think of an answer to the simple question we asked them.
- C) We spent some time looking for an answer until we realised how simple the question actually was.
- D) It appears to be a very simple question, but people have been trying to answer it for a long time.
- E) We spent a lot of time looking for an answer even though we had considered the question to be an easy one.

21- British novelist Ian Fleming is the man who created James Bond, the best-known hero of spy fiction in the late 20th century.

- A) Ian Fleming was a famous British spy late in the 20th century who created and wrote about a fictional character by the name of James Bond.
- B) James Bond and Ian. Fleming were fictional British spy characters who were both very famous in the late 20th century.
- C) Ian Fleming wrote extensively about the British spy James Bond in the late 1900s, but most of what he wrote was , fiction.
- D) James Bond, the most well-known fictional spy character of the late 1900s, is the creation of the British author Ian Fleming.
- E) Ian Fleming is considered a British hero for his creation of James Bond, a fictional spy whom he wrote of in the late 20th century.

22- According to Greek mythology, the god Apollo granted King Midas the gift that everything he touched would turn to gold, but since even his food did so, he had to ask the god to take the gift back.

- A) According to Greek mythology, King Midas didn't like to eat golden food, so he asked the god Apollo if he could take back his ability to turn everything into gold.
- B) Greek mythology tells us that Apollo tricked King Midas when he gave him the power to turn everything he touched into gold because Midas wasn't able to eat anything until Apollo withdrew the gift.
- C) In Greek mythology, the ability to turn everything he touched into gold was given to King Midas by the god Apollo, but Midas was forced to give it back when he found that his touch turned even his food to gold.
- D) In Greek mythology, King Midas had the favour of the god Apollo, who gave him the gift of being able to turn whatever he touched into gold, but " Midas refused to receive this gift.
- E) According to Greek myth, Apollo thought that King Midas was too greedy, so he taught him a lesson by making everything he touched, including his food, turn to gold, until Midas asked him to withdraw the gift.

23- With his groundbreaking films of the ocean, Jacques Cousteau revealed to the world the hidden universe under the se

- A) Jacques Cousteau introduced the public to the unknown world which lies beneath the sea through his original and innovative films.
- B) Jacques Cousteau wanted to show the hidden underwater ecosystem to the general public, so he made films of it for them.
- C) Using special underwater cameras, Jacques Cousteau was able to show everyone what lies hidden beneath the se
- D) There is an unknown world underneath the sea, and it was Jacques Cousteau who first discovered that and shared his information with others.
- E) Jacques Cousteau was a passionate filmmaker who loved to film the hidden world beneath the sea and have others watch what he had filmed.

- 24- Amsterdam has a reputation for tolerance and individualism, so it is a place where people of differing religions and lifestyles have long been welcome.
- A) People with different religions and ways of living have always been well-received in Amsterdam because it is a city known for being tolerant and supportive of personal independence.
 - B) People love Amsterdam because of its welcoming atmosphere towards everyone, regardless of their religion or lifestyle.
 - C) The people of Amsterdam have always been known for their tolerance of people who have religions different from their own as well as different ways of living their lives.
 - D) Amsterdam is a very tolerant city where individuals from all different backgrounds are welcomed and can live whatever kind of lifestyle they prefer.
 - E) People like to visit Amsterdam because of its tolerant lifestyle and the mixture of religions welcomed by all in the city.
- 25- Some people feel that you can't simplify grief by ignoring it, but that instead you just have to acknowledge it.
- A) Even when they are sad, some people are able to suppress their feelings and go through life normally.
 - B) People who can get past their own grief should still be acknowledged for their efforts in grieving.
 - C) Being in grief can be a simple matter if you have people around you to sit with you and acknowledge your feelings.
 - D) That you have to grieve is an accepted belief by those who have spent time simplifying and acknowledging it.
 - E) According to some, with grief, you should come to terms with it rather than trying to turn away from it.
- 26- When she arrived in New York fresh from college and a trip abroad, she was broke but excited.
- A) Her trip abroad cost a lot of money and now she is broke, but she is thrilled to be finally in New York after graduating from college.
 - B) When she moved to New York, she didn't have any money left because she had spent it all on tuition and a holiday abroad.
 - C) After she graduated from college in New York, she was excited about taking a trip overseas, but she was running out of money.
 - D) She didn't have any money, but she was full of enthusiasm at the time she came to New York, having just completed college and a holiday overseas.
 - E) She took one last trip abroad after college and before going to New York, where she planned to make a new life for herself.
- 27- During the early years of the American Revolution, Britain controlled the seas and its powerful fleet enabled it to blockade much of the coast and to strike wherever it chose.
- A) It was only early on in the American Revolution that Britain had control of the seas, because eventually the Americans were able to run the blockades and make surprise attacks.
 - B) Since Britain had so many powerful warships, it was able to maintain control of the seas during the American Revolution by blocking access to the coast and making attacks.
 - C) Since Britain dominated the seas at the beginning of the American Revolution, it was able to attack any place it wanted as well as blockade most of the coast using its strong fleet.
 - D) Even though Britain had control of the seas, the Americans were able to defeat the British navy during the American Revolution through blockades and attacks.
 - E) Britain possessed such a powerful navy during the early years of the American Revolution that the Americans stood no chance against its blockades or the attacks made wherever the British wanted.
- 28- A real-life suicide epidemic in southern Turkey in the early nineties likely inspired Orhan Pamuk's novel Snow.
- A) The actual suicide cases in the south of Turkey in the early nineties must have deeply affected the author Orhan Pamuk, since he dealt with this as his theme in his novel 'Snow'.
 - B) When Orhan Pamuk heard about the mass suicides in southern Turkey during the early nineties, he was inspired to write the novel Snow based on the events.
 - C) Orhan Pamuk was personally touched by a suicide in southern Turkey in the early 1990s and wrote about this even in his novel Snow.
 - D) The novel Snow was inspired by actual events in the author Orhan Pamuk's life in the early nineties, when there was a suicide epidemic in southern Turkey.
 - E) It is probable that it was an actual rash of suicides in the south of Turkey during the early 1990s that supplied Orhan Pamuk with the inspiration for his novel Snow.
- 29- Charlotte loves the look of her white wrought-iron garden chairs, although she knows that they are very uncomfortable to sit on.

- A) Charlotte is thinking of replacing the white wrought-iron chairs she is using in the garden because, even though they are pretty, they are not comfortable.
- B) It doesn't bother Charlotte that she is uncomfortable while sitting on her white wrought-iron garden chairs, because she loves them so much.
- C) Whenever Charlotte sits in the garden on her white wrought-iron chairs, she thinks that they look nice but that they are pretty uncomfortable.
- D) Even though she knows that they don't look very nice and they are pretty uncomfortable, Charlotte loves the white wrought-iron chairs in her garden.
- E) Charlotte is aware that it is not comfortable to sit on her white wrought-iron garden chairs, but she does love the fact that they look so nice that she loves.

30- NuKitchen is a New York based company that delivers wholesome prepared meals, which they drop off every morning in a cooler bag.

- A) When you use NuKitchen in New York, you will learn how to prepare healthy foods out of the ingredients that are delivered to you every morning in cooler bags.
- B) There is a company based in New York called NuKitchen which will prepare and deliver healthy foods to you each morning in a cooler bag.
- C) NuKitchen cooler bags are delivered all over New York each morning with healthy food for people too busy to prepare their own meals.
- D) You can only use NuKitchen if you live in New York since they only deliver their healthy, ready-made meals within the city each morning using cooler bags.
- E) You can tell who uses NuKitchen in New York by the cooler bags containing prepared healthy meals sitting outside some houses in the mornings.

31- Just before his death, George Plimpton wrote an opera for children called Animal Tales, and his widow is looking for funding to get it produced.

- A) The funding for George Plimpton's children's opera, Animal Tales, ran out before he died, so now his wife is trying to get it produced.
- B) George Plimpton's wife is trying to raise money to produce her late husband's opera for children, Animal Tales, which he wrote a short time before he passed away.
- C) Since there aren't many operas for children, George Plimpton's widow is determined to find funding to produce Animal Tales, which her husband had written just before he died.
- D) Just before he passed away, George Plimpton had written an opera for children called Animal Tales, and now his widow has managed to raise enough funds to get it produced.
- E) George Plimpton's early death has left his wife alone in the struggle to raise funds for his children's opera, Animal Tales, the last work he completed before his death.

32- The easiest way to find any destination in the city is to find the neighbourhood you want and then ask someone on the street

- A) Since it is so easy to get lost in such a big city, rather than trying to find an address on your own, you should ask someone who is familiar with the neighbourhood for directions.
- B) If you are in a strange neighbourhood, it can be difficult to find an address if you don't have someone in the area give you directions.
- C) People on the street are usually very helpful when you ask them for directions in the neighbourhood where you are lost.
- D) When you are trying to find a certain location within the city, it is best first to go to the general area, and then ask for directions from someone there.
- E) If you end up in a different location than you were trying to get to, just ask the people on the street for directions this has always been the easiest method.

33- In the early 1800s, American circus men were wanderers who went from town to town in wagons drawn by horses and mules.

- A) The circus first started in America in the early 1800s when travelling men went around the country putting on shows using horses and mules.
- B) The modern circus is very different from that of the 1800s, when the circus people and animals had ---- to travel around in wagons.
- C) American circus men during the early 1800s travelled around the country using wagons pulled by mules and horses.
- D) The life of a circus man in the 1800s was very difficult since he had to travel around the country in wagons pulled by horses and mules.
- E) In the early 1800s, the circus was composed only of men, who travelled . in wagons from town to town and used their horses and mules in their shows.

- 34- What makes English a very difficult language for native Turkish speakers to learn is its complete reversal of sentence structure from that of their own language.
- A) Native Turkish speakers often have a hard time learning English since they change the sentence structure around.
 - B) For native Turkish speakers, English is really hard to learn because the order of an English sentence is just the opposite of a Turkish sentence.
 - C) An English sentence is formed in a different way than a Turkish sentence, so it's one of the hardest languages for native Turkish speakers to learn.
 - D) Since Turkish has a completely different sentence structure than English, it is very difficult for native speakers of other languages to learn.
 - E) Native Turkish speakers find it almost impossible to learn English because of the differences between the word orders of both languages.
- 35- The opinions of the teaching staff were divided as to whether they should change the course book or follow the old one.
- A) Some members of the teaching staff were in favour of following a new course book, while others thought they should continue with the old one.
 - B) In the end, the teaching staff decided that some of them should follow the old course book, while the others could choose a new one.
 - C) The teaching staff could not agree upon a new course book, so they decided to continue with the old one.
 - D) There was no general agreement among the teaching staff about which they should choose as their new course book.
 - E) There were different opinions among the teaching staff about the new course book, and in the end, those who were against choosing a new one won.
- 36- It was very important for Jill to go home to see her sister's new baby girl, whatever the cost of the ticket.
- A) Even though Jill wanted very much to fly home and meet her sister's baby girl, the fare was too much for her.
 - B) Jill didn't care about the cost of the ticket, since the only thing she wanted was to get home to meet her sister's new-born daughter.
 - C) Because Jill doesn't have a lot of money, flying home to meet her sister's new daughter was less important to her than the cost of the ticket.
 - D) Knowing how important it was for Jill to meet her new niece, Jill's sister took care of the cost of the ticket so that she could fly home and do so.
 - E) Whenever Jill decided to go home to see her sister's daughter, she would see the high prices and so give up the idea.
- 37- The office in which the American President works is not located in the White House proper, but is in the building for executive offices, commonly called the West Wing.
- A) What is often referred to as the West Wing is the part of the White House proper where the executive offices, including the President's, are located.
 - B) All the executive offices are located in a separate building close to the White House, while the President's office is within the White House itself.
 - C) The White House proper is referred to as the West Wing by the President and those executives whose offices are located there, and now this term is commonly used.
 - D) The original name for the executive and Presidential offices in the White House was the West Wing, but now this is just used for the executive ones.
 - E) The West Wing, as it is typically referred to, is where executive offices, including the American President's, are found, and actually, it is not within the White House.
- 38- One-third of the babies born to mothers who drink heavily, especially during the first three months of pregnancy, have birth defects.
- A) Alcohol can be fatal to an unborn baby if its mother drinks a lot, and the risk is one-third higher during the first three months of the pregnancy.

- B) If a pregnant woman drinks during the first three months of pregnancy, the risks are one-third greater than the child will be born deformed than if she doesn't.
- C) It is only dangerous for a pregnant woman to drink in the early stages of her pregnancy because then the baby would be likely to be born with birth defects.
- D) There is about a thirty-three percent risk that the baby will have a birth defect if a pregnant woman drinks a lot of alcohol, particularly during the first three months of her pregnancy.
- E) Doctors have been able to prove the link between pregnant mothers drinking alcohol and a third of their babies being born with birth defects.

39- Coral reefs create underwater habitats that are essential for many species of marine organisms, and there are also some fish who use them as a refuge from predators.

- A) Coral reefs are very important for many kinds of marine life forms because they provide a place to live as well as a place for some fish to hide from their enemies.
- B) Many fish tend to stay in coral reefs because there they are both safe from predators and supplied with a rich food source.
- C) Coral reefs provide a place to live for many types of sea creatures, including predators who use them as a place to rest.
- D) Predatory fish know that their prey like to hide from them in coral reefs, so they wait nearby for them to leave, and then they attack them.
- E) Coral reefs are becoming scarce and this creates an important problem for the many marine animals which use them as a place to live as well as a place of protection.

40- Communicating with locals in a foreign country is a bit like becoming a mime since you must often rely on hand gestures.

- A) In foreign countries, you will often see local mimes who communicate solely by using their hands so that everyone can understand what they are trying to say.
- B) Locals in a foreign country who don't know another language often communicate with tourists by miming.
- C) You often feel like a mime when you are trying to speak to someone in a foreign country because of frequently having to use your hands to convey what you are trying to say.
- D) When miming, it is important to remember to use your hands, especially when you are speaking to locals in a foreign country.
- E) The mimes in foreign countries are often the same as your own local mimes since they all use their hands in trying to communicate.

41- Despite the firefighters' efforts, the building burned down completely.

- A) As a result of what the firefighters had done, the building was destroyed in the fire.
- B) The fire entirely destroyed the building even though the firefighters tried to stop it.
- C) It was the firefighters' efforts that saved the burning building from destruction.
- D) The building would not have burned completely if the firefighters had tried harder.
- E) The firefighters did not work hard enough, and so the building was entirely burned down.

42- Among the diplomats to whom the minister sent written invitations to the dinner was Ms. Peterson.

- A) The minister wrote to Ms. Peterson himself, as he felt she should be among the diplomats invited to the dinner.
- B) Ms. Peterson delivered written invitations to all the diplomats for the dinner that the minister had scheduled.
- C) Unlike the other diplomats at the minister's dinner, Ms. Peterson was the only one to be invited in writing.
- D) Ms. Peterson was one of the diplomats who received a dinner invitation from the minister in writing.
- E) Except for Ms. Peterson, all of the diplomats present at the dinner had written invitations with them.

43- In India, a sure sign that the monsoons are coming is when winds start increasing.

- A) Rising winds are a strong indication of the arrival of the monsoons to India.
- B) It is clear that, in India, it is only when the monsoons come that the wind increases.
- C) In India, the winds definitely do not increase until the monsoons have arrived.
- D) Seeing that the winds are increasing in India, I'm convinced that the monsoons are coming.
- E) The people of India think that the monsoons have come whenever the winds rise.

44- I was enthusiastic about seeing the Istanbul Toy Museum because Aslihan had spoken so well of it.

- A) Aslihan's praise of the Istanbul Toy Museum makes me think that it might be an interesting place to see.
- B) I hadn't been really interested in the Istanbul Toy Museum until Aslihan told me that it was excellent.
- C) I was very pleased to hear from Aslihan that the Istanbul Toy Museum was a wonderful place to visit.
- D) Immediately after Aslihan told me how good the Istanbul Toy Museum was, I went to see it.
- E) What made me very eager to visit the Istanbul Toy Museum was Aslihan's saying such good things about it.

