

Someone somewhere

For each of the six questions choose the one correct answer.

1. Not Scotland again! It rained everyday last time, I want to go _____ sunny this summer.

- a. someone
- b. somewhere
- c. somebody
- d. something

2. I'm not a fussy eater, I'll eat _____ at all!

- a. something
- b. everything
- c. nothing
- d. anything

3. _____ wanted to come and see the film with me, so I went on my own.

- a. nobody
- b. someone
- c. everyone
- d. anybody

4. 'Would you like _____ to drink?'

- a. nothing
- b. everything
- c. something
- d. any

5. I loved my trip to Italy, _____ was so friendly.

- a. everyone
- b. someone
- c. no one
- d. anyone

6. "Would you like anything _____ madam?"

- a. more
- b. plus
- c. extra
- d. else

Someone somewhere ...

Answers

1:

- a. Use someone (or somebody) to talk about people.
- b. Correct. Use 'somewhere' to talk about places.
- c. You Use somebody (or someone) to talk about people.
- d. Use something to talk about things.

2:

d. Correct - 'I'll eat anything at all' means 'I don't mind' or 'It doesn't matter'.

3:

a. Correct - 'Nobody (or no one) wanted to come'

4:

c. Correct - If we make an offer we usually say ' Would you like something...?'

5:

c. Correct - 'Everyone was friendly' (all the people) is correct.

6:

d. Correct - In a shop you may be asked 'Would you like anything else?'