45- That the sky had just turned black made it obvious that I should have taken my umbrella with me.

- A) I had unfortunately forgotten my umbrella because I hadn't expected such a powerful storm from those dark clouds.
- B) I had no idea why I did not take my umbrella with me, as the sky had been becoming increasingly dark.
- C) It was the threatening storm that made me consider going back to pick up my umbrella.
- D) I did not bring my umbrella since it would have been of little use against the kind of storm that the dark sky promised.
- E) I realized I ought to have brought my umbrella when it became clear that a storm was approaching.

46- Something led Eda to believe that Arzu and Ulaş had got separated.

- A) That Arzu and Ulaş had got separated was what Eda made people believe.
- B) According to Eda's way of thinking, Arzu and Ulaş ought to get separated.
- C) Eda somehow got the impression that Arzu and Ulaş were no longer living together.
- D) Eda informed both Arzu and Ulaş that it would be better if they stopped living together.
- E) Arzu and Ulaş have separated, just as Eda had anticipated.

47- It is Wilbur who the police of Knoxville suspect was the one that robbed the jeweller's.

- A) The police of Knoxville are wondering if it was Wilbur or someone else who robbed the jeweller's.
- B) Wilbur is thought by the Knoxville police to have robbed the jeweller's.
- C) The jeweller's was robbed, and the Knoxville police have arrested Wilbur for it.
- D) The police in Knoxville are questioning Wilbur about the robbery at the jeweller's.
- E) Wilbur thinks that the Knoxville police suspect him of having robbed the jeweller's.

48- What you need to do most is to organize your study time, which would prevent you from panicking before exams.

- A) If you just studied a bit harder, you certainly wouldn't be as terrified of tests as you are now.
- B) Organizing your hours of study would probably help you not to panic when there is an exam approaching.
- C) Your biggest problem is that you do not study and, as a result, you are frightened of exams, which is entirely preventable.
- D) More than anything else, you ought to study according to a system, so as not to get terrified prior to tests.
- E) You can only avoid panicking before exams by finding a way to study in a systematic manner.

49- The fact that Aaron hardly works at all is likely to get him fired soon.

- A) It must be Aaron's low level of work that he is being fired for.
- B) Aaron works so little that they are thinking of firing him a short time from now.
- C) Aaron may well lose his job before long as a result of his doing almost no work.
- D) Aaron might not have been fired so quickly if he had only done a bit more work.
- E) It is known that Aaron will lose his job soon, as he hasn't been doing any work.

50- The band must start playing at 9 o'clock, regardless of whether the singer comes on time.

- A) At 9 o'clock, the band will begin playing without the singer, who is going to arrive late.
- B) The group's performance has been scheduled for 9 o'clock, although the singer will probably arrive late.
- C) Even if the singer does not arrive on schedule, the group has to begin their performance at 9 o'clock.
- D) The band has decided that it will start playing at 9 o'clock, even if the singer has not arrived by then.

E) The band ought to start playing at 9 o'clock, but the singer may not be coming on schedule.

51- Academics disagree over whether there was a massive flood of water into the Black Sea around 5600 B

A) Although a very large amount of water flooded into the Black Sea sometime around 5600 BC, some academics refuse to accept that it happened.

B) Some academics think that there was an enormous flood of water into the Black Sea sometime around 5600 BC, while others don't.

C) How the Black Sea was flooded in the year 5600 BC is something that academics cannot come to an agreement on.

D) Academics can't agree with each other over when the Black Sea received an enormous flood of water, although some think it was around 5600 B

E) Academics argue over whether the Black Sea has been extremely heavily flooded at any time since 5600 B

52- Wherever the Romans conquered, they created or maintained civilized cities.

A) In the places that the Romans took control of, they either set up or protected civilized urban areas.

B) The cities conquered by the Romans formed the basis of their civilization.

C) The civilized cities established or protected by the Romans were found all over their empire.

D) The Romans conquered places in order to set up or maintain cultured cities.

E) Whenever the Romans took control of an area, they would set up and then maintain cultured cities in it.

53- There have been many different theories on how the ancestors of the Rapa Nui people moved and then raised their 14-ton statues.

A) Why the Rapa Nui people's ancestors carried and then put up their 14-ton statues is not agreed upon by everybody.

B) Different ideas have been put forward on whether the ancestors of the Rapa Nui people transported and then raised statues weighing 14 tons.

C) It is not known how the earlier generations of the Rapa Nui people moved their raised 14-ton statues.

D) The method the Rapa Nui people's ancestors used to transport and then put up their 14-ton statues has been the subject of a lot of different theories.

E) There are a few convincing theories which explain how the Rapa Nui people put up their 14-ton statues after moving them.

54- Whatever reason Vincent gave for not coming in to work today, I'm sure it was a lie.

A) Vincent's excuse for not turning up for work today is something that I can't accept as being true.

B) Today, Vincent lied and said that he would not be coming in to work.

C) Vincent was lying about not coming in to work today; I'm certain of it.

D) Even though I don't know what it was, the excuse given by Vincent today for being absent must be untrue.

E) Vincent is a liar, so I'm certain that he found some excuse for not coming in to work today.

55- Akako can't remember how much money is left in her bank account.

A) Akako can't decide how much money she should leave in the bank.

B) Akako has forgotten the amount of money she now has in the bank.

C) Akako can't recall how much money she put into her bank account.

D) Akako forgot to leave any money in her bank account.

E) Akako keeps her money in the bank, but she never knows how much she has.

56- The walkway to the Haji Ali Dargah in Mumbai is unpassable whenever there is a high tide.

A) Because of the level of the sea around the Haji Ali Dargah in Mumbai, it is impossible to cross the walkway to it.

B) When the tide is high, the Haji Ali Dargah and the walkway to it are underwater.

C) Due to high tides, nobody from Mumbai crosses the walkway to the Haji Ali Dargah anymore.

D) It is only possible to cross by the walkway to the Haji Ali Dargah in Mumbai while the tide is low.

E) The current level of the sea means that the walkway to the Haji Ali Dargah in Mumbai cannot be used.

57- Marcus likes both Korean and Japanese, so he can't decide which one to study at university.

A) Even though Marcus likes Korean and Japanese, he can't work out which university he should go to.

B) Although Marcus likes both Korean and Japanese, he doesn't know if he'll study them at university.

C) Marcus is thinking of studying Japanese at university, although he likes Korean as well.

- D) Despite his love of Korean and Japanese, Marcus doesn't know whether to study one of them at university.
- E) Marcus doesn't know whether to study Korean or Japanese at university, because he likes them both

58- Although it was one of the most important battles in history, it is still not certain where exactly the Battle of Gaugamela took place

- A) The location of the Battle of Gaugamela is uncertain, despite the fact that the battle was among history's most important.
- B) Because not much is known about it, it is not clear whether the Battle of Gaugamela was one of the most significant battles in history.
- C) Nobody has any idea where the Battle of Gaugamela was fought, even though it is included among history's important battles.
- D) Because of the Battle of Gaugamela's importance to world history, historians want to be certain about where it occurred.
- E) The reasons why the Battle of Gaugamela was fought are not clear, but it turned out to be one of history's most significant battles.

59- Historians are uncertain about why Indonesian peoples crossed all the way over the Indian Ocean to settle on Madagascar.

- A) Historians are unsure why Indonesian peoples settled on islands all over the Indian Ocean, including on Madagascar.
- B) The reason why Indonesian peoples went from one side of the Indian Ocean to the other in order to settle on Madagascar is not clear to historians.
- C) How the Indonesian people managed to reach Madagascar after travelling around the Indian Ocean is something that historians are uncertain of.
- D) Historians don't know if Indonesian peoples travelled from one side of the Indian Ocean to the other in order to live on Madagascar.
- E) Which Indonesian peoples travelled all the way across the Indian Ocean to set up homes on Madagascar is unknown to historians.

60- However you cook those potatoes, Hugo will still eat them.

- A) You'd better ask Hugo how he'd like his potatoes, or he won't eat them.
- B) Hugo will eat those potatoes so long as they have been cooked.
- C) In whatever way you cook those potatoes, they will still be eaten by Hugo.
- D) If you cook those potatoes in the way that Hugo likes, he'll certainly eat them.
- E) The potatoes will be consumed by Hugo whether you are the cook or not.

1- The skeletons of animals would be too stiff to move if bones were not fitted with joints.

- A) An animal that has no joints between its bones lacks a skeleton capable of moving easily.
- B) It's the flexibility of joints combining bones that allow animals' skeletons to move.
- C) The stiffness animals may feel from time to time is due to a problem in their joints, which bind bones together.
- D) The moving parts of an animal skeleton that combine bones are known as joints.
- E) If an animal has damaged joints, the flexible parts of its skeleton, it may have difficulty moving.

2- It's estimated that seventy-five percent of alcoholics are male.

- A) Men are three times as likely to drink alcoholic drinks as women.
- B) It is believed that three quarters of men are addicted to alcohol.
- C) According to estimates, only one quarter of those addicted to alcohol are women.
- D) While three quarters of men are alcoholic, the rate is only one quarter among women.
- E) Alcoholism has been proven to affect one quarter of all males and females.

3- She thinks that the exam will last three hours, which seems very unlikely.

- A) According to her, it is extremely improbable that the exam is going to take three hours to complete.
- B) She believes that any exam lasting three hours will be very unpopular.
- C) Although it is unpopular, she is going to set us a three-hour examination.
- D) It doesn't appear probable that the exam is going to take three hours, as she believes it will.
- E) Having lasted three hours, the exam was longer than she had expected.

4- The law, called Murphy's law, which states that if something can go wrong, it probably will, gets its name from a US Air Force captain, Edward Murphy.

- A) Murphy's law, stating that whatever can go wrong very likely will, is named after Captain Edward Murphy of the US Air Force.
- B) Murphy, whose law wrongly stated that anything can go wrong at any time, was a captain in the US Air Force.
- C) Captain Edward Murphy of the US Air Force, who named a law after himself, thought that every situation in life involves problems.
- D) Whatever can go wrong most likely will is a law of the US Air Force, named after one of its captains, Edward Murphy.
- E) The first man to say that something that can go wrong will definitely do so was Captain Edward Murphy in the US Air Force.

5- As far as I am aware, there is only one school in Istanbul which offers Turkish classes for foreigners,

- A) Turkish classes for foreigners are only available at one school in Istanbul, and that's the one I'm attending.
- B) Offering Turkish classes for foreigners, my school is the only one in Istanbul that I know of.
- C) Of all the learning institutions in Istanbul that provide Turkish Language instruction, there is only one I would recommend.
- D) I only know of one learning institution offering foreigners Turkish lessons in Istanbul.
- E) I know that this school provides Turkish classes for foreigners willing to learn the language.

6- In two weeks' time, my husband and I are taking a holiday, which we both need as we have been very tired lately.

- A) Since my husband and I are both exhausted from the heavy work we've done recently, we are taking a two-week holiday
- B) Both exhausted, my husband and I need to take a fortnight's holiday as soon as possible.
- C) We really needed the fortnight's holiday that we have just taken because both my husband and I were extremely tired.
- D) My husband and I would greatly benefit from a holiday as we have got extremely tired in the last two weeks.
- E) Because we have been exhausted recently, both my husband and I need the holiday which we will be taking in a fortnight.

7- The company is looking for new recruits with some managerial experience.

- A) The business, which is a management company, wants to employ some experienced people.
- B) The firm is seeking new employees who have some practical knowledge of management.
- C) With the help of a recruitment firm, the company searched for new experienced staff.
- D) The firm should find some new experienced staff to work as managers.
- E) To qualify to work for this business, which is seeking new employees, you have to be a manager at the moment.

8- Families having very little income are usually too busy surviving to worry about politics or similar issues.

- A) Poorer families, whose only concerns are for themselves, do care about politics but not other social issues.
- B) Families with small incomes busy themselves with social issues like politics because, as they are normally unemployed, they have plenty of time.
- C) Issues such as politics don't generally concern families with, very small earnings because they are fully occupied with supporting themselves.
- D) Social issues such as politics don't really affect less well off families, who should concentrate only on their own survival.
- E) Being busy with their own problems, low income families are only rarely aware of the importance of politics and other social problems.

9- A special code, which is attached to each box of fruit, allows us to identify the grower and the date on which the fruit was picked.

- A) We are able to trace the farmer and to tell on which date the fruit was harvested by a special code, attached to every separate box of fruit.
- B) We were able to locate the farmer and to find out how old the fruit was by looking at the tag on the box.
- C) Identifying the farmer and the age of the fruit we sell is very easy because we keep a special code on our computer.
- D) We don't sell any fruit without first finding out the name of the farmer and the date on which the fruit was harvested.
- E) The name of the farmer and the date on which the fruit was harvested is clearly printed on every separate box of fruit we sell.

10- We are currently out of stock of the knitting needles you need for this pattern.

- A) We don't sell the size of knitting needles that you need to knit this pullover.
- B) At the moment, we don't have in stock the needles which you require to knit this pattern.
- C) You won't be able to start knitting this pattern until this shop gets the needles required for this pattern.
- D) I'm afraid, we have never stocked the size of knitting needle required for this pattern.
- E) If you don't need the knitting needles urgently, we can order the size you require for this pattern.

11- The swimming-pool where we wanted to swim is part of a sports complex, which is very expensive to join.

- A) Joining the sports centre, although dear, meant that we could use the swimming-pool whenever we wanted.
- B) Not wishing to pay such a high membership fee, we didn't join the sports centre, and therefore, couldn't use their swimming-pool.
- C) Wanting to use the swimming-pool, which is part of a larger sports centre, we paid a large membership fee.
- D) The swimming-pool, where a large entrance fee is charged, is part of the sports centre which we wanted to join.
- E) We wanted to use a swimming-pool belonging to a sports centre, where they charge a lot of money for membership.

12- Watching England beat Tunisia made Tim proud of his country, while watching their football hooligans had the opposite effect.

- A) Whereas he was ashamed to witness English football hooligans, Tim felt proud of his country for winning their match against Tunisia
- B) Tim thought that the English football fans disgraced their country, whereas the football players themselves were very well behaved.
- C) Tim believes that the violent football fans at the match between England and Tunisia, which England won, ought to be ashamed of themselves.

- D) Tim would rather the television station hadn't shown the English hooligans because it spoilt the excitement which he felt at his country winning their match.
- E) It was nice for Tim to see his country, England, win their match against Tunisia, but worrying to see the footballers fighting with each other.

13- What Istanbul needs most is an efficient underground metro system, which would remove some of the traffic from its roads.

- A) They are building a metro system in Istanbul, which will help reduce the amount of road traffic
- B) The greatest problem facing Istanbul is the amount of road traffic, and one way to solve this would be to build an underground subway system.
- C) More than anything else, Istanbul requires a reliable underground metro system to decrease the amount of road traffic.
- D) If Istanbul had a reliable underground metro system like most large modern cities, the problem of traffic congestion would be solved.
- E) Reducing the amount of road traffic is a main concern for those who are responsible for Istanbul's public transport.

14- We had to choose a car costing no more than 10,000 dollars.

- A) We are looking for a car which offers the best value for less than 10,000 dollars.
- B) The choice of cars for less than 10,000 dollars is very limited.
- C) It was not easy to find a good car priced below 10,000 dollars.
- D) We didn't look at any cars priced more than 10,000 dollars, which was all we could afford.
- E) Our choice of car was restricted to those which cost 10,000 dollars or less.

15- There are rumours that William Wordsworth's sister, Dorothy, actually wrote many of the poems with which he is credited.

- A) It is not well-known that William Wordsworth's sister, Dorothy, also wrote fine poetry similar to her brothers'.
- B) Writing many poems similar to her brothers', Dorothy Wordsworth, whose work has received little credit, remains relatively unknown.
- C) The extent to which William Wordsworth's work is his own was questioned by his sister Dorothy, who also wrote fine poems.
- D) It is believed by some that Dorothy Wordsworth's poetry is as fine as her more famous brother, William's.
- E) It is suspected by some that much of William Wordsworth's poetry was in fact written by his sister, Dorothy.

16- Labour party leader Tony Blair became the United Kingdom's prime minister in 1997, ending eighteen years of Conservative party rule.

- A) Before he became the leader of the Labour party, the British prime minister, Tony Blair, had served in the Conservative party for eighteen years.
- B) The fact that Tony Blair, the Labour party leader, was elected prime minister in 1997 marked the end of an eighteen-year Conservative party-reign in the United Kingdom.
- C) When he became the British prime minister, Labour party leader Tony Blair had been fighting the Conservative party for eighteen years.
- D) It's wondered whether British Labour party, whose leader Tony Blair became prime minister in 1997, will be in power as long as the Conservative party.
- E) Labour party's victory over the Conservative party in 1997, making Tony Blair the United Kingdom's prime minister, was the fruit of his eighteen-year struggle.

17- The Malaysian population is made up of several races practising different religions, which enriches the varied and fascinating feel of the country.

- A) Malaysia is a very interesting country to study because there are so many different peoples, who belong to a number of different religions.
- B) The people of Malaysia, who come from many ethnic backgrounds, usually worship more than one religion.
- C) Malaysia, whose population is mixed-race, is hard to understand because of all the different religions that people belong to.
- D) Malaysia's mixed-race population, which follows various religions, adds to the diverse and superb atmosphere of the country.
- E) There is a conflict between various ethnic groups in Malaysia, which results from people belonging to different religions.

18- Rejecting modern technology, the religious Amish people, numbering about 40,000 today, live in farming communities away from society.

- A) Making a living from simple farming without using modern equipment, there are approximately 40,000 Amish people living away from society.
- B) Living away from society, the religious Amish farmers, numbering approximately 40,000 today, have not benefited from modern technology.
- C) Numbering about 40,000, the Amish are a religious people who haven't learnt about modern technology yet as they live so far from city centres.
- D) The Amish, a religious people of whom about 40,000 still exist, refuse modern technology and live isolated from society in farming communities.
- E) As they are against using modern technology, about 40,000 of the Amish people prefer to live on small farms isolated from society.

19- An estuary is the wide part of a river at which it joins the sea

- A) An estuary is a big river which flows directly into the sea
- B) If a river which flows into the sea is broad, it is called an estuary.
- C) The broad area of a river at the point where it flows into the sea is called an estuary.
- D) Known as an estuary, the widest part of a river is normally the area where it flows into the sea
- E) Only those rivers which flow out into the sea have estuaries.

20- The Italian city of Bolzano, lying in the Alps on the banks of the river Isarco, is the centre of the German speaking part of the South Tyrol.

- A) Bolzano, an Italian city situated on the Isarco river in the Alps, is the heart of the area in the South Tyrol region where people speak German.
- B) Although in the South Tyrol, Italy, the alpine city of Bolzano, located beside the Isarco river, looks more like a German town.
- C) Forming the centre of the South Tyrol, the city of Bolzano, located in the Alps beside the Isarco river, has German as its official language.
- D) The people who live in the alpine city of Bolzano used to speak German because the city, on the banks of the Isarco river, is part of South Tyrol.
- E) Though it has an Italian name, the city of Bolzano is actually a German alpine city located beside the river Isarco in the South Tyrol.

21- It is hard to explain to my mother why I don't like my new job

- A) I explained to my mother why I don't like my new job, but she refuses to understand that.
- B) I explained to my mother that I don't like my new job as I have to work too hard there.
- C) Giving an explanation to my mother as to why I dislike my new job is not easy.
- D) Except for my mother, I could easily give everybody an explanation as to why I hate my new job
- E) My mother found it quite difficult to believe that I hated my new job

22- It was Jeremy Black, who works with Nigel, who caught the most fish.

- A) Nigel and his colleague Jeremy Black caught the most fish.
- B) The man who caught more fish than anyone else was Jeremy Black, a colleague of Nigel's.
- C) Nigel works with Jeremy Black/ who often goes fishing and usually catches a lot of fish.
- D) Nigel and his colleague, Jeremy Black, went fishing and Jeremy caught more fish than Nigel.
- E) I went fishing with Nigel and his colleague Jeremy Black, who caught the most fish among us.

23- The museum is visited mainly by those who are interested in the impressionist painters.

- A) The museum, which attracts large numbers of visitors, has a particularly interesting display of impressionist paintings.
- B) The museum, which displays mainly impressionist art, attracts visitors with a serious interest in art.
- C) A lot of visitors to the museum who are interested in Impressionism buy paintings,
- D) The museum, which displays only impressionist paintings, receives lots of visitors.
- E) Most of the visitors to the museum have an interest in artists from the era of Impressionism.

24- What he least expected to happen was for him to beat the champion.

- A) He thought his beating the champion was the most unlikely outcome.
- B) Everybody was quite surprised when he beat the champion.
- C) Everyone thought he would certainly be beaten by the champion.
- D) More than anything else, he wanted to beat the champion, but that was extremely unlikely.
- E) He was absolutely certain that the N champion would win the race.

25- The hotel where their wedding reception is being held is not far from the station.

- A) We can walk from the station to the hotel in which their wedding reception is being held.
- B) They are holding their wedding reception in a hotel situated close to the station.
- C) It's a long way from the station to the hotel they intend to hold their wedding reception in.
- D) It won't take us long to get from the station to the hotel on the day of their wedding.
- E) They are looking for a hotel close to the station in which to hold their wedding reception

26- This watch will retain its value forever.

- A) Make sure you always value this watch.
- B) If you keep this watch, it will become more and more valuable.
- C) This watch is as valuable as any.
- D) Keep this watch as it might become valuable some day.
- E) This watch will never lose its value.

27- The hardest job for anyone who has children is bringing them up to be decent citizens.

- A) For parents, the most rewarding job is raising their children to appreciate the difference between right and wrong.
- B) Most people don't take the job of bringing up children, which is the most difficult job in the world, seriously enough.
- C) I found bringing up my children to be sensible adults the most difficult job I have ever had.
- D) For parents, raising children so that they grow into responsible adults is the toughest task they will face.
- E) Bringing up children to be educated adults is one of the most difficult jobs in the world.

28- We should book a table in the restaurant for Friday night as it could be busy then.

- A) We booked a table because we were going to dine on Friday night, when the restaurant is usually busy.
- B) Since there is a possibility that the restaurant will be busy on Friday night, it would be a good idea for us to reserve a table.
- C) It is advisable to reserve tables on Friday nights, when the restaurant is exceptionally busy.
- D) We didn't know that we had to book a table, but it is the restaurant's policy on Friday nights, when they are particularly busy.
- E) In my opinion, there is no need to book a table at the restaurant, but, as we are dining on Friday, you may wish to.

29- When driving at night, I can't bear people driving towards me without dipping their head lamps.

- A) If drivers don't dip their head lamps at night, they can dazzle drivers coming in the opposite direction.
- B) Sometimes, when driving at night, I forget to dip my head lamps and dazzle a driver in a vehicle coming in the opposite direction.
- C) When at the wheel, I get annoyed with the drivers coming in the opposite direction at night who don't dip their head lamps.
- D) I get dazzled if a driver who is coming in the opposite direction does not dip his head lamps at night, which is very annoying.

- E) The thing I find most annoying when driving at night is drivers who don't dip their head lamps for oncoming traffic.

30- My mother-in-law has made an appointment with a chiropodist to ask about her foot, which has been troubling her lately.

- A) A chiropodist is treating my mother-in-law's foot, which has been unbearably painful for ages.
B) I have made an appointment with my mother-in-law's chiropodist because my foot has been painful to walk on for some time.
C) My mother-in-law should go and see a chiropodist about her foot because it has been very painful to walk on lately.
D) My mother-in-law suggested that I arrange to visit a chiropodist about my foot, which has been quite sore lately.
E) In order to find out what is wrong with her foot, from which she has been experiencing pain lately, my mother-in-law has arranged to see a chiropodist.

31- For my new project, I'm looking for a business partner who is honest and trustworthy.

- A) I'm starting a new business project, for which I will require a partner who is famous and has a good reputation
B) The most important qualities, in a business partner are reliability and truthfulness, but someone with both of these qualities is difficult to find.
C) I hope my business partner, who is usually trustworthy, works efficiently for this new project.
D) I'm trying to find someone who can be trusted and is truthful to be my partner in my new business project.
E) I wish I had a reliable and truthful partner in my new business project.

32- Developing nations cannot afford to buy advanced technology from the industrialised nations, which could improve their productivity in industry.

- A) Advanced technology owned by the developed world could improve industrial output in developing countries, but it is too expensive for them to buy.
B) The developed World is reluctant to share its advanced technology with the developing world, which doesn't want to pay for it.
C) When a developed country sells its technology to a poor country, it usually overcharges the purchasing country for it.
D) In developing countries, the lack of advanced technology, which they are reluctant to invest in, means their productivity is much lower than that of developed countries.
E) The gap between productivity in the undeveloped world and in the developed world keeps widening due mainly to the technological advances made by the industrialised nations.

33- Only those whose work takes place in disaster areas can really comprehend the psychological effects of mass devastation.

- A) People who don't work in areas where a catastrophe has occurred cannot fully understand the mental effects of total disaster.
B) Those people whose work involves treating the survivors of disasters have an appreciation of the mental scars their experiences can leave.
C) Being involved in a scene of physical devastation can leave psychological scars, which take years to overcome.
D) People who have never experienced this kind of physical devastation have no idea about the psychological scars it can leave.
E) Those who work in areas of total devastation can be badly damaged psychologically by their experiences.

34- This course is designed for students with a basic knowledge of the language.

- A) This course attracted a number of students who could already speak the language.
B) During this course, people will gain a basic knowledge of the language.
C) Basically, this is a course for absolute beginners in this language.
D) Students with a clear understanding of this language are ideally suited to this course.

E) This course is aimed at students who possess an elementary understanding of the language.

35- I believe everyone approves of this charitable organisation.

- A) It's impossible that anyone could doubt the good done by this charity.
- B) In my opinion, this charity does exceedingly good work.
- C) I don't think anyone disapproves of this charity.
- D) The work of this charity has gained widespread approval.
- E) The charity is believed to be supported by vast numbers of people.

36- She hadn't expected such wisdom from an uneducated man.

- A) He was surprisingly dull for the amount of education he had received, she thought.
- B) She had expected him to be wise, but he was actually an uneducated man.
- C) As he had never been to school, she didn't expect him to be literate.
- D) The amount of wisdom he possessed surprised everyone as he hadn't even finished school.
- E) Although he wasn't educated, the man was wise, which surprised her.

37- Six people were inside the bank which was set on fire by people taking part in the riots.

- A) Six people who were rioting set fire to the bank in protest.
- B) Six rioters involved in the arson attack were from the staff of the bank.
- C) The bank was set on fire by six people who were taking part in a riot.
- D) The bank which was set on fire by rioters had six people inside.
- E) Six people ^ied inside the bank which was set on fire by rioters.

38- It is possible for a spiny lobster to live up to twenty-five years.

- A) Most spiny lobsters live at least twenty-five years.
- B) The average life span of a spiny lobster is twenty-five years.
- C) Spiny lobsters are the longest living lobsters with a life span of twenty-five years.
- D) The life span of a spiny lobster can be as long as twenty-five years.
- E) The longest living spiny lobster existed for twenty-five years.

39- There is hardly a house which the mud slide has left standing in the town.

- A) There is a number of houses in the town'demolished by the mud slide.
- B) After the mud slide, there wasn't a house remaining in the town.
- C) The mud slide has torn down almost all the houses in the town.
- D) The mud slide almost missed the town, but some houses were damaged.
- E) A few houses were almost completely demolished by the mud slide in the town.

40- We rushed for shelter as soon as we heard the thunder storm coming.

- A) The moment we heard the approaching thunder storm, "we dashed under cover.
- B) Luckily, we were inside when we heard the thunder storm approaching.
- C) We were outside until we heard a thunder storm approaching, at which time we went inside.
- D) If we had dashed for cover when we first heard the thunder storm approaching, we wouldn't have got wet.
- E) Any time that we hear a thunder storm coming, we rush to get under cover.

41- Andy, who was in search of a change in his life, didn't really know what he wanted.

- A) Andy was aware of what he wanted from life, but he just didn't know how to achieve it.
- B) Andy was not happy with the way he was leading his life, so he was searching for a change.
- C) Looking for a way to alter his life, Andy was unsure of what he wanted to do.
- D) Had Andy known what he wanted from life, he would have changed it by now.
- E) Feeling that he was in need of a change in his life, Andy started to look for a way to alter it.

42- The city of Çankırı was originally a Celtic settlement called Gangrea.

- A) Gangrea, which is near the present-day Çankırı, was originally settled by Celts.
- B) Gangrea, where the city of Çankırı now stands, was originally a Celtic settlement.
- C) The Celts who founded a city called Gangrea later changed its name to Çankırı.
- D) The original city of Gangrea, a Celtic settlement, is close to present-day Çankırı.
- E) There is a settlement around Çankırı called Gangrea, which was founded by Celts.

43- Ethiopia, which had been isolated from the rest of the world for centuries by both enemies and geography, has retained unique traditions.

- A) Cut off for hundreds of years from other civilizations by a combination of enemies and the landscape, Ethiopia has kept traditions found nowhere else in the world.
- B) Ethiopia has traditions quite different from those found elsewhere because its hostile geography has not allowed it to develop the way the rest of the world did.
- C) Because Ethiopia had so many enemies in their land for hundreds of years, it has developed and kept a number of customs found nowhere else on earth.
- D) Had it not been for Ethiopia's uniquely isolated position, held for centuries, it would not have developed the sort of traditions that has led it to have so many enemies.
- E) Ethiopia has customs and traditions found nowhere else in the world because no one has been able to go there for such a long time.

44- Crimson and kırmızı, which are both bright red colours, are of the same origin etymologically.

- A) Having the same etymologic origin, both crimson and kırmızı are a bright red colour.
- B) Kırmızı and crimson, both meaning bright red, do not actually share the same etymology.
- C) Bright red colours, like kırmızı, that share the same origin are called crimsons.
- D) Crimson is a colour like kırmızı, whose etymology is different but means the same.
- E) Crimson shares the same etymologic origin as that of kırmızı, though it signifies a brighter red colour.

45- The chicken I ordered wasn't cooked well enough for my taste, so I asked for another.

- A) Seeing that the chicken I had made didn't taste well, I ordered one from outside.
- B) I requested a different chicken when the one I wanted wasn't cooked as much as I would have wanted it to be.
- C) I ordered a well-cooked chicken, but when it was delivered, I didn't like its taste.
- D) Although I had ordered a well-cooked chicken, they brought me a different kind.
- E) The chicken they brought me was not what I had ordered, so I wanted it to be replaced.

46- Louise has tried again and again to phone the number you gave her, but it's constantly engaged.

- A) Louise has been so busy that she hasn't yet been able to call the number that you gave her.
- B) The number that you gave Louise was engaged when she phoned, but she'll try again.
- C) The number you gave Louise must be busy all the time, since she hasn't managed to reach them.
- D) Louise has found that number you gave her to be always busy, even though she's tried ringing it many times.
- E) Ever since you gave her that number, Louise has been busy trying to reach them.

47- Arthur, who rarely does his own cooking, prepared a splendid meal yesterday.

- A) Preparing a good meal is not something that Arthur can do often, but yesterday he was fantastic.
- B) Arthur's attempts at cooking are not common, but his results are interesting, as they were yesterday.
- C) Cooking is something that Arthur doesn't do very often, so people think that he can't cook.
- D) Yesterday Arthur cooked a great dinner, even though he doesn't usually cook.
- E) Arthur's meal yesterday was fantastic despite the fact that he can't normally cook very well.

48- Newcastle United play in black and white stripes, like Beşiktaş, but their symbol is a magpie, while that of Beşiktaş, is an eagle.

- A) Newcastle United, with the magpie symbol, and Beşiktaş, with the eagle symbol, have many similarities, like both playing in black and white stripes.
- B) Both the symbol of Newcastle United, which is a magpie, and that of Beşiktaş, which is an eagle, are in the same colours - black and white.
- C) Beşiktaş and Newcastle United play in the same colours; otherwise, as they have different symbols, the two teams are completely different.
- D) Despite having different symbols - a magpie for Newcastle United and an eagle for Beşiktaş, the two teams share many things, like black and white stripes.
- E) Though they have the same black and white stripes, Newcastle United is symbolized by a magpie and Beşiktaş by an eagle.

49- It's sometimes hard to answer a question even on a subject that you know well.

- A) Even if you know a subject well, it isn't always easy to find the answer.
- B) The more you know about the subject, the less likely it is that you'll find a question hard to answer.
- C) It's sometimes more difficult to find the answer to a question if you know the subject very well.
- D) Knowing the subject well is the determining factor when you answer a question.
- E) Sometimes you can easily find the answer to a question even if you don't know the subject well.

50- Supposedly housing a copy of every book ever published in English, the British Library is a remarkable research facility.

- A) It would be remarkable if the British Library actually had a copy of every English book published all over the world.
- B) The amazing thing about the British Library is that there is no book that has ever been published in English that cannot be found there.
- C) The British Library is an outstanding place to do research as it is believed to have a copy of every book ever published in English.
- D) There are few books ever published in English that are not found in the British Library, so it is a great place for research.
- E) Because the British Library has a copy of every possible book in English, it is the ideal place to do research.

ADJECTIVES – ADVERBS REVISION (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)
--

1- The polar explorer's worst enemy is not cold, as most people believe, but wind.

- A) It's already known by many people that wind, as well as cold, is a great threat to the polar explorer.
- B) Cold and wind are among the worst enemies of the polar explorer, as is expected by many.
- C) As one can guess, when coupled with cold, wind is the worst thing the polar explorer is faced with.
- D) Contrary to what most people think, wind poses a greater threat to the polar explorer than does cold.
- E) Many people are not aware that wind is equally dangerous for the polar explorer as cold.

2- We had incorrectly assumed that their school hall would have a piano.

- A) They had falsely assured us that there was a piano in the school hall.
- B) We didn't know that we would have to bring our own piano to the concert.
- C) They should have explained fully what equipment was available at the school.
- D) We found it unbelievable that a music school didn't own a piano.
- E) We had expected their school hall to have a piano, but it didn't.

3- I am puzzled how we could have been so absent-minded as to forget to invite Peter to the party.

- A) We are not in the habit of forgetting to invite people to our parties, so I don't know what happened in the case of Peter.
- B) If you weren't so absent-minded, you would have reminded me to invite Peter to the party.
- C) The fact that we were forgetful enough not to remember to invite Peter to the party amazes me.
- D) I am very worried about the fact that Peter was really upset at not being invited to the party.
- E) We are so forgetful that we even forgot to invite Peter to our party, which was not usual.

4- It will be such a disappointment for them that the swimming-pool at the hotel doesn't open until June.

- A) The hotel swimming-pool doesn't open before June, which they will find very disappointing.
- B) When they find out that the swimming-pool doesn't open until June, they will cancel their booking with that hotel.
- C) It is so unkind of the hotel staff not to open the swimming-pool for them before June.
- D) They found out, to their disappointment, that the hotel swimming-pool wouldn't open until June.
- E) They are very disappointed as they've just found out that the hotel swimming-pool won't open before June.

5- I'm not sure I can arrange real flowers as attractively as I can dried ones.

- A) In my experience, arranging dried flowers as prettily as real flowers is certainly more difficult.
- B) I'm uncertain which looks more attractive, dried flower arrangements or fresh flowers?
- C) I can make pretty dried flower arrangements, but I'm uncertain whether or not I can do the same with fresh flowers.
- D) Making flower arrangements with real flowers is more difficult than with dried flowers, so I don't know if I can do it.
- E) I'm certain that dried flower arrangements look more attractive than arrangements of fresh flowers.

6- A tangerine is different from an orange in that it is smaller and has a looser skin, which you can peel easily.

- A) Despite having many similarities, a tangerine is not identical to an orange.
- B) What makes an orange different from a tangerine is its tighter, harder-to-peel, skin and larger size.
- C) An orange is quite similar to a tangerine, which has easy-to-peel skin and is very small in size.
- D) Almost identical to a tangerine, an orange appears to be quite a large fruit with skin that is troublesome to peel.
- E) In addition to tasting different from oranges, tangerines also differ from them in their size and their skin.

7- Glancing at the flowers, which had been given her by her colleagues, she felt unhappy about leaving the company where she had worked so contentedly.

- A) Whenever she looked at the flowers her colleagues had given her, she was so sad and so unhappy that she wished she were still working there.
- B) She grew sad at leaving the company where she had been happily employed, when she looked at the flowers that she had received from her colleagues.
- C) She had worked there so happily that she was very unhappy to have left them and couldn't bear to look at the flowers her colleagues had bought her.
- D) She had worked there very happily and was upset to be leaving, so she took them some flowers as a gift some time after she had left.
- E) Looking at the flowers they had bought her was a painful experience because it reminded her of unhappy times at work.

8- Successfully completing such an enormous project as this one was very satisfying for everybody in the team.

- A) Everybody congratulated the team on completing an immense project like this one successfully.
- B) Such an immense task as this one could only be finished satisfactorily with the hard work of every member of the team.
- C) Everybody was satisfied with the team's success when they managed to finish this huge project.
- D) The whole team was very satisfied to have finished so huge a project as this one successfully.
- E) Everybody was pleased with the way that the team managed to handle this complex task satisfactorily.

9- Understandably, he would like to think it over a bit longer, especially as it is so expensive.

- A) Thinking this over carefully is very important, chiefly because the item is overpriced.
- B) It is going to cost a lot more, which is understandable, so he needs more time to think about it.
- C) I am not surprised that he wants a little more time to consider it, particularly because it is so dear.
- D) It understandably took him quite a while to come to a decision as the item was so dear.
- E) Had it been more costly, he would have certainly liked more time to consider it.

10- The sightseeing was rather more exhausting than I had thought it would be, but we had a really enjoyable day.

- A) Despite the fact that we got exhausted seeing all the sights, we all enjoyed the day immensely.
- B) If the sightseeing hadn't been so tiring, the day would have been more enjoyable than it was.
- C) I would rather not have gone on the sightseeing because we returned home all exhausted.
- D) I expected the sightseeing to be extremely tiring, but it wasn't, so we had a really good time.
- E) Although visiting the sights proved to be considerably more tiring than I had expected, the day was very enjoyable.

11- The economic crisis forced him to cut down the number of staff, but he was too compassionate to leave his workers unaided in finding new employment.

- A) He knew that the number of staff needed to be reduced because of the economic crisis, but his compassion prevented him from doing so.
- B) He didn't have sufficient employees, so he kindly helped people by giving them jobs at his company during the economic crisis.
- C) He was compassionate enough to help his workers find new jobs when he had to make some of them redundant due to the economic crisis.
- D) He assisted his staff to find different jobs because he would have liked to have fewer employees.
- E) He should have shown more kindness and supported people who had worked for the company when he decided to reduce the workforce.

12- As the economic situation gets worse, it gets harder and harder for university graduates to find appropriate jobs.

- A) The worse the economic situation gets, the more difficult it becomes for university graduates to get suitable employment.
- B) In this economic situation, even those who have had university education may have difficulty finding their ideal jobs.
- C) The economy is too unstable for all university graduates to find decent jobs.
- D) Finding well paid employment in this period of uncertainty is extremely difficult, especially for university graduates.
- E) Unless the economic situation improves, fewer and fewer university graduates will be able to find good jobs in-the future.

13- I think the stew might taste better if you add a little more salt to it.

- A) The more salt you add to this stew, the better I believe it will taste.
- B) If you wish, you can add a little salt" to the stew to obtain a saltier flavour.
- C) If you hadn't put so much salt in the stew while cooking, I believe it would have a better flavour.
- D) In my opinion, adding a little more salt will probably improve the flavour of the stew.
- E) I'm sure what this stew lacks is a little more salt, then it will taste wonderful.

14- None of us believed such a ridiculous story as his, but it turned out to be true.

- A) Because he told the story so ridiculously, nobody thought it was true, although it was.
- B) He told his story in such a ridiculous way that you wouldn't think it was credible even though it was based on reality.
- C) Whether he was actually telling the truth or not didn't become clear until after he had told us the whole story.
- D) He was known to make up stories, so none of us believed him even when he was telling the truth.
- E) His story was too ridiculous for any of us to believe; however, later it was discovered to be the truth.

15- There is hardly anywhere in Istanbul where one can go to get away from the traffic and crowds.

- A) Istanbul is such a busy city that you can only escape the traffic and crowds if you get away from the centres.
- B) It's hard to find quiet places in Istanbul because there are so many cars and people there.
- C) Although it is a crowded city, Istanbul has a few areas that are free from traffic or people.
- D) If you want to avoid the traffic and people in Istanbul, you must go somewhere away from the city.
- E) Wherever you go in Istanbul, it's almost impossible to escape from the traffic and crowds.

16- It was such a delicious mousaka that I could have asked for a second helping if there had been any left.

- A) I asked the hostess if I could have some more mousaka as it was so delicious.
- B) I could have eaten another portion of the mousaka as it was so tasty, but unfortunately, there wasn't any left.
- C) I asked if there was any mousaka left because I really liked it and wanted to have some more.
- D) I regretted that I didn't ask for a second helping of mousaka because it was so delicious.
- E) The additional portion of mousaka I ordered wasn't as tasty as the first had been.

17- The birth of the quintuplets in Ontario, Canada, made more money for the country's government than their principal tourist attraction, Niagara Falls.

- A) Quintuplets, who were born in Ontario, Canada, cost more to raise than the entire earnings from tourists at Canada's premier attraction, Niagara Falls.
- B) The Canadian government profited more from quintuplets being born in Ontario than they did from Niagara Falls, their main attraction for tourists.
- C) The only attraction in Canada which raises more money for the government than the birthplace of the famous quintuplets is Niagara Falls.
- D) More people visited the quintuplets, who were born in Ontario, Canada, than have ever visited Canada's premier tourist trap, Niagara Falls.
- E) The birth of quintuplets in Ontario, Canada, cost the government more than their greatest tourist attraction, Niagara Falls.

18- Las Vegas is undeniably the most breath-taking city on earth.

- A) The fact that Las Vegas is one of the most exhausting cities in the world is beyond doubt. .
- B) Indisputably, Las Vegas is more spectacular than any other city in the world.
- C) It cannot be argued that Las Vegas is a most exceptional, world renowned city.
- D) Of all the spectacular cities in America, Las Vegas is the most popular.
- E) Everybody would like to visit Las Vegas, the world's most stunning city.

19- Windermere is England's largest lake, although tiny in comparison with Turkey's Lake Van.

- A) Windermere is among England's biggest lakes, but it is not as big as Turkey's largest lake, Lake Van.
- B) The biggest lake in England is Windermere, but when measured against Lake Van in Turkey, it is extremely small.
- C) In comparison to England's Lake Windermere, Turkey's Lake Van is quite small.
- D) England's Lake Windermere is a very big lake, even bigger than Turkey's largest lake, Lake Van.
- E) Lake Van is Turkey's largest lake and it is a little bigger than Lake Windermere in England.

20- Despite having extensive diamond deposits, no other country in the world is poorer than Sierra Leone.

- A) Sierra Leone is the poorest country in the world even though it has considerable diamond reserves.
- B) It is hard to believe that Sierra Leone is so poor because the country actually has large diamond reserves.
- C) Sierra Leone's large diamond reserves haven't prevented it from being among the poor countries of the world.
- D) Sierra Leone was the poorest country in the world until large diamond deposits were found there.
- E) If it didn't have large diamond mines, Sierra Leone would be the poorest country in the world.

21- The more washing you put in the dryer, the longer it takes to dry.

- A) If you put too much washing in the dryer, it will take a very long time to dry.
- B) The drying time increases with the amount of washing put into the machine.
- C) Your washing is taking so long to dry because you put too much washing into the dryer.
- D) Large loads of washing take longer to wash in a machine than smaller amounts.
- E) The amount of washing does not affect the drying time in a machine.

22- The biggest problem we face is raising enough funds to continue.

- A) We desperately need to raise more money if we want to proceed.
- B) It's going to be extremely difficult to raise sufficient money to enable us to proceed.
- C) Raising sufficient money to proceed is the greatest difficulty ahead of us.
- D) We will have to raise a lot of money before we are able to proceed any further with our plans.
- E) Luckily, we raised sufficient funds to continue, but it wasn't easy.

23- A warmer world means more floods and more droughts, and they will hit developing countries the hardest.

- A) Global warming causes such extremes as floods and droughts, which have already been seen in some developing nations.
- B) Global warming will cause both floods and droughts, but only in the developing nations of the world.
- C) Rising temperatures throughout the world have been the cause of both floods and drought, which have affected developing nations lately.
- D) A rise in world temperatures will cause both more flooding and more droughts, which will cause the most devastation in developing nations.
- E) A rise in temperatures in developing nations around the world has been causing severe floods and droughts.

24- During the next half a century, the sea level will rise by at least 50 centimetres.

- A) Over the last 50 years, the sea level has risen by over 50 centimetres.
- B) It is feared that in 50 years' time, the sea level could be half a metre or more higher than it is today.
- C) Every 50 years, the sea level rises by approximately half a metre.
- D) The sea level has been rising at a rate of a metre a century.
- E) The sea level is expected to rise by no less than half a metre in the next 50 years.

25- The coastline at Dunnage has receded by one mile since Roman times.

- A) The coast at Dunnage was one mile farther out in Roman times than it is today.
- B) Dunnage was about a mile away from the coast in Roman times.
- C) Today Dunnage is one mile nearer the coast than it was in Roman times.
- D) Dunnage has expanded one mile towards the coast since Roman times.
- E) In Roman times, Dunnage had a coastline which was about one mile in width.

26- Once every 133 years, the moon appears much brighter than normal due to its proximity to the Sun.

- A) 133 years ago, the moon shone a lot brighter than it usually does because it came very close to the Sun.
- B) When the moon comes close to the Sun, which happens at least once every 133 years, it appears slightly brighter than normal.
- C) In the next 133 years, the moon will shine extremely brightly because it will pass very close to the Sun.
- D) In 133 years' time, the moon will be extremely close to the Sun, and this will cause it to appear very bright.
- E) As a result of its being close to the Sun, the moon shines a lot brighter than usual every 133 years.

27- There is barely anywhere more beautiful than New England in autumn.

- A) New England looks more beautiful in autumn than at any other time of the year.
- B) Actually, there are several places as beautiful as New England in autumn.
- C) It is not hard to find somewhere as beautiful as New England in autumn.
- D) In autumn, New England is more beautiful than virtually any other place.
- E) Nowhere in the world is as beautiful as New England is in autumn.

28- Regular exercise is one of the most effective methods of tackling stress and insomnia.

- A) In some cases, sufferers of stress and sleeplessness can be helped by taking regular exercise.
- B) The only way to beat stress and sleeplessness is to take exercise regularly.
- C) Stress and sleeplessness can be a symptom of lack of exercise.
- D) The best method to relieve stress and sleeplessness is to start an exercise program.
- E) One of the best ways to overcome stress and sleeplessness is to take regular exercise.

29- A steady temperature in greenhouses requires a careful and accurate control.

- A) The ventilation of greenhouses should be tightly monitored at all times.
- B) If you want to ensure a constant temperature inside a greenhouse, heating appliances need to be installed.
- C) The temperature inside a greenhouse should not be allowed to fluctuate.
- D) Precise and thorough control is necessary for the temperature in greenhouses to remain constant.
- E) To achieve the optimum temperature in greenhouses, heating must be chosen accurately.

30- A fifteen-minute rest can be as energising as sleeping for hours.

- A) Taking a fifteen-minute break can refresh you until you are able to get some proper sleep.
- B) A quarter of an hour's sleep should be enough for anyone to refresh.
- C) A long sleep, isn't always necessary and sometimes as little as a quarter of an hour's rest is ample.
- D) Relaxing for quarter of an hour can refresh you as much as a long sleep.
- E) Even if we don't have time to sleep for a long period, we must make sure that we sleep no less than fifteen minutes.

31- A fearless explorer, Columbus turned out to be an ineffective administrator and a poor geographer.

- A) It was Columbus's geographical and administrative abilities rather than his courage that led to his success.
- B) It turned out that Columbus was not as good an administrator as he was a geographer and an explorer.
- C) If Columbus had been a more effective administrator and a better geographer, he would have been a more successful explorer.
- D) Columbus's courage as an explorer was not matched by his abilities in either geography or administration.
- E) Although he was not a brave explorer, Columbus's skill in administration and geography made up for his other deficiencies.

32- The Iranian authorities make little effort to attract foreign tourists, and most holiday makers respond with equal scorn to the idea of spending even a day in Iran.

- A) If only the Iranian government made a little more effort, tourists would love to spend even a day there.
- B) Neither the Iranian authorities nor the potential tourists think that Iran would make a good tourist destination.
- C) No one wants to go to Iran on holiday even though the government has been trying to attract tourists.
- D) The Iranian government is not interested in tourism much, and most potential tourists are just as happy not to consider going there at all.
- E) Because of recent efforts by the government of Iran, it appears that holiday makers might begin spending a short time there.

33- Stopping drug smuggling requires vigilant control at a country's borders.

- A) Points of entry into a country must be attentively monitored in order to put an end to the illegal import and export of drugs.
- B) No matter how careful border guards are, it is extremely doubtful if drug smuggling can be stopped.

- C) Officials at the borders must be selected very carefully if they are expected to put an end to drug smuggling.
- D) In order to make a profit off the drug trade, smugglers must be careful when they cross borders.
- E) It is unrealistic to expect to stop drug smuggling completely despite increasing controls at the borders.

34- A healthy diet is one of the best ways of avoiding heart disease.

- A) The best way to avoid heart disease is by switching to a healthier diet.
- B) One of the most effective strategies in the fight against heart disease is healthy eating.
- C) Heart disease may well be caused by an improper diet.
- D) The only way to be sure of not getting heart disease is by eating healthy food.
- E) In rare cases, people with heart disease can be cured through healthy eating.

35- Developing countries are copying Western-style transport systems, particularly the problems they create.

- A) Underdeveloped countries hope that Western-style transport systems will help to solve their problems.
- B) The trouble with the developing world copying transport systems from the West is that these systems are not very suitable for them.
- C) If the Third World countries wish to develop properly, they need to adopt Western-style transport systems.
- D) Developing countries are adopting the negative aspects of the transport systems of the Western world even more than the positive ones.
- E) There are so few positive aspects to Western-style transport systems that developing countries should not copy them.

36- There is hardly anything more unpleasant than a hot summer day in a city centre.

- A) Few things can be more disagreeable than being in a city centre on a hot summer day.
- B) It is hard to put up with summer, especially if you live in the city centre.
- C) There are plenty of things that are worse than a hot summer day in the middle of a city.
- D) If you look around, it is not hard to find other places as miserable as a city centre on a hot summer day.
- E) City centres are more unpleasant in summer than at any other time of year.

37- The United States is almost completely dependent on the automobile.

- A) The United States is practically totally reliant on the motor car.
- B) Almost everyone in the United States has a reliable car.
- C) The United States would come to a complete standstill without cars.
- D) Most people in the United States want to own a dependable car.
- E) There are more cars in the United States than anywhere else in the world.

38- During the next decade, the world population will estimably rise by at least half a billion people.

- A) The world population has been rising at a rate of half a billion people every ten years.
- B) The world population is expected to rise by no fewer than 500 million people in the next ten years.
- C) As a general rule, every ten years, the world population rises by about 500 million.
- D) It is feared that, in ten years, the world population could be much larger than it is today.
- E) Over the last ten years, the world population has risen by approximately 500 million people.

39- In the world we live in, the aggressive person, not the talented, is usually the one who gets a better job.

- A) In today's competitive world, it is the best qualified people who land the best jobs.
- B) The reality in today's world is that talent usually takes second place to aggression in the job market.
- C) In the current job market, forcefulness is normally rewarded with the best positions and highest pay.
- D) You have a good chance of getting a good job with a high salary if you are violent and belligerent.
- E) Aggressive people do not always get the best jobs with the highest pay.

40- When men first went into space in the late 1950s, everyone expected that space travel would develop far faster than it actually has.

- A) Space travel at first developed at a remarkably fast rate after the first manned space flights of the late 1950s.
- B) The late 1950s, when man first went into space, was a time of rapid development in space travel.
- C) Most of the assumptions about the pace of development of space travel made in the late 1950s were correct.
- D) It would have been impossible to meet the optimistic predictions about how rapidly space travel would develop after the late 1950s.
- E) Compared to the predictions made in the late 1950s, at the time of the first manned space flights, the pace of development of space travel has been rather slow.

41- Maya Angelou, one of the most talented writers of her generation, must really share the lessons of her interesting life with her readers by writing her life.

- A) Although there are not many people of her age as talented as Maya Angelou, her autobiography was much like a text book, as if teaching lessons to her readers.
- B) Maya Angelou is not only an unusually talented writer, but she also has a life worth writing about and this may gain her a greater readership.
- C) One of the unusually talented writers of her age, Maya Angelou has had an interesting life, which qualifies her to write her autobiography for her readers.
- D) Maya Angelou has had such an interesting life that she needs a talented biographer to write it down for her so that she can share her experiences with her readers.
- E) There is no one in her generation qualified enough to write Maya Angelou's biography, so she herself should write about her experiences in life.

42- The poor spend more than anyone else on Britain's National Lottery, and since they have so little, the amount they spend on the lottery is significant.

- A) The amount poor people spend on Britain's National Lottery makes up a significant part of the total.
- B) The hope of winning Britain's National Lottery plays a significant part in the lives of Britain's poor people.
- C) Britain's National Lottery would not be able to survive were it not for the significant amounts spent on it by the poor.
- D) Britain's National Lottery has so little to offer that it is dependent on the money put into it by the poor.
- E) Not only do the poor spend the most on Britain's National Lottery, but also this takes up a comparatively large amount of their incomes.

43- It used to be said that only bad books make good movies.

- A) People are accustomed to seeing good movies made from bad books.
- B) People used to believe that it was impossible to make movies based on books.
- C) It is impossible to make a good book into a movie.
- D) It was formerly believed that a good movie could only be made from a book of low quality.

- E) The conventional wisdom in the film industry has always been that a film cannot be too closely based on a book.

44- More people complain of fatigue today than they did in the days when all farm work was done by hand, and women had to spend all day cooking, washing and cleaning.

- A) At one time when both men and women did physical labour all day long, people were tired all the time.
- B) Today men and women do less manual labour compared with the past, yet more people complain of being tired.
- C) There seems to be a direct correlation between the amount of work done by hand and the amount of fatigue people complain of.
- D) Labour-saving devices in the home and farm machinery have been instrumental in freeing men and women from fatigue.
- E) No one seems to know why people seem so tired today when they do so little manual labour.

45- The harder you work, the less likely you are to feel bored.

- A) Working harder will probably keep you from being bored.
- B) Working hard is just about the most boring thing you can do.
- C) Work and boredom are two completely unrelated things.
- D) The more bored you are, the harder you need to work.
- E) Hard work can hardly be said to be a cure for boredom.

46- Though he's never been an interesting person, last night he was more boring than ever.

- A) As he was so amazingly dull last night, he will no longer be seen as an interesting person.
- B) He's known to be quite boring, but last night he was the most dull that he ever has been.
- C) Although he's not usually that interesting, last night he was actually extremely boring.
- D) The boring subjects he spoke about last night shows that he will never manage to be an interesting person.
- E) Everybody was interested as to how he could have been even more boring than usual last night.

47- Considering that we travelled right across the country, the bus ticket was surprisingly reasonable.

- A) Because we were able to move right through the country, the price of the bus ticket didn't bother us.
- B) We must be reasonable and consider whether we want to cross this country by bus or not.
- C) As the bus brought us right across the country, we found the price of the ticket to be cheaper than its value to us.
- D) The most reasonable way to go right across the country was by bus, so we bought ourselves a ticket.
- E) The ticket for the bus, which took us from one side of the country to the other, was the cheapest that we could find.

48- Of all the languages that can be found on Earth, Finnish is supposed to be the most difficult.

- A) It is thought that Finnish is the hardest of all the languages that are known of in the world.
- B) Finns consider their language to be the hardest of all those that exist on our planet.
- C) Finnish is supposed to be among the most difficult of all the languages spoken in the world.
- D) There are several very difficult languages to be found on our planet, and Finnish is one of them.
- E) All the other languages that can be found in the world are much easier than Finnish.

49- Few things are more moving than listening to Pachelbel's Canon performed on stringed instruments.

- A) Hardly anything apart from listening to Pachelbel's Canon performed on stringed instruments causes strong emotions.
- B) Nothing is more emotional than listening to a performance of Pachelbel's Canon on stringed instruments.

- C) One of the things that is found very moving is hearing Pachelbel's Canon being played on stringed instruments.
- D) Hearing Pachelbel's Canon performed on stringed instruments is more emotionally affecting than most things.
- E) Not many things are very moving, but hearing a performance of Pachelbel's Canon on stringed instruments is.

50- The United States has changed so much that it no longer resembles the nation that became independent in 1776.

- A) Since gaining its independence in 1776, the United States has gone through many great changes.
- B) The United States is now extremely different from the nation which gained its independence in 1776.
- C) Despite its many changes, the United States is essentially the same as that which became independent in 1776.
- D) Although it only became independent in 1776, the United States has already undergone many great changes.
- E) The United States has altered so radically that it is difficult to believe that it has only been independent since 1776.

GERUNDS - INFINITIVES REVISION (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)
--

51- He was too proud to accept charity when he had difficulty providing for his family.

- A) Accepting charity hurt his pride, but there was no point in refusing it as he was experiencing problems covering his family's expenses.
- B) He should have accepted the assistance of his friends to help support his family, but he wasn't humble enough to do so.
- C) As he thought taking charity was beneath him, he refused to do so even when his family wanted him to.
- D) He was not humble enough to accept that he was experiencing difficulties in supporting his family.
- E) At the time when he had trouble supporting his family, his pride prevented him from taking charity.

52- He is going to abstain from eating chocolate and cakes till he is slim enough to fit in his jeans.

- A) He is going to have trouble adjusting to not eating chocolate or cake, but the urge to be able to wear his jeans is stronger.
- B) Because his jeans don't fit him, he is going on a strict diet, but it's not easy for him to do without chocolate and cakes.
- C) He has become too big to fit in his jeans on account of the chocolate and cakes he eats all the time, so he certainly should cut down on them.
- D) Until he loses enough weight to be able to wear his jeans, he is excluding chocolate and cakes from his diet.
- E) He hopes to lose some weight by not eating chocolate and cakes, and then he is going to buy himself a new pair of jeans.

53- He succeeded in giving a competent presentation even without rehearsing.

- A) It was unnecessary for him to rehearse because he could present confidently.
- B) Even though he hadn't rehearsed, he delivered his presentation proficiently.
- C) His presentation would have been even more successful if he had rehearsed.
- D) His incompetent presentation was a result of his not rehearsing in advance.
- E) It is possible for him to give a successful presentation even if he hasn't rehearsed.

54- His determination to turn this old abandoned house into a beautiful home is, I believe, admirable.

- A) In my opinion, he is to be admired for having the resolution to transform this old deserted house into a beautiful home.
- B) He dreams of living in a beautiful home instead of this old empty house, which he believes is haunted.
- C) It is believed that he is convinced he can change this old house into a beautiful home, but it seems impossible.
- D) He should be admired for his courage in believing he can build a beautiful home at his age.
- E) I admire his belief that the old abandoned house he lives in was once a beautiful home.

55- His being discontent with the conditions in his present employment is common knowledge.

- A) We know that he wants to leave his job because the work is not very satisfying.
- B) It isn't known how he copes with working under such awful job conditions.
- C) Everybody knows that he is dissatisfied with the conditions in his current job.
- D) He knows that he has to tolerate working conditions in his job although, at times, they appear to be unbearable.
- E) Nobody knows how he can tolerate the conditions he has to work under.

56- His friends' not believing him capable of winning enough votes to be elected didn't deter him from becoming a candidate for chairmanship.

- A) Although they hadn't believed him capable, his friends worked hard to help him gain sufficient votes for the chairmanship.

- B) Not believing him capable of winning the election, his friends tried all they could to get him to pull out of the election for the chairmanship.
- C) Had his friends stood by him, he would have had a better chance of winning the chairmanship.
- D) He wasn't put off standing for chairmanship by his friends' opinion that he was incapable of attracting sufficient votes to get elected.
- E) It was his failing that he hadn't listened to the opinion of his friends and went ahead with putting his candidacy for chairmanship forward.

57- I'm so busy at work these days that I can hardly find any time to pursue my hobbies.

- A) I can only devote very little time to my hobbies these days due to the huge amount of work I'm doing.
- B) Because I have to work hard all the time, I don't have enough time to adopt any hobbies.
- C) These days I'm busy pursuing my hobbies in spite of the heavy work load I have to deal with.
- D) I can't spare much time for my hobbies these days because I'm having a hard time at work.
- E) I'm so engaged with my hobbies these days that I find it hard to deal with my work alongside them.

58- Great leaders have been shot dead, but it hasn't stopped their supporters from carrying on.

- A) Shooting great leaders may not always deter their supporters from carrying on their campaigns.
- B) Supporters of great leaders have continued their mission even after these leaders have been killed.
- C) Being a great leader is very dangerous because you are likely to get shot, although your supporters will carry on anyway.
- D) Stopping the supporters of great men has proved to be more difficult than their enemies first assumed.
- E) Even threats to their lives did not stop great leaders and their supporters from continuing their mission.

59- I'm willing to lend you the money if you agree to pay me back quickly.

- A) I would only borrow the money if I thought I could pay it back promptly.
- B) As you paid back the money I lent you promptly, I will always be willing to lend you money.
- C) Provided you consent to repay it promptly, I'll willingly lend you the money.
- D) I am prepared to lend you the money without delay if you are happy to borrow it from me.
- E) I'm glad to be able to lend you the money because you always return it quickly.

60- The technique for building these stone walls is only used in this part of the country.

- A) Builders in other areas of the country are not willing to use this technique for erecting walls.
- B) If you want to build a stone wall here, you have to use the traditional technique for this area.
- C) Techniques for building stone walls vary according to the different areas of the country.
- D) In this part of the country there is only one technique for building stone walls.
- E) These stone walls are made using a technique not found anywhere else in the country.

61- He's devoted his life to photographing the misery which war has brought to people's lives.

- A) He was miserable for most of his life because his job was photographing people in war zones.
- B) At times during his career, he was sent to war zones to concentrate on photographing people's suffering.
- C) Throughout his life, he's been a dedicated photographer taking pictures of people who have suffered a lot through war.
- D) He devoted his life to helping the people who had suffered in war, of whom he also took many photographs.
- E) The subjects of his photographs have usually been victims of human catastrophes such as wars.

62- The French police consider the man to be the suspect for the murder of the English student.

- A) He was arrested by the French police for murdering an English student.
- B) The man is suspected by the French police of murdering the English student.
- C) A English student was killed, and the French police suspect that the murderer was a man.
- D) The French police have charged the man with committing a murder with an English student.
- E) The French police are questioning a man about the murder of an English student.

63- Italy is believed to have a low rate of heart attacks because Italians use mainly pure olive oil for cooking.

- A) The fact that Italians predominantly use pure olive oil in food preparation is assumed to be why Italy has a low incidence of heart attacks.
- B) It has been discovered that the low incidence of heart attacks in Italy is a result of Italians' high consumption of cooking oil.
- C) It's been found that Italians use more cooking oil, usually olive oil, than most people, which accounts for the small number of heart attacks reported in Italy.
- D) Italians rarely die of heart attacks on account of their healthy diet and the cooking oil they use.
- E) Pure olive oil has been proved to be healthier than other oils, which is considered to be the reason why Italians rarely suffer heart disease.

64- In addition to entertaining the public, many zoos are involved in preserving endangered species.

- A) Conserving animals is a more important service zoos provide than entertaining people.
- B) Many zoos which used to concentrate on entertaining their customers are now participating in conservation projects.
- C) Instead of entertaining visitors, zoos should concentrate more on serving the needs of endangered animals.
- D) Apart from providing entertainment for people, many zoos make efforts to conserve threatened species.
- E) In using animals for entertainment purposes, many zoos are actually contributing to the risk of extinction for many species.

65- A quarter of all bird species in the world are acknowledged to have become extinct during the past two hundred years.

- A) It is estimated that one fourth of all bird species will become extinct within the next two centuries.
- B) It is known that two centuries ago there were twenty-five percent more birds than there are today.
- C) We are likely to cause the extinction of one fourth of all bird species during the next two hundred years.
- D) It is understood that one fourth of all bird species have ceased to exist over the last two centuries.
- E) It is clear that we risk causing the extinction of twenty-five percent of all bird species by the twenty-third century.

66- At the present rate of deforestation, the last tropical evergreen tree will fall in 2045.

- A) We will cut down the last tropical evergreen tree in 2045 if we continue to cut them down as quickly as we are now.
- B) Unless we stop cutting down tropical evergreen trees, there will be very few left by 2045.
- C) We are cutting down the rainforest so quickly that, in 2045, there will only be one tropical evergreen tree left.
- D) It is estimated that, unless something is done, there will be no tropical forests left by 2045.
- E) If we continue chopping down trees at the current rate, there will only be tropical evergreen trees left by 2045.

67- There is no evidence to prove that genetically modified crops pose a special threat to human health or to our planet.

- A) There isn't enough evidence to support the assumption that genetically modified crops harm both the Earth and the health of its population.
- B) Evidence exists to suggest that genetically modified crops pose a particular threat to our planet and to the health of its people.
- C) There is a complete lack of evidence to show that genetically modified crops are harmful either to the Earth or to the health of its inhabitants.
- D) Scientists have not yet proved genetically modified crops to be completely safe for human health or the environment.
- E) Genetically modified crops are proven to pose no health risk or threat to the environment.

68- The asymmetric shape of the human heart enables the blood to be pumped more efficiently around the body.

- A) It is known that the asymmetric shape of the human heart prevents the blood being sent around the body too quickly.
- B) How efficiently the blood is sent around the body of an animal depends on the particular shape of its heart.
- C) The human heart's irregular shape facilitates more efficient sending of the blood around the body.
- D) A human heart is incapable of sending the blood around the body quickly because of its uneven shape.
- E) Some people have irregular-shaped hearts, which can have difficulty in sending the blood around the body effectively.

69- You should choose a car suitable for driving long distances and carrying the whole family.

- A) Have you considered buying a car capable of being driven long distances and with enough space for your family?
- B) It's advisable for you to select a car capable of being driven long distances and roomy enough to seat your entire family.
- C) When choosing a car, you should consider such things as whether it will be driven long distances or how many people it can hold.
- D) I'm glad that you're considering buying a car which is suitable for driving long distances and which can fit your entire family in.
- E) If you plan to drive your entire family a long distance, make sure you choose a suitable car for the trip.

70- King Charles II survived a narrow escape from Cromwell's men by hiding in an oak tree.

- A) King Charles II concealed himself in an oak tree, and thus narrowly avoided being caught by Cromwell's men.
- B) Cromwell's men found King Charles II sitting in a large oak tree.
- C) King Charles II would have been found if he hadn't hidden himself in a large oak tree.
- D) The tree is known as the Royal Oak because King Charles II reportedly hid from Cromwell's men in it.
- E) The escape that King Charles II made from Cromwell's men by hiding in an oak tree was one of many narrow escapes he survived.

71- Another student's constant coughing prevented me from concentrating properly on my essay during the exam.

- A) None of the other students could concentrate on their essays during the exam because of the irritating cough of one student.
- B) One of the other students couldn't concentrate on his examination paper because he was coughing incessantly.
- C) My concentration on my essay during the exam was disturbed by other students' sudden outburst of coughing.
- D) I found it difficult to concentrate fully on my essay because I was constantly coughing.
- E) I couldn't fully concentrate on my essay during the exam due to the incessant coughing of one of the students.

72- It's ridiculous to suggest that Malcolm should become involved in introducing new systems.

- A) The suggestion that Malcolm could get involved in implementing innovative procedures is quite sensible.
- B) Malcolm is of the opinion that the new systems are ridiculous and shouldn't be implemented.
- C) Someone has made the recommendation that Malcolm should be involved in implementing innovative methods.
- D) The suggestion that Malcolm ought to take part in implementing the new systems is not sensible.
- E) The new systems that Malcolm implemented are thought to be ridiculous.

73- She speaks so directly to them that I'm worried about her upsetting our customers.

- A) Her direct manner with the customers has already upset a number of them.
- B) I'm particularly upset with the direct manner in which she speaks to our clients.
- C) I'm afraid she'll upset our clients as she is so direct when she talks to them.
- D) I find her directness with clients upsetting, but she doesn't appear to be worried about it.
- E) It is a wonder that our clients don't get upset by the direct manner in which she speaks to them.

74- He assumed the identity of a dead person by using his birth certificate to obtain a passport.

- A) He used a dead person's birth certificate in order to get a passport and took on his identity.
- B) He stole the passport of a dead person and then took on his identity and obtained a birth certificate.
- C) After he died, someone used his birth certificate to obtain a passport and assumed his identity.
- D) It was discovered that he had pretended to be someone who had died and was in possession of a false birth certificate and passport.
- E) The passport was obtained illegally by using the birth certificate of someone who had already died.

75- Jessica thanked Shona for looking after her daughter during the interview.

- A) Shona was thankful to Jessica, who had watched her daughter for her during the interview.
- B) Jessica expressed her thanks to Shona as she looked after her daughter while she was having an interview.
- C) Thankfully, Jessica was able to look after Shona's daughter during the interview.
- D) During the interview, Jessica's daughter was looked after by Shona, for which Jessica would be grateful forever.
- E) Shona volunteered to look after Jessica's daughter during the interview

76- She has become obsessed with arguing over politics with Susan in the office.

- A) She has become obsessive about politics, but only Susan from the office argues about it with her.
- B) Susan from the office argues that she shouldn't become obsessed with politics.
- C) She seems obsessed with politics, arguing about it with Susan in the office at every opportunity.
- D) Susan and she argue obsessively about politics at work whenever they find the time.
- E) Her arguments about politics with Susan at work have turned into an obsession.

77- She is very excited about getting married and consequently can't stop imagining wearing her wedding dress.

- A) Everybody is really excited about going to her wedding and keeps imagining her dressed in her wedding dress.
- B) She has always dreamt of getting married in an incredibly beautiful wedding dress.
- C) She is excitedly making plans for a dream wedding in an imaginative wedding dress.
- D) She is so excited about her forthcoming marriage that she keeps trying on her wedding dress.
- E) As a result of her excitement over her wedding, she can't help but daydream about herself dressed in her wedding dress.

78- The houses on the island are built on strong poles in order to withstand fierce storms.

- A) The idea behind the strong poles on which the islanders' houses are built is to lessen the effect of the winds.
- B) The homes of the islanders are subject to battering by fierce storms even if they are constructed on sturdy platforms.
- C) Even those houses on the island built on strong poles would not be able to withstand the fierce storms that sometimes occur there.
- D) The islanders build their houses on sturdy poles so as to make them capable of surviving fierce storms.
- E) Those houses on the island that are built on strong poles have escaped the fierce storm without much damage.

79- You shouldn't consider opening the door to strangers until you have seen their identification.

- A) You ask for any stranger's identity card before you let him in, don't you?
- B) You should see a stranger's identity card before contemplating opening the door to him.
- C) It is dangerous to open the door to strangers without knowing who they are.
- D) I always ask to see a stranger's identity card before I even open the door fully.
- E) It is good advice to ask to see a stranger's identity card once you have invited him in.

80- This fragile house has every chance of being carried away by strong storms.

- A) The house was so flimsy that it blew down in the strong storm.
- B) This house will have to be strengthened; otherwise, it is in danger of collapsing.
- C) It is quite likely that this flimsy house will be blown away during a heavy storm.
- D) This flimsy house cannot possibly survive any storms.
- E) There is a good chance that this house is strong enough to withstand strong storms.

81- Could you possibly come back later as there is nobody here who has permission to authorise this at the moment?

- A) Can you find somebody else to authorise this as nobody here knows how to do it yet?
- B) Are you looking for someone to authorise this rightnow or would you consider doing it yourself later?
- C) Currently, there isn't anybody here who is allowed to authorise this, so would it be possible for you to return later?
- D) It's impossible for any of us here to authorise this, so you should try another department which has this permission.
- E) Could you possibly get this authorised and bring it back later as, presently, we need permission to do this?

82- In order that the teacher can stop the vehicle should an emergency arise, the driving school's car has foot controls on both sides.

- A) The instructor is only allowed to use his own controls, which are located on the passenger side of the car, when a driving student panics.
- B) Having brakes on both sides, the driving school's cars are safer than normal cars, which only have brakes on one side.
- C) Driving school cars have two brakes, one on either side, in case one of them should fail in an emergency.
- D) The driving school's car is equipped with foot controls on either side to enable the instructor to stop the car in an emergency.
- E) Driving school cars are safer with foot controls on both sides allowing them to stop more quickly in an emergency situation.

83- Petrol stations don't charge commission on credit card sales any more.

- A) A commission is no longer added to your bill if you pay with a credit card at petrol stations.
- B) Paying for petrol is expensive by credit card because they add some commission to your bill.
- C) I don't pay for petrol with my credit card because I don't want to pay any commission.
- D) Every time somebody pays by credit card for petrol, the petrol station has to pay a commission to the credit card company.
- E) Several petrol stations don't take credit cards any more because of the high commission charged.

84- From the beginning of the 16th century, the centre of the European perfume industry has been France, where a number of the dearest perfumes are made today.

- A) Producing some of the most expensive perfumes available, France has always been the centre of the perfume industry in Europe.
- B) Prior to the 16th century France was the main producer of perfumes in Europe, but today it concentrates on producing expensive brands.
- C) Since the early 16th century, France has been the perfume centre of Europe and some of the most expensive perfumes are produced there today.
- D) Most expensive perfumes can be found in France, where the perfume industry began at the beginning of the 16th century.
- E) France, the biggest perfume producer since the 16th century, is not very price competitive in today's European market.

85- The latest chemical engineering text book is better than any of the others available.

- A) Of the text books available on chemical engineering, the last one to be published is the best.
- B) The chemical engineering text book has been produced to a higher standard than those available on other subjects.
- C) From all the chemical engineering text books, the last one to be published has sold more copies than any of the others.
- D) All the other chemical engineering text books aren't very good, but this latest one is really great.
- E) The only chemical engineering text book which is worth buying is the last one to be published.

86- Everyone except her mother was fond of her fiancé.

- A) No one but her mother liked her fiancé.
- B) Although everybody liked her fiancé, they didn't like his mother.
- C) Everybody, including her mother, was fond of her fiancé.
- D) She was not particularly impressed with her fiancé's mother.
- E) The only person not to like her fiancé was her mother.

87- The brother and sister are very close and always help each other out in difficult times.

- A) Because they are related, it is the brother and sister's duty to help out when one of them is in trouble.
- B) Being really close, the brother and sister assist one another without fail in times of trouble.
- C) In times of distress, brothers and sisters can usually rely on each other for help.
- D) The closer a brother and a sister are, the more they are likely to assist one another when things get tough.
- E) It is in times of trouble when we find out which of our brothers and sisters we are really close to.

88- Fewer than two thirds of the people who are permitted to vote actually took part in the presidential election.

- A) More than one third of those who have the right to vote for a president did not.
- B) More than one third of the population is permitted to vote for a new president.
- C) The president was elected even though one third of the people didn't vote for him.
- D) The president was elected because two thirds of the people voted for him, actually.
- E) Actually, the new president received the support of only one third of those allowed to vote.

89- The author of these books is the mother of a student of ours.

- A) Among our students, there is one whose mother has written several books.
- B) The mother of the author of these books used to be a student of ours.
- C) Both the author of these books and her child attended our school.
- D) These books were written by the mother of one of our students.
- E) The writer of these books, who used to be a student of ours herself, is sending her child to our school.

90- Working as a wildlife photographer, she has had some great experiences over the past year.

- A) She now only has twelve months' experience as a wildlife photographer.
- B) A good many things happened in the last year of her profession as a wildlife photographer.
- C) Over the past twelve months she has been working as a wildlife photographer in order to gain sufficient experience in this field.
- D) Through her work as a wildlife photographer, she has met with a number of adventures during the last year.
- E) She is a wildlife photographer, and has recently displayed the works she has collected over the last year.

91- In the Swiss yodelling style of singing, a high, light tone is sung alternately with a low, full tone.

- A) Swiss yodelling is different from other techniques of singing because low, full tones are sung alternately with high, light ones.
- B) Each Swiss yodel consists of some low full tones and a number of high light ones.
- C) Yodelling, a kind of singing marked by the speed of tone changes, is a traditional Alpine music.
- D) The technique of singing known as Swiss yodelling consists of two tones being sung alternately, one high and light, and the other low and full.
- E) Swiss folk musicians in Alpine regions are known for their yodelling, which combines a number of different tones.

92- She does her best to protect her sons from the press as they both dislike publicity.

- A) Because she is so famous, the press also show an interest in her sons, but they both hate publicity.
- B) Because neither of her sons enjoy public attention, she tries her utmost to shield them from the press.
- C) Despite her great efforts to safeguard her sons from the media, they have both received a lot of unfair publicity.

- D) Both her sons hate the publicity they have been getting from the press, so they have asked her to try and stop it for them.
- E) She does her best to encourage publicity for herself, but her sons don't like press coverage.

93- We use plant oil in the kitchen for several purposes, of which enriching pastry is one and frying foods is another.

- A) Plant oil has many more uses besides the culinary ones, such as making cakes and pastries richer.
- B) Plant oil has a lot of uses, the most common of which are culinary uses, such as enriching pastry and frying foods.
- C) Our use of plant oil for several culinary functions includes adding richness to pastry and frying foods.
- D) Frying food and enriching pastry are the two most important functions plant oil can serve.
- E) We most commonly use plant oil to enrich pastry, but it has many other uses, such as for frying foods.

94- Before a railroad is built, the builders usually consider several alternative routes and carefully study each route.

- A) The builders of a railroad normally consider various possible routes, which are all given careful consideration, prior to starting construction work.
- B) The builders of the railroad considered the features of every possible alternative route before they did any physical work.
- C) Considering the number of alternative routes that are possible, it will take careful consideration to decide where to start the construction.
- D) Before a route for the railroad is chosen, the builders ought to give every alternative route their careful consideration.
- E) In order to choose the best route, the builders should have carefully considered all the alternatives and opted for the one with the best features.

95- I think the garden looks fine, but Jo believes it needs a little more colour.

- A) Do you agree with Jo that the garden looks fine, or do you think it needs slightly more colour?
- B) Although Jo thought the garden needed a little more colour, we were generally satisfied with the way it looked.
- C) Jo and I agree about just how much colour we should have in the garden.
- D) If I were doing this job, I would use more colour in the garden, while Jo would use less.
- E) While Jo thinks the garden requires slightly more colour, I am happy with the way it looks.

96- Little of our class time was taken up with administrative tasks.

- A) We used too much time during the lesson dealing with administration.
- B) You shouldn't use a lot of class time to deal with administrative issues.
- C) We used a small amount of class time dealing with administration.
- D) We shouldn't have dealt with administration tasks during the lesson.
- E) The majority of class time was taken up doing administration.

97- During the course, you will be able to borrow books from the university library, but as a professional teacher, you will be expected to buy your own copy of important texts.

- A) While studying on this course, you can either borrow books from the university library or buy your own personal copy, which is more professional.
- B) It is best to borrow books for this course from the university library, but, if you wish, or feel it more professional, you can buy the most important books.
- C) The university library has most professional teaching books that you will need while studying this course, but there are one or two that you will have to buy yourself.

- D) Books will be available to you on loan from the university library during the course, but as a professional teacher, you should own a personal copy of key texts.
- E) The university keeps a limited number of the important books for this professional teaching course, so if a book is not available for loan, you will be expected to buy it yourself.

98- The destruction caused by the first atom bomb was unlike anything seen in the world before.

- A) The kind of devastation the first atom bomb produced had never before been seen on the Earth.
- B) The most powerful bomb which has ever been exploded on the Earth was the atom bomb.
- C) The first atom bomb caused more devastation than the total of all the bombs which had been dropped previously.
- D) Nobody thought the first atom bomb would cause as much devastation to the Earth as it did.
- E) The first atom bomb caused more devastation than everyone in the world had expected.

99- Each of our hotel rooms contains its own bathroom, a colour television and air conditioning.

- A) Our hotel room has its own bathroom, a colour television and air-conditioning.
- B) There is a bathroom, a colour television and air-conditioning in all of our hotel rooms.
- C) Not every room in the hotel has its own bathroom, but they all have a colour television and air-conditioning.
- D) There is a bathroom, a colour television and air-conditioning in most of the rooms in our hotel.
- E) Our hotel is equipped with a colour television, air-conditioning and a luxury bathroom.

100- Many people believe that no book has had a more powerful influence on American history than "Uncle Tom's Cabin".

- A) The book "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has had a most powerful influence on many of the characters in American history.
- B) It is thought by many that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has had the strongest influence of any book on the history of America.
- C) There are few books in the history of American literature that have had such a powerful effect on people as "Uncle Tom's Cabin".
- D) Nobody would dispute the fact that the most powerful influence of any book on American history was created by the novel "Uncle Tom's Cabin".
- E) In my opinion, the book which has had the most powerful influence on American history is the novel "Uncle Tom's Cabin".

101- Not even half of the population voted in the election.

- A) In reality, only half of the people turned out to vote.
- B) Little more than fifty percent of the people bothered to vote.
- C) The number of those who cast their election vote was even below fifty percent.
- D) At least half of the voters forgot to vote in the election held recently.
- E) Half of the voters decided against voting in the election.

102- The woman whose car was filmed near the scene has been eliminated from the enquiry.

- A) They are no longer looking for the lady whose car was filmed at the scene as they have another suspect.
- B) They have a suspect who is a woman seen driving a car close to the scene.
- C) The lady whose car was identified as being at the scene is one of the prime suspects.
- D) They have ruled out the lady whose car had been picked up on camera close to the scene as a suspect.
- E) The woman whose car was spotted on a security camera has come forward to rule herself out as a suspect.

103- The only person not to know of his misconduct was his manager.

- A) Everyone but his manager was aware of his misconduct.
- B) Most people were unaware of his misconduct, but his manager knew of it.
- C) He hid his misconduct from everyone, including his boss.
- D) He managed to keep his misconduct a secret from everyone.
- E) No one who had found out about his misconduct thought about telling his manager.

104- There is no question that a rise in fees would be a further disincentive for students.

- A) An increase in fees could discourage some students from continuing to study.
- B) It is certain that an increase in fees would be an additional discouragement to students.
- C) If fees are too high, then some students won't embark on a course of study.
- D) It is doubtful that a raise in fees would discourage any students from studying.
- E) The question was raised as to whether an increase in fees would discourage students.

105- The Chinese recognise that there is cruelty attached to trading in products from bears and insist that alternatives are available in their traditional medicine.

- A) The Chinese cruelly trade in parts of bears for medical purposes as there are no alternatives available in traditional medicine.
- B) The Chinese strongly deny that they cruelly sell medical products made from bears and assert that alternatives to these have been found for use in their traditional medicine.
- C) The brutality connected with selling products from bears has been acknowledged by the Chinese, who assert that there are other products in their traditional medicine that can be used in place of these.
- D) Although the Chinese have admitted that it is barbaric to use parts of bears as medicines, these form an essential part of their traditional medicine, for which there is no alternative.
- E) The Chinese don't appreciate that their trading in parts of bears for medical uses is cruel and see their actions as essential to their alternative traditional medicine.

106- The majority of delegates from the one hundred and sixty nations voted not to lift the ban on whaling.

- A) Most of the one hundred and sixty national representatives were in favour of lifting the ban on whaling.
- B) There were few delegates from the one hundred and sixty nations who weren't in favour of allowing whaling.
- C) Over half of the representatives from the one hundred and sixty countries agreed to abolish the ban on whaling.
- D) More than half of the representatives from one hundred and sixty countries voted against abolishing the ban on whaling.
- E) The ban on whaling was lifted by a majority vote from the representatives from one hundred and sixty countries.

107- Although doctors recommend doing aerobic exercise three times a week, few people over fifty heed this advice.

- A) Quite a few people over fifty do aerobic exercise as many times a week as doctors recommend.
- B) Despite recommendations from doctors that aerobic exercise should be done three times weekly, not many people over fifty conform to this.
- C) Once people reach fifty, they don't often follow the recommendations of doctors to exercise aerobically three times weekly.
- D) It is recommended by doctors that people over fifty exercise aerobically no fewer than three times each week.
- E) The doctor has given the fifty-year-olds a recommendation for exercising aerobically three times a week, but few of them will conform to this.

108- No sooner had we got to know our local policeman than he was replaced by someone else.

- A) We didn't really get to know our last police officer before he was transferred to a remote area.
- B) Everyone had just got accustomed to the police officer when he decided to do something else.
- C) They keep replacing our local police officer before we even get acquainted with him.

- D) Soon after we had got to know our local police officer, we had to ask for a replacement.
E) Hardly had we got acquainted with our local police officer when somebody else took his place.

109- Nearly four-fifths of prisoners offend again after they are released from prison.

- A) Approximately four out of five prisoners commit more serious crimes following their release from prison.
B) Roughly one-fifth of all criminals will serve more than one prison term.
C) Almost eighty percent of all criminals commit more than one crime before being sent to prison.
D) Roughly four-fifths of prisoners commit worse crimes after their release from prison.
E) Those who do not restart their criminal activities following their release from prison form a little more than one-fifth of all.

110- The chairperson has the time until Friday to agree to the proposals, or he'll face further calls for his resignation from the committee.

- A) Because the Chairperson didn't agree to the proposals, he has been given until Friday by the committee to give his resignation.
B) If the chairperson doesn't accept the proposals on Friday, he will probably be asked to resign by the committee.
C) The chairperson must accept the proposals by Friday; otherwise, members of the committee will again ask him to resign.
D) The committee have given the chairperson a deadline of Friday for accepting their proposal calling for his resignation.
E) The chairperson has given the committee the time until Friday to agree to his proposals or to accept his resignation.

CONJUNCTIONS – TRANSITIONS (EŞANLAMLI CÜMLE)
--

111- Fishing is a restful way to spend your leisure time, whether you catch anything or not.

- A) The best thing for you to do in your spare time is to go fishing, as it is very relaxing.
- B) Even if you don't catch anything, going fishing in your spare time is relaxing.
- C) Fishing is extremely relaxing, especially when you catch something.
- D) Fishing is not only relaxing but also a chance to catch something to eat.
- E) Whenever I go fishing, I come back relaxed, even if I can't catch anything.

112- Although it is as hot there as it is in Istanbul, the weather in Cappadocia is more comfortable because the air is drier.

- A) Cappadocia is hotter than Istanbul, but it feels cooler because of the dry air, which makes it very pleasant.
- B) The air in the Cappadocian region is not only pleasanter than in Istanbul but also cleaner and therefore it feels much more comfortable.
- C) With its relatively cool and dry weather, Cappadocia has a pleasanter climate than Istanbul, which is usually hot and humid in the summer.
- D) As the air in Cappadocia is not as humid as in Istanbul, the hot weather there is more agreeable even though both cities are the same temperature.
- E) When Istanbul is hot and sticky, Cappadocia is usually cooler and drier, making it a very pleasant place to live in.

113- Ever since a fortune teller predicted that disaster loomed in Joanna's future, she has been expecting something terrible to happen.

- A) Joanna's negative attitude was largely due to the predictions of a fortune teller who had predicted nothing but doom and gloom.
- B) Joanna was ready for the disaster, for a fortune teller had warned her that it would happen sooner or later.
- C) When Joanna was struck by a disaster, she couldn't help remembering the fortune teller who had predicted one in her future.
- D) Thanks to the predictions of a fortune teller, Joanna was ready when disaster struck.
- E) Joanna has been anticipating a personal disaster from the time a fortune teller told her that one was approaching.

114- Before long, he became aware that his hearing problem not only was permanent; but was getting progressively worse.

- A) He had been deaf for a very long time, yet he still refused to accept that his condition was permanent, and expected to get better eventually.
- B) When he became convinced that his hearing problem was permanent, he had already been deaf for a very long time.
- C) It didn't take him long to realise that his hearing problem was deteriorating, and that his condition was not temporary.
- D) Soon, he noticed that his hearing problem, which he had thought permanent, was gradually getting better.
- E) For a long time, he believed that he was deaf temporarily; however, it was obvious that his condition was permanent.

115- The unusually hot weather in Texas, USA, this year has been responsible for a number of deaths, mainly of elderly residents.

- A) Due to the exceptionally hot weather in Texas, USA, this year, elderly residents should be very careful to keep cool as over-exposure to heat can cause death.

- B) Because Texas, USA, has an extremely hot climate, a number of elderly people die of sunstroke every year.
- C) Texas this year has been so hot that lots of people have suffered from sunstroke.
- D) Several, largely elderly, members of the population have lost their lives due to the unexpected heatwave that has hit Texas, USA, this year.
- E) Lack of provisions for the elderly is the reason for so many deaths in the American state of Texas this year, where they have had an unusually hot summer.

116- Unlike his wife, he thinks that bullfighting should be banned.

- A) Although he dislikes bullfighting, his wife, who is against banning the sport, really enjoys it.
- B) She doesn't like bullfighting, yet she still doesn't agree with her husband about banning the sport.
- C) Differing from her husband, she feels that bullfighting ought not to be permitted any more.
- D) They can't decide whether bullfighting should be banned just because it is cruel.
- E) Contrary to his opinion, his wife believes that bullfighting should continue to be permitted.

117- As no company other than Istanbul Airlines and Turkish Airlines operate a non-stop service to Manchester, we should choose one of these firms.

- A) Istanbul Airlines and Turkish Airlines are the only companies which fly directly to Manchester, so we ought to fly with one of them.
- B) Istanbul Airlines and Turkish Airlines don't operate a flight there, so we had better choose a destination other than Manchester.
- C) Neither Istanbul Airlines nor Turkish Airlines fly directly to Manchester Airport, so we had better choose a different company.
- D) Many companies such as Istanbul Airlines and Turkish Airlines now fly directly to Manchester Airport.
- E) The only way we can fly to Manchester is with either Istanbul Airlines or Turkish Airlines, so we have to choose between these two operators.

118- Having just bought a brand new car, he was angry when the electric windows on it stopped working.

- A) He bought a new car because he was fed up with the electric windows not working properly on his old one.
- B) He didn't notice that the electric windows weren't working on his brand new car until after he had collected it, which was very annoying.
- C) Although he was not happy to discover that the car did not have electrically operated windows, he bought it anyway.
- D) Feeling annoyed that the electric windows no longer worked on his car, he bought a new one.
- E) The failure of the electric windows on his new car annoyed him because he had only recently purchased it brand new.

119- No animal or vegetable life except for bacteria and brine shrimp inhabit the Dead Sea, as the water is twenty-five percent salt.

- A) The Dead Sea is known as such because, due to its salty water virtually no animal or plant species can survive there.
- B) The Dead Sea is made up of twenty-five percent salt; consequently, only bacteria and brine shrimp can live in its water.
- C) Having extremely salty water, the Dead Sea cannot support most life forms including bacteria and brine shrimp.
- D) The water of the Dead Sea is one quarter salt, which explains why a lot of animal and plant species are not found in abundance there.
- E) Being among the life forms that can survive in such salty water, bacteria and brine shrimp can be found in the Dead Sea.

120- Nowadays, Philadelphia isn't the capital of either the USA or Pennsylvania state, however, in its history it has been both.

- A) Although in the past Philadelphia has been both the capital of the USA and of the Pennsylvania state, today it is neither.

- B) Having been both the United States' and Pennsylvania state's capital city, Philadelphia has a great history.
- C) Besides being the United States' capital, Philadelphia is also the capital of the state of Pennsylvania.
- D) Pennsylvania's capital, Philadelphia, used to be America's capital as well, but it no longer is.
- E) Today, Philadelphia isn't the capital of the USA any more, but only the capital of the state of Pennsylvania.

121- Unlike most dedicated Internet trading companies, Buzz.com made a profit in its first year.

- A) As is the case with most Internet trading companies, Buzz.com failed to make a profit during its first year.
- B) Not many specialist Internet trading companies make a profit in the first year, and Buzz.com is no exception.
- C) Buzz.com followed the pattern of the vast majority of specialist Internet -companies, making a profit in its first trading year.
- D) There aren't many specialist Internet trading companies which had such a profitable first year as Buzz.com.
- E) Buzzcom was different from most other specialist Internet trading companies in that it made a profit in its first year.

122- The bus ride to Solihull takes twice as long as the journey by car because of the long route the bus takes.

- A) If you want to drive your own car to Solihull, you can take the same route as the bus and still get there in half the time.
- B) I wish the bus took the same route as they do by car, then it would take me half the time to get to Solihull.
- C) Due to the long route taken by the bus; it takes double the time a car takes to reach Solihull.
- D) You could have saved half of the time you spent on the journey had you taken a car to Solihull instead of a bus.
- E) I advice you to avoid catching the bus to Solihull as it takes twice as long as it does to drive there.

123- Besides having to tolerate the noise from the building site, our electricity was cut off three times last week.

- A) Not only do the construction .workers shout a lot, but they keep cutting our electricity off.
- B) In addition to putting up with construction noise last week, we had three power cuts.
- C) We haven't been inconvenienced by the builders apart from some construction noise and a few-power cuts.
- D) There have been many inconveniences with the construction work, such as noise and at least three power cuts.
- E) It has been impossible to work in our office this week due to a combination of construction noise and three power cuts.

124- Sixty-eight passengers and crew, almost all of whom were local residents, drowned when the ferry struck rocks.

- A) With only a few exceptions, of whom some were local residents, the sixty-eight passengers who died when the ferry they were travelling on hit a rock were tourists.
- B) When the ferry hit some rocks, sixty-eight passengers and some crew members, who were all local residents, died.
- C) Hardly any of the passengers and crew among the sixty-eight who died when the ferry hit a rock were local residents'.
- D) The ferry hit some rocks resulting in the deaths of sixty-eight passengers and crew, mainly local people.
- E) Apart from the sixty-eight passengers who died when the ferry hit some rocks, some crew members, who were local residents, drowned.

125- Obviously, modern skills, such as computer design skills, are vitally important today, but the teaching of traditional skills shouldn't be ignored.

- A) It is inevitable that handicrafts will be forgotten as everybody wants to learn modern skills, such as computer design skills.
- B) Some traditional skills are in danger of being completely forgotten as everyone is eager to learn modern skills, such as computer design skills.
- C) While we are concentrating on teaching modern skills, such as computer design skills, the instruction of traditional crafts is being ignored.
- D) The teaching of traditional crafts ought not to be forgotten, although modern skills, such as computer design skills, are essential today.
- E) The teaching of traditional skills is almost irrelevant in the modern world and the essential skills these days are technical skills, such as computer design skills.

126- Unlike the head chef, he thinks adding fresh cream to tomato soup makes it more delicious.

- A) Both himself and the head chef are of the opinion that tomato soup tastes better when a little fresh cream is added.
- B) In his opinion, which is contrary to the head chefs, the flavour of tomato soup is enhanced by adding fresh cream.
- C) Although he added fresh cream to the tomato soup to enhance the flavour, the head chef didn't like it.
- D) The head chef advised him to add some fresh cream to the tomato soup, but he doesn't think this will improve the flavour of the dish.
- E) As any head chef will tell you, you can improve tomato soup by adding some fresh cream just before serving.

127- Having had her bag stolen at this marketplace before, she kept a firm grip on her handbag.

- A) If she had been holding her bag tightly while at the marketplace, her bag would not have been stolen.
- B) She knows that it is a good idea to hold firmly onto her purse while shopping at the market as many people have been robbed.
- C) Despite the fact that she was holding her handbag tightly most of the time, she had her purse stolen at the marketplace.
- D) She held her bag tightly while at the marketplace because she had had one stolen there before.
- E) In spite of having her bag stolen on a previous occasion, she failed to keep a tight hold on it at the marketplace.

128- Besides the terrible one near Istanbul last year, Turkey has been the victim of several other large scale earthquakes.

- A) Apart from Turkey, where a horrific earthquake happened last year, there are several other countries where large scale earthquakes happen.
- B) In addition to the large scale earthquake near Istanbul last year, many other cities in Turkey have experienced minor earthquakes.
- C) Although Turkey has been the victim of many earthquakes, the worst one ever happened last year near Istanbul.
- D) Last year there was a terrible earthquake near Istanbul, Turkey, as well as quite a number of others throughout the world.
- E) Turkey has suffered from several other serious earthquakes, in addition to the horrific one near Istanbul last year.

129- Sheltering under a tree is not a wise thing to do during a thunder and lightning storm.

- A) We took shelter under a tree during the thunder and lightning storm, which, actually, was quite stupid.
- B) Taking shelter under a tree is a foolish thing to do while a thunder and lightning storm is raging.
- C) The best place to shelter from a thunder and lightning storm is under a large tree.
- D) The only place available to us for shelter during the thunder and lightning storm was a large tree.
- E) There are better places to shelter while a thunder and lightning storm is raging than under a tree.

130- He travels from Ireland every other week to visit his fiancée despite the expense.

- A) He shouldn't travel from Ireland every week to visit his fiancée because it is too expensive.
- B) He can only visit his fiancée in Ireland once every two weeks because of the high cost of the journey.
- C) Although the journey from Ireland is quite expensive, he visits his fiancée once every two weeks.
- D) It doesn't cost much to travel there from Ireland, yet he visits his fiancée every other week instead of every week.
- E) If it didn't cost so much to travel from Ireland, he would visit his fiancée more often.

131- People continue to debate about whether she should have been released earlier even though the notorious child killer died in prison after serving thirty-six years.

- A) The death of the infamous child killer in jail after she had been imprisoned for thirty-six years led some people to think that she should have been released earlier.
- B) After the infamous child killer had been in prison on a life sentence for thirty-six years, people began to discuss whether she should be released earlier or not.
- C) When she died in prison after serving thirty-six years, some people thought that the infamous child killer should have been released earlier.
- D) The infamous child killer died in prison after being imprisoned for thirty-six years, so the long-standing debate about whether she deserved to be released ended.
- E) Having been imprisoned for thirty-six years, the infamous child killer died in jail, but the debate about whether she should have been released earlier hasn't stopped.

132- She is campaigning for the end of fur farming in the UK because she thinks it is cruel and unnecessary.

- A) Due to the fact that she believes fur farming is neither necessary nor humane, she is pressing for an end to it in the UK.
- B) She is campaigning to put an end to fur farming in the UK as she thinks this is necessary to stop this cruelty.
- C) Since a campaign in the UK showing how cruel and inhumane fur farming is, she has been attracted to take part in it.
- D) She believes that fur farming is cruel, which causes unnecessary harm to animals; therefore, she supports the campaign against it in the UK.
- E) She thinks that following a campaign, fur farming, which is cruel and unnecessary, could be stopped in the UK.

133- As a consequence of the arrest of three men planning to release poisonous gas in the London Underground, people are asking for increased security measures.

- A) They have introduced new security measures as a result of public concern after three men, who have now been arrested, discharged toxic gas in the London Underground.
- B) People are asking for increased security measures following an incident in which three men, who have now been arrested, discharged toxic gas in the London Underground.
- C) The public are seeking additional security measures because three men who were planning to discharge toxic gas in the London Underground have been arrested.
- D) One consequence of the discovery that there was a plan to discharge toxic gas in the London Underground, for which three men have been arrested, is the introduction of special security measures.
- E) In spite of the new security measures, three men, who have now been arrested, were trying to discharge toxic gas in the London Underground.

134- Even if they can drag the tanker one hundred and twenty miles from the coast of Spain, the oil spilling from it will cause environmental damage to this breathtakingly beautiful area.

- A) They may manage to stop the oil spillage destroying the exceptional beauty of this part of the Spanish coast by towing the tanker over one hundred and twenty miles further out to sea.
- B) Only if they tow the tanker one hundred and twenty miles from the coast of Spain will the oil spilling from it not cause environmental damage to this amazingly attractive area.
- C) They are going to tow the tanker one hundred and twenty miles away from the Spanish coast in order to avoid it spilling its oil close to this incredibly beautiful area and causing environmental damage.
- D) The only way they will be able to prevent the oil spillage from damaging the Spanish coast and its incredible beauty is to tow the tanker at least one hundred and twenty miles further out to sea.
- E) The oil escaping from the oil tanker will damage the environment of this amazingly attractive area regardless of whether they tow it one hundred and twenty miles away from the Spanish coast.

135- Conditions for street children in Mexico are appalling, but they are not targets for police brutality as is the case in some South American countries.

- A) Mexico is no different from countries in South America in that they have a terrible problem of street children, who live in dreadful conditions and are treated cruelly by the police.
- B) Conditions for homeless children in Mexico are awful and, as is the case in South American countries, they are also subject to cruelty at the hands of the police force.
- C) Not only are conditions awful for homeless children in Mexico, but they are also treated with cruelty by the police as happens in several South American countries.
- D) Homeless children suffer cruelty from the police in Mexico, just as in other South American countries, but conditions for them are slightly better.
- E) Homeless children live in awful conditions in Mexico, but unlike what happens in some South American countries, they do not suffer cruelty at the hands of the police force.

136- The professor may have a valid academic theory, but he shouldn't expect the general public to understand it.

- A) Even though the professor's theory might have academic value, he isn't justified in expecting it to be understood by people in general.
- B) The professor's theory certainly has academic merit, but, as would be expected, people in general don't understand it.
- C) Even the general public can see that the professor's theory doesn't have any academic merit.
- D) The professor's theory should be easily understood by the general public because it has academic merit.
- E) Most people are not expected to understand the professor's theory though it has intellectual value.

137- She got over the trauma quickly, thanks to the care of her supportive family.

- A) Had she had a more supportive family, she would have recovered more rapidly.
- B) Her rapid recovery from the trauma was due to the support she received from her family.
- C) After she had recovered from the trauma, she thanked her parents for their support.
- D) Supportive families are key to recovering from traumas, as was the case in her situation.
- E) Despite having lots of support from her family, it took her quite some time to get over the trauma.

138- She is not extravagant in her choice of clothes or makeup despite being a wealthy man's wife.

- A) She wouldn't like to waste money on designer clothes or expensive makeup even if her husband was rich.
- B) Because she is married to a wealthy man, she can afford extremely expensive clothes and makeup.
- C) Now that she is married to a rich man, she can make extravagant choices in clothes and makeup.
- D) One might expect that, as a rich man's wife, she can make extravagant choices in clothes and makeup
- E) Although she is married to a rich man, she doesn't buy extremely expensive clothes or makeup.

139- The sago palm leaf is both strong and waterproof, making it ideal roofing material.

- A) It is a good idea to use the leaves of the sago palm as roofing material if they are so strong and waterproof.
- B) If the leaves of the sago were as strong as they are waterproof, they would be the ideal roofing material.
- C) People use the leaves of the sago palm to make their roofs because the⁷ are the only material that are both strong and waterproof.
- D) The roofs made with the leaves of the sago palm are relatively durable and waterproof.
- E) The leaves of the sago palm are ideally suited for roof making because, as well as being tough, they are waterproof.

140- During the first six months of his new job, he lived in a rented flat and returned home to his wife at weekends.

- A) For the first six months in his new job, they lived in a rented flat and travelled back to their home together every weekend.
- B) For the last six months, he has worked away, renting a flat near his place of work and returning home most weekends.
- C) He spent the first six months of his new employment living in a rented flat, going back home at weekends to his wife.
- D) It was not until he had been in his job for six months that they found a rented flat and were able to move house.
- E) He has been living in a rented flat since taking his new job, but will move down with his wife when he has sold his house, which could take six months.

141- Despite the fact that he was deaf, the composer Beethoven wrote some of the greatest music the world has ever heard.

- A) The composer Beethoven was unable to hear, yet the music he created is among the best in world history.
- B) Even though the composer Beethoven wrote some of the best music in world history, he was unable to listen to his own pieces.
- C) Some of the best music ever listened to in the world was composed by Beethoven after he had become deaf.
- D) The world has not heard better music than that which was written by the deaf composer Beethoven.
- E) Considering that he was deaf, the composer Beethoven was able to create very good music.

142- While thinking about which pair of shoes to buy, I decided it would be better to save the money.

- A) As I couldn't choose which of the pairs of shoes I wanted, I thought it would be better to buy the cheaper one.

- B) I chose to keep my money as being a better option than buying one of the two pairs of shoes I was considering.
- C) I wasn't sure whether to buy one of the pairs of shoes or keep the money instead.
- D) Of the two pairs of shoes, I decided to buy the cheaper one as I wanted to save some of the money.
- E) I realized I would have to save some money in order to buy one of the two pairs of shoes I was considering.

143- Serving as president of the USA during his fourth term in office, Franklin Roosevelt died in April 1945.

- A) Franklin Roosevelt lost his life soon after he had completed his fourth term in office as president of the USA.
- B) While serving the president of the USA, who was then in his fourth term, Franklin Roosevelt died in April 1945.
- C) Franklin Roosevelt passed away in April 1945, while in his fourth term of office as US president.
- D) Franklin Roosevelt passed away in April 1945 after he had been president of the USA for four terms.
- E) Dying in his office in April 1945, Franklin Roosevelt was in the middle of his fourth term as US president.

144- Turkey has been making political and economic reforms in order to become a member of the EU.

- A) When it becomes a member of the EU, Turkey will have to make reforms in both its political and economic systems.
- B) Although Turkey has reformed its political and economic systems, it is still not a member of the EU.
- C) Following the instructions of the EU, Turkey has made several political and economic changes.
- D) Turkey is trying to gain membership of the EU, which requires it to make a number of political and economic changes.
- E) To gain entrance to the EU, Turkey has been making changes to its political and economic systems.

145- Thomas Hardy romanticized the people of the countryside, whereas Emile Zola described them more realistically.

- A) Emile Zola wrote about rural people as they actually were, but Thomas Hardy saw them romantically.
- B) Thomas Hardy was one of the people who found the countryside romantic, but Emile Zola's view of it was realistic.
- C) Although both came from the countryside, Emile Zola was described as a realist, while Thomas Hardy was viewed as a romantic.
- D) Emile Zola was a less romantic writer than Thomas Hardy, especially in regard to how he viewed country people.
- E) Emile Zola attacked Thomas Hardy's romantic descriptions of rural people by portraying them in a more realistic way.

146- Upon proving that they hadn't even been in the city on the day of the robbery, the police let the suspects go.

- A) The police told the suspects that they could only release them if they proved their whereabouts on the day of the robbery.
- B) The police released the suspects when they provided evidence of their being outside of the city on the day the robbery happened.
- C) The police had to give the suspects their freedom as they didn't have any proof that they were in the city when the robbery occurred.

- D) The suspects were let off even though they had lied about not having been in the city on the day of the robbery.
- E) As the suspects hadn't even been in the city on the day of the robbery, the police couldn't charge them.

147- However much sacrifice and heartbreak it would take, he was determined to be a successful painter.

- A) Having overcome many worries and disappointments thanks to his determination, he finally became a successful painter.
- B) He knew that it was not possible to become a successful painter without a lot of sacrifice and heartbreak.
- C) He was resolute in his ambition to succeed as a painter regardless of the difficulties and disappointments along the way.
- D) He had always wished to be a successful painter; however, all his sacrifice was wasted, and he ended up disappointed.
- E) Had it not been for the disillusionment and disappointment along the way, he could have succeeded as a painter.

148- The Spanish Civil War resulted from a fascist attempt to overthrow the elected government of Spain.

- A) When the elected government of Spain was overthrown, fascists started the Spanish Civil War.
- B) Because the elected government of Spain wasn't overthrown in the fascist attempt, a civil war broke out.
- C) Fascists tried to overthrow the elected government of Spain, leading to civil war in the country.
- D) An effort to overthrow the elected fascist government of Spain resulted in the Spanish Civil War.
- E) The Spanish Civil War came to an end when fascists overthrew Spain's elected government.

149- Much as George loved travelling in Asia, he decided not to go to Indonesia because of his fears of terrorism.

- A) Although George liked touring Asia, ever since the threat of terrorism started, he hadn't been to Indonesia.
- B) George would have gone to Indonesia if he hadn't been scared of terrorism so much because Asia was his favourite travel spot.
- C) As Indonesia had become a high-risk terrorism spot, George, who normally loved Asia, was afraid to go there.
- D) Even though George liked touring Asia very much, he was afraid of the terrorism in Indonesia, so he chose not to go there.
- E) George loved travelling in Asia so much that he would even go to Indonesia, though the country was under threat from terrorism.

150- Unlike Voltaire, who believed in human progress, Rousseau thought that man had been happiest before the creation of society.

- A) Although Voltaire tried to help humanity in its progress, Rousseau blamed social organizations for depriving people of happiness.
- B) Voltaire had progressed from thinking, like Rousseau, that man had been most contented before he created himself society.
- C) Voltaire argued that humans should attempt to progress, while Rousseau claimed that such a social system robbed people of their happiness.
- D) In Voltaire's opinion, man was becoming happier while progressing forward; this was an idea Rousseau was in total opposition to.
- E) According to Rousseau, humans were at their most contented before society was formed, but Voltaire believed in the advancement of man.